The Siskiyou District extends from the Oregon line to Gazelle, and includes Scott Valley and Happy Camp. Ohlund may be contacted evenings by phoning Victor 2-2015.

MONTAGUE — Fourteen boys, all members of Montague Explorer Post No. 51, have been preparing for a benefit dance the post is sponsoring to raise funds for camp and post equipment. The boys made their own posters and tickets and have been canvassing in Montague and surrounding areas for advance ticket sales.

The dance will be held Saturday night, April 9, in the Montague auditorium, and will feature the music of Marvin Wright and his orchestra.

McCloud — Boy Scouts of America, Explorer Post 42, will be host to a group of Explorers from Yreka, Montague, Mount Shasta and Dunsmuir. A full day of competitive sports events will be held including target shooting, archery, casting and a modified baseball game. A picnic will be given by the local post, William Hellin, leader, said.

McCloud — Ronnie Beryman and David Kite were selected to attend the Boy Scouts of America's Fifth National Jamboree at Colorado Springs July 22-28. A 23-day tour throughout the southwest is to be made by scouts from this area.

The selection was made by Shasta Scout District officials, Jay Franklin, Bill Pieruccini and Robert Stoner.

McCloud Woodworkers of America Local 3-64 and McCloud Community Recreation Club are making the comparable financial donations to assist the boys selected to make the trip.

Bonnie is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Beryman and David is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Kite.

Ronnie is president of Explorer Post 42 and David is senior troop leader of Troop 64.

Investment Magazine Gives Broadway Tips
 NEW YORK (UPI) — The and gets good reviews from the Broadway theatre on the biggest scale the producer ever has seen. Some of the things he discloses will surprise a lot of folks. For instance, a straight plays now days have to be budgeted at least $250,000 to $300,000 as they have been for a long time. Investors share 50 per cent of the profit after all expenses, including royalties.

The smallest investment accepted usually is $500 or $625 but in man, Rogers & Hammerstein's "Variety" "Billboard" and "The Sound of Music" and "The Music Man" are other theatrical publications for modern composers anytime he years have published reports on Broadway's progress of Broadway.

Variety also has published box scores on the financial grosses of the works of top playwrights. Who do you think is Broadway's perennial top grossing playwright—Eugene O'Neill, George S. Kaufman or Rodgers & Hammerstein? No, it's a chap named W. Shakespeare. He still can outdraw his other theatrical publications for modern composers anytime he years have published reports on Broadway's progress of Broadway.

A TV script writer with some financial experience, Seymour McCormick and Leonard Hill, has set out to put up a new sign post. Vall has founded a "Variety Investor" magazine called "Theatre Investor" to publish news about plays and musicals. In a box score on producers whose producers are looking for Vall shows that of 238 who were active from 1954 to now, only 45 reports of the earnings records, had a successful Broadway not only of plays, but of producers show and only six who have had several productions have a hit.

In the April issue, "Theatre Investor," which incidentally costs $50 a year, charts three producers' successes ran from peevish productions and lists 207 to 357 per cent and after others that are looking for more losses on their failures, investors capital. Vall rates their prospects in all these top producers' shows in four groups on the basis of still made profits ranging from high past productions of similar type have fared over the years. Vall rated David Merrick, producer of "Gypsy," "Destiny Rides Again," "La Plume de Ma Tante" and "Take Me Along" as tops on Broadway from the investors' point of view.

He gives each two ratings— "current," meaning how the production plans seem to stack up right now, and "maximum," meaning what the show could earn if it actually is produced bring public money into the

Church Dates Fashion Show
 YREKA—Forty one models paraded in the latest of spring fashions for the annual fashion show, "California Holiday," presented by the Yreka Methodist Church Saturday, April 9, at 8 p.m.

A variety of special desserts and musical entertainment were featured in addition to the fashion show.

Models and the stores whose fashions they displayed were as follows: Jean Payne, Barbara Betts, Anita Mei, Donna Soares, Hermitta Spencer and Judy Schoellerman for Barklow's; Marilyn Guenther, Susan Bayuk, Marilyn Atwood, Cressa Smith, Fairy Graves and Lorraine Hill for the Style Shop.

Lake's fashions were modeled by Virginia Wilmarth and Dorothy Jennett. Sears' styles were shown by Pat Matthews, Idabelle Crowell, Margaret Callison, Fairy Graves and Shirley Graves.

Ward's garments were modeled by Corinne Burgess, Lorraine MacKennon and Fran Cunningham; Penney's by Mildred McRae, Susan Koorda and Bobbie Brown.

Elsie's Children's and Teen Age fashions were modeled by Adrienne Favero, Charlene Cordes, Judy Silva, Connie Kendall, Hollis Hill, Erin Fleischman, Charles and Jack Martin.

Handley's Western garb was worn by Bob Houdeshell, Leon and Richard Handley, Shirley and Dorothy Hegg and Robin Cooley. Jeri's styles for children were modeled by Cynthia Jean Smith and Debbie Brahs.

Co-chairmen for the spring event were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Peters, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Hennig and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Buckner.

The event was staged in the armory building at the Siskiyou County Fairgrounds south of Yreka.

The total value for new construction for 1959 was $4.3 billion dollars. This was a gain of 11 per cent over the previous year. Largest gain in building activity was in home building. With rising sales building product and equipment manufacturers continue to increase their investment in newspaper advertising. Last year, for example, advertising expenditures in newspapers for automatic heating were 36.1 per cent more than in 1958.

Savings of the average American household now approximate $5,500—highest on record. More banks use newspapers for their advertising than any other medium. In fact, more than use TV, radio and magazines combined.

Student Chiefs Attend Meeting
