

SUANA WHYTAL, left, stepped into the magic age of the teens on March 25 and celebrated her 13th birthday at a dancing party at the Yacht Club. Guests were fifth, sixth and seventh grade students at Fairview School where she is a seventh grader and her sister, Linda, right, is in the fifth grade. The young people, numbering 54, danced from 7 until 10 p.m. in the ballroom gaily decorated with a satellite motif. The girls arranged the party and were present to assist with refreshments and punch served during the evening.
