

Nat Charges Game Laws 'At Low Ebb'

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A state senator charged Tuesday that the Department of Fish and Game was "deteriorating fast" and that morale was "at an all time low."

Sen. John M. Thompson (R-San Jose) also claimed that department employees "have been ordered to stay away from public hearings dealing with their own work and field of interest and which they should have been required to attend."

Thompson made the charges in a letter to Sen. J. Howard Williams (R-Porterville) which was made public today.

Thompson's letter cited three reasons for the "serious rate" of resignations and contemplated resignations:

—Promotion by transfer — resulting in moving men from place to place and forcing them to take positions which they either do not want or for which they are not prepared . . . much of the work in this profession depends on facts gathered very slowly and painstakingly over periods of years. Efficiency cannot be maintained by changing workers like clerks at a candy counter.

—Instability of jobs — closing out of jobs without warning — a situation that apparently happens not infrequently and which is most discouraging. My observation has been that this is needless in most cases and could be avoided by some foresight and planning.

—Lack of a strong professional policy. Department members simply are not allowed to defend themselves professionally in public. Contrary to all denial, I know that it is in effect and works."

Thompson said the departure of such men as William Dasman, former chief of the big game division, and Joe Whales, a fisheries administrator, were "a severe loss" to the state.

LA Outlasts SF In Brawl

PHOENIX, Ariz. (UPI) — The San Francisco Giants and the Los Angeles Dodgers met in their first exhibition baseball game of the year Wednesday—but it was hardly a classic encounter.

The two teams amassed 24 runs, 25 hits, 21 bases on balls, and five errors. The victory went to the world champion Dodgers, 14-10.

Wally Moon and John Roseboro smashed homers for Los Angeles, and Willie McCovey rapped one out of the park for the Giants. San Francisco leadoff man Don Blasingame got on base six times, on five walks and a single.

Forty players saw action in the three-hour marathon, which was played in sweltering 90 degree weather.

Sail Sam Jones of the Giants and Roger Craig of the Dodgers had their problems in the pitching department. Jones gave up six hits and seven runs in two and one-third innings, and Craig allowed eight runs and eight hits in four frames.

TO SIGN PACT
GENEVA (UPI)—Heavyweight champion Ingemar Johansson the third in a row when he will fly to New York some time next week to sign a contract for a return match with Floyd Patterson on June 22. Johansson has lined up sparring partners for his training quarters in a chalet-type shack in the fashionable Champel district.

TIME OUT

"Now, now, kid, you could at least wait until they get on the field and the game starts!"

Oregon Wins Easily, 10-2

EUGENE (AP) — Oregon won its third baseball victory of the season Wednesday swamping Willamette University, 10-2.

The Ducks got only eight hits but cashed in on five Willamette errors for six unearned runs.

Three of these errors came in the third inning when Oregon opened the scoring with five runs, two of them coming on Eddie Davidson's double. Oregon 000 000 110 2 7 5. June 22, Johansson has lined up sparring partners for his training quarters in a chalet-type shack in the fashionable Champel district.
