MRS. CHARLES ALWARD, right, luncheon general chairman, with two of her committee, Mrs. John Ashley, left, and Mrs. Lloyd Drew.

REAMES COUNTRY CLUB AUXILIARY members were delighted with the beautiful spring luncheon April 1 attended by 125 women and presided over by President Mrs. Chester Stonecypher. Exotic tropical flowers created the Isle of Paradise theme planned by a committee headed by Mrs. Charles Alward. From the pink clothed head table with its centerpiece of lilies and driftwood to the corner garden, complete with hanging gilt lantern, all was in keeping. Manzanita branches with dogwood blossoms, huge bouquets of pussy willows and some Oriental touches completed the decor. Whytal's fashion show, unusually presented in color groups of yellow, pink, white, blue and red, and most effective against pink fiber glass background screens, featured the latest spring and summer styles.

A GOLF BREAKFAST the preceding Friday, March 25, opened the playing season. An interesting season schedule was presented by the tournament chairmen, Mrs. John D. Merryman and Mrs. Howard Parnell. Sportswear designed for the fairway and club house was shown by Bon Bazaar with commentary by Mrs. Charles Larkin. Golf games and bridge followed the breakfast. Mrs. Ed Brostehous is chairman of the season's Friday afternoon bridge play.

A NEW MEMBER, Mrs. Warren Bennet, center, was welcomed at Reames luncheon. Mrs. Frank Tarr, wife of club president, is at left, with Mrs. Norman Moty, right.

MRS. EUGENE HOLLWAY, left, decoration chairman, shows Japanese lanterns to Reames auxiliary president, Mrs. Chester Stonecypher, right, and Mrs. M. E. Robinson, auxiliary treasurer.
