

Theta Rho Initiates Two

Theta Theta Rho Girls Club No. 8 held initiation ceremonies on March 21 for two new members, Linda Lindville and Donna Lou Graham were presented for initiation by Ruth Kramer, conductor.

President Donna Fay and other members outlined the purpose of the club to the initiates.

Decorations for the ceremony were in charge of Nancy Wise. Refreshments were served by Wayne Wailer following the meeting.

The state convention of Theta Rho Girls Clubs will be held April 9 in Klamath Falls. Sharon Odell of this city will preside as chairman of the convention, and will also be in charge of programs. She appointed Ruth Ann Leib as chairman of decoration and Maxine Kramer in charge of refreshments.

Theta Theta Rho Club No. 8 met Monday, March 28, to make convention plans. A slumber party has been arranged for those staying over night. A breakfast will be served in the hall by the local club.

Theta Rho has scheduled a community project to sell Easter lilies for the Easter Seal Foundation for crippled children. They will be sold on Saturdays before Easter.

At a recent meeting, Donna Fay, Waynette Wailer and Maxine Kramer were appointed to the calling committee. Ramona Soto was installed as warden.

PARTY FOR TEEN-AGERS

Teen-agers having a party? Have a variety of frozen fruit juices on hand—orange, pineapple, grape and grapefruit—and let them mix their own punch.

PATTI O'HARRA, right, is chairman of the card party given each year by Venture Club as its one money raising project. Other club members with her are, from the left, Sharon Royse, Pauline Herlihy and Jean Kloiber. The affair will be April 8 at 7:30 p.m. in the city library. The public is invited for the evening of cards and to see the fashion show by Bon Bazaar. Reservations may be made by calling Patti O'Harra, TU 4-6151. Tickets are one dollar. Venture Club, a group of young working women, actively participates in many civic projects. Each year the club sponsors the March of Dimes and presents $25 to a graduating senior girl. Gifts for Hillcrest Home and monthly favors for Klamath Nursing Home are other activities of the club.

Manzanita OES

A delightful evening was spent by members and visitors at a regular meeting of Manzanita Chapter, No. 172 OES, held Wednesday, March 23, in the Scottish Rite Temple. Worthy Matron Nina Hall and Worthy Patron William Steiner presided.

The grand honors of welcome were given Lorena McNair, past grand matron of the Grand Chapter of Oregon. Other guests officially welcomed and escorted to the east were Morris Boughner, associate grand patron of the Grand Chapter of Oregon, Edna Jameson, worthy matron of Tulelake Chapter, and Don Shores, worthy patron of Adare Chapter, Jacksonville, Oregon.

Lorena McNair had Georgianna Clark escorted to the east and there presented her with the badge of her office, grand representative to Alberta, Canada, from Oregon. In honor of the birthday of the worthy patron, the courtesy stars honored him with an addendum and presented him with some fishing tackle. Dale Howell, representing the chapter, also presented him a gift.

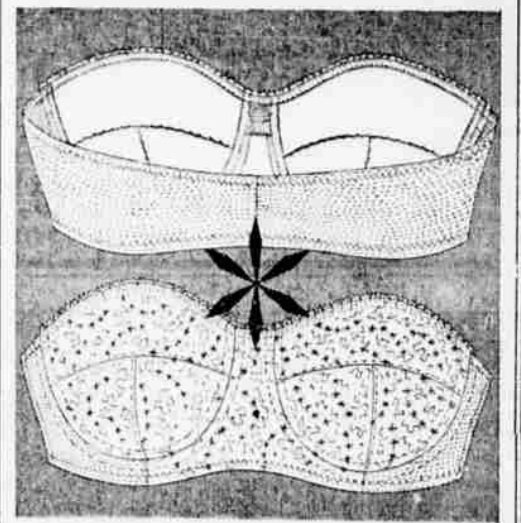

A social hour was held in the dining room where secret pals were revealed and new names drawn. Serving on the refreshment committee were Helen Rightmeyer, chairman, Lara and Elmer Vincent, Carol and Robert Biggs and Gertrude James.

FOR RESORT WEAR

A pretty dress for resort wear. Save old powderpuffs, wash and this summer, too is done in rinse and dry. Then use them a hot pink and sea blue stripe when polishing fine silverware.
