Over The Garden Gate

BONANZA—The Bonanza Garden Club met at the home of Mrs. Alta Dixon March 25 with Mrs. Elsa Clark president, conducting the meeting.

A discussion was held on whether to keep the club going or to disband. It was decided to keep the club together.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Alyce Haley April 8 at 2 o'clock. The speaker will be J. D. Vertrees of the Klamath Experimental Station who will demonstrate how to prune trees and shrubs.

Mrs. Dixon served refreshment to Mrs. Clark, Virginia Hartley, Alyce Haley, Louie's a Horter, Helen Smith, Violet Brown, Phyllis Huffman, Donna Dixon and Irene Hartley.

program on "Birds and Wild Flowers."

Routine business was conducted and reports given on Arbor Day planting by the cemetery committee and by the nominating committee.

Lupine culture was the subject for general discussion.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses at the close of the session.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Ralph Laird on Thursday, April 14, at 12:30 p.m., at which time guests will be present from other clubs in the district and the district scrapbooks will be judged.

MALIN GARDEN CLUB

MALIN—The Malin Garden Club met Wednesday afternoon, March 23, at the community hall with Mrs. Ruby Kujac, president, conducting.

It was reported that the Malin Chamber of Commerce has agreed to pay for the markers for the shrubs and trees in the Malin Park. The Malin Garden Club will take care of the identification.

The invitation from the Northside Garden Club was read to attend the district meeting April 26 at the Klamath Lutheran Church. Luncheon reservations should be turned in to Mrs. Mildred Lovness as soon as possible. Mrs. Sybil Hill is in charge of making the corsages and the table arrangements for the meeting.

The group decided to sponsor the Camp Fire Girls in the Malin area.

The next meeting will be at the community hall on April 27 at 2 p.m. with J. D. Vertrees giving the program on insects.

The program of the day was given by Don Baldwin of the U.S. Soil Conservation Office who showed his excellent colored slides of Chile.

Refreshments were served to the 20 members and guests present by Mrs. Alice Olson and Mrs.

April Flower Show Planned By Two Clubs

April 13 has been set for the "Spring Song" flower show sponsored by the Mt. Laki and Greensprings garden clubs. The show will be from 2 until 5 p.m. in the Henley Grange Hall, according to the general chairman, Mrs. T. W. White and Mrs. L. A. Smith.

ALTURAS

Mrs. Leo Glover was the hostess for the March meeting of the Alturas Garden Club at her attractive home on Henderson Street. Members answered roll call by mentioning birds that they had noticed returning to their gardens this spring.

Mrs. Helen King was a guest accompanied by members of the Girl Scout troop for which the garden club is a sponsor. Plans were made for the Girl Scouts to make appropriate favors to decorate the trays of the older members of the Modoc Medical Center on Easter morning.

Other guests were Sherry Coffman, Phyllis Banks, Jim Bamssey, Paula Kuhnle, Susan Olsen and Kelle Siglar, all winners of prizes in the recent conservation poster and essay contest. They received cash awards.

Mrs. Paul Decker, conservation chairman, gave an interesting

District Clubs Schedule Meet

"Spring Rhythm" will be the theme of the Klamath District No. 12 Garden Club spring meeting to be held April 26 at the Klamath Lutheran Church, 1175 Crescent Avenue.

Mrs. Scott McKendree, Klamath Falls, is district director. Mrs. Guy Young, Alturas, is assistant district director. The Northside Garden Club, with Mrs. Gary Price as president, will host the meeting.

Registration and a coffee hour will open the day-long session, followed by the invocation by the Rev. Leroy Hedra, Klamath Lutheran Church pastor; the flag salute, vocal number, "Oregon, My Oregon," state song; welcome, Mrs. Gary Price.

State officers, President Mrs. Vern Brader, Chemult; Mrs. A. H. Mason, vice president, Portland; and Mrs. J. W. Sheel, corresponding secretary, Corvallis, will be introduced before the business session.

Luncheon at $1.25 per plate will be served at the church from 1 to 1:30 p.m.

The afternoon program will include bird slides by Warren Kimball; dance numbers by students of Mrs. Ruby Kujac and other slides by Mrs. E. C. Schweitzer, president of the Tulelake Garden Club.

Garden clubs to be represented and their presidents are Alturas, Mrs. William G. Rosh; Bonanza, Mrs. Ross Clark; Evergreen, Mrs. Verda Urbach; Greensprings, Mrs. Randolph Harkens; Juniper, Mrs. Carlos Lanville; Klamath Falls, Mrs. B. C. Johnson; Malin, Mrs. Karl Kujac; Mt. Laki, Mrs. Dick Henzel; Northside, Mrs. Gary Price; and Tulelake, Mrs. Harold E. Schweitzer.

NORTHSIDE CLUB

Some unusual plants are being made for the annual spring meeting of Klamath District Garden Clubs to be held April 26 at the Klamath Lutheran Church.

The Northside Garden Club members heard plans for the affair at the March 23 meeting at the home of Mrs. Folk Haddock, 2810 Montelina. Co-hostess was Mrs. Merle Jackson.

Niche arrangements which are different than any other form of flower displays will be shown by the judges' council.

The horticulture project for the club during 1960 will be the study of primroses.

Gills were discussed at the meeting by the president, Mrs. Gary Price, after the meeting was called to order.

The next meeting will be one week early on April 20.
