LAKEVIEW

LAKEVIEW — The halls of Lakeview High School are reverberating this week with the buzz of electioneering for student body officers. The slate of nominees chosen by the student council was left intact. There were no new nominations from the floor at the nominating assembly April 1.

Qualifications for presidency were read by Mike Tooke, student body president, after which he called for further nominations. Nominating speeches were made by members of the speech class. Running for the top office are Jim Stewart, Larry Nelson, Jim Clinton and Dennis Vincent. For vice president are Jim Griener, Craig MacKay and Tom Tooke.

Joy Kerr, secretary, read qualifications for that position. Nominees are Claudia Harris, Kerry Adams, Marian Angele and Margery Blair.

At the opening of the term a vacancy occurred for the office of student body treasurer and Mary Jo Deely was named by the student council. She will continue in the job next year. An innovation this year, part of the constitution but not in effect up to this time, is the election of an assistant treasurer, Elva Bratton, Nancy Galloway and Judy Kerr were nominated following reading of the qualifications by Mary Jo Deely.

In the midst of a barrage of cartoons, banners and promotional posters, nominees made their acceptance speeches Tuesday before the assembled student body and elections were set for Friday, April 8. Candidates are not allowed to exceed $5 in campaign expenditures. Following election, the new officers will take over immediately in their jobs to gain experience for the coming year.

Armed Forces Day assembly for senior boys was held Monday, April 4, from 9 to 10 a.m. with representatives of the various divisions of the Armed Forces presenting information about each field.

May 6 has been set as the date for the annual Mothers' Tea sponsored by the Future Homemakers, the Girls' League and the art department.

Excellent casting by Mrs. Fern Wallon, director, was noted in the high school play, "The Night is My Enemy," presented to the public in the high school auditorium the evening of April 1.

The difficult parts of the blind girl, portrayed by Sandra Watts, the English maid by Mary Lee Scoville, and the half-witted boy by Jim Griener, were particularly well done. Sandra never deviated from her role of sightlessness while submitting the pathos and courage that the situation combined. Mary Lee as Tessie, the maid, did well with the dialect, adding the proper touch of humor which lifted the story out of the depths of mysterious murder. Jim proved to have real acting ability in making the half-wit boy believable.

Other parts were taken by Sherry Jarman, Marie Simms, Milton Davis, Mike Tooke, Bob Ackerman and Pete Kimzey. Also involved in the production were Kathy Wallis, assistant director; Onnetta Lu Elle, business manager; Judy Barry and Lynda Baker, costumes; James Cogburn, lighting and music.

Susan Jones managed properties; Hazel Porter, Martha Bush, Lois Edwards, Elva Bratton, Carole Tainter, Elaine Morehead, make-up; Dick Maxwell, stage; Gayle Teet was prompter. Publicity was by the art class and junior class; Sharon Hanan, Joan Murphy, Nancy Hansen, Andrea Deter, Nicky Ramirez, Barbara Bekkedahl, Joan Perry, Linda Nelson and Karin Windle were usherettes.

The play was a fund-raising project for the junior class. Two-thirds of the proceeds go toward financing the senior prom and banquet and the other third to the Thespians.

Police Keep Murders File

CHICAGO (UPI) — The olive drab metal cabinet on the third floor of Chicago's central police headquarters rarely needs dusting, it is used so often. It is filled with manila folders holding data on Chicago's unsolved murders—942 gang killings since 1919, assorted additional murders and, within the past five years, three of the nation's most spectacular multiple-death crimes. Latest at the multiple killings involved three suburban Riverside matrons, Mrs. Lillian Oetting, Mrs. Frances Murphy and Mrs. Mildred Lindquist. The women's beaten bodies were found at Starved Rock State Park, 100 miles southwest of Chicago. Officially, Chicago Police have not entered the Starved Rock case. They have, however, volunteered any assistance if asked. The Starved Rock case, three weeks old today, thus appeared to be heading for the unsolved list. Beside it, in Chicago area murders, were the cases of three young boys, found beaten and strangled in a suburban forest preserve, and the two Grimes sisters, found frozen and nude along another forest preserve's road two years later in 1957.
