Derham, Mrs. Ray Eller, Mrs. Elven Evans, Mrs. William Ensel, Mrs. Minnie Tamis, Mrs. Clyde Turner and Mrs. Henry Terwilliger.

HEMLINE VARIES

Your hem length is largely a matter of personal taste. But it also depends on how lovely your legs are. If you are tall, slim and leggy with pretty legs, you'll naturally wear your skirts a bit shorter than the girl with legs not so pretty.

Housewarming

Mr. and Mrs. Don Baldwin were honored at a housewarming party Sunday, March 27, at their new home on Carlson Drive in Moyina Heights. Thirty-two were present for the surprise no-host buffet served at two o'clock. A gift of a sunburst clock was given to the couple.

Present were the families of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Friesen, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jensen, Dr. and Mrs. Lester Brookshire, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bilyeu, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Embury, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Meek, Mr. and Mrs. Burt Rucette, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Frankenberg and Mrs. Orville Rose.

Atlanta Adams Speaks To Club

YREKA—The history of Siskiyou County and California was the subject of the talk given by Atlanta Adams to members of the Yreka Federated Women's Club at their recent meeting.

During the business session, conducted by Mrs. Almon Burgess, president, the group made plans to attend the district convention in Redding. It was also announced that there will be a joint meeting of women's clubs of Siskiyou County at Etna on April 13.

Atlanta Adams, introduced by Mrs. Roy Pruett, program chairman, is a member of the Etna Women's Club and district chairman of California landmarks. She is asking clubs in her district to have landmarks of their areas registered with the state to preserve California history. She also suggested that scrapbooks of historical clippings be made for use in schools.

Present in addition to those mentioned were Mrs. Grace Balfrey, Mrs. Kate L. Bickel, Mrs. Ella Burns, Mrs. Harold Dexter, Mrs. Harold Evett, Mrs. Marie Jefferson, Mrs. George Luttrell, Mrs. Mary Lemos, Mrs. Lester Newton, Mrs. Desey Sullivan, Mrs. Helen Soule, Mrs. Mary Truphemi and Jessie Conrad.
