

KF Bowling Tournaments Now In Second Week

Misco, the Class A singles champion who bowled a 630; Eole Tomlin and Mary Bothwell who won Class A doubles with a 1201 score, and Eldina Greenwood who won the all-events handicap with a 1792 score. In the picture at the far right are the Class B doubles winners, Yolanda Rosterolla and Cecelia Duracha, who accumulated a 1165 total score. Other champions for the four-day tournament, which saw some of the highest scores ever posted in its 20-year history, were Mary Bothwell, the all-events scratch victor with a 1705 score; Verna Scott, the class B doubles winner; Ruth Hagelstein, the Class C singles champion, and Betty Adams, the Class D singles title holder. The team bowling concluded Friday evening. The Ranch ran off with the Class A championship with a 2920 score; Bonanza Cafe won the Class B trophy with a 2850 total score; Class C title went to Klamath Lockers with their high-ranking 2727 scattered pins.

Grapefruit Crown Won By Cardinals

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The St. Louis Cardinals are the National League champions of the exhibition baseball season and when Manager Solly Hemus cautions "don't underestimate us" it might be time to listen.

Managers Give Quotes On Chances

NEW YORK (UPI) — Here's what the eight National League managers have to say on the eve of the 1960 pennant race:
Walt Alston, Dodgers: "You can't keep from being enthusiastic with all the fine looking youngsters we have. Look at the job they did last year. And now we have more. We're satisfied we'll make a strong bid for the pennant."
Charlie Dressen, Braves: "I think we have a better team than Los Angeles and I feel we can beat the Giants, too. My young pitchers will get more work and that means Warren Spahn and Lew Burdette should be more effective than last year. And Red Schoendienst gives every indication that he will make a come-back."
Bill Rigney, Giants: "All I feel is that we'll be a contender. The experience of last year helped us and our defense is better. Our pitching is deeper. But we still need a stronger bench. But all I'm going to say is that we'll do our best."
Fred Hutchinson, Reds: "We have the power, the speed and the defense it takes but I wish I felt more sure about my pitching. Cal McLish will be a big help but he can't do it alone. Still, my pitching has looked better during the spring than people told me it would."
Danny Murtagh, Pirates: "I think we have a fine chance to win the pennant. Few people realize that with all our troubles with injuries, etc., we were only a few games out of first place in late August. Bob Friend should make a comeback and Gino Cimoli and Hal Smith are key additions."
Charlie Grimm, Cubs: "This team has improved all the way over last year's. I feel that we'll finish in the first division this year because we've eliminated some weak spots with off-season deals and have acquired speed and power."
Solly Hemus, Cardinals: "I think we have laid the groundwork for a first division team—and once you reach the first division it's not an awfully long way to first place. We feel our off-season deals helped our pitching and our bench."
Eddie Sawyer, Phillies: "We are going to go along this year with our young players. We finished last playing our veterans last year. Our trouble last year was that we couldn't score runs. Maybe our kids can't either but they're going to get a shot at it."

weather, the Cards have been an eye-popping revelation to all who have seen them this spring.
There is added pitching in ex-Pirate Ronnie Kline and young Bob Miller, more sock with Daryl Spencer, Bob Nieman, Leon Wagner and a comebacking Stan Musial, and a combusting defense with Spencer at short and Musial's aging legs at first base instead of the outfield.
Add these to the few good carry-over features from last year's club—pitchers like Larry Jackson, Ernie Broglio, Lindy McDaniel and Vinegar Bond Mizell, and steady hitters Joe Cunningham, Bill White and Ken Boyer, and there is reason for Hemus' optimism.
Asked which team has impressed him most this spring, Solly said: "My own club. We're 50 per cent better than last year. Don't underestimate us. We're coming."

Broglio (7 innings) and Gibson handled the pitching and Musial had three hits Sunday as the Cards posted victory No. 18, 5-2 over the Chicago Cubs at Las Vegas. The Cubs played without ace shortstop Ernie Banks, who suffered a bloody nose in a popper game workout.
In other Sunday games, which wound up the warm-up season for the Nationals, Los Angeles shipped San Francisco 3-4 at Sacramento, Cincinnati's four first-inning runs clinched Milwaukee 4-2 at Louisville, Pittsburgh edged Kansas City 3-2 at Fort Myers, Fla., Baltimore blanked Philadelphia 5-0 at Miami, the New York Yankees stopped the Chicago White Sox on a one-liner 11-0 at Tampa, Cleveland edged Boston 9-8 in New Orleans, and Washington beat Detroit 3-4 at Lakeland, Fla.

Brave and Bum Picked As Best

NEW YORK (UPI) — Don Drysdale of the Los Angeles Dodgers and Hank Aaron of the Milwaukee Braves were picked today to be the National League's outstanding players of 1960.
The United Press International's board of baseball experts, composed of 50 writers and broadcasters who saw the teams in spring training, made side-wheeling Drysdale a hair-line choice over Johnny Antonelli of the San Francisco Giants for pitching honors.
BILLS SIGN GOINGS
BUFFALO, N.Y. (UPI) — Russ Goings, a 6-2, 225-pound versatile lineman from Xavier (Ohio) University, has signed with the Buffalo Bills of the American Football League.
A total of 196 horses were nominated for the Kentucky Derby in 1960 but only 32 actually ran in the race. It was the Derby's largest starting field.
The Hardin-Simmons University golf team has not lost a match on its home course in four years.

TIME OUT

Celtic Win Brings Up 2 Questions

BOSTON (AP) — The record-setting Boston Celtics gave basketball buffs at least two questions to ponder when they marked up their second straight world title Saturday.
Is this the No. 1 basketball team in history?
How long can the Celtics keep it up?
Boston wrapped up its second straight National Basketball Association title and third in four seasons with a 122-101 victory over St. Louis in the seventh game of the final playoffs.
It was the first time an NBA team had repeated as champion since Minneapolis, then in St. Louis, won three straight in 1952, 1953 and 1954.
Boston coach Red Auerbach snorted: "Mikan may have been the player of the half-century, but if he was around now he wouldn't even be No. 1 in the league. Bill Russell would run the legs off George."
"I think this ball club is the greatest aggregation ever assembled," said Auerbach.
Many critics agree. One point in favor is the record 39 victories chalked up by Boston in a 75-game schedule last season. The best Minneapolis did in its heyday was 48-22 in 1952-53.

Men Bowlers Kick Off 6 Day Tourney Tonight

Bowling fever in Klamath Falls continues its feverish pitch today as the 18th annual City-Association Men's Bowling Tournament gets underway tonight immediately following last night's conclusion of the women's bowling tourney held at Lucky Lanes Bowling Alley.

If the number of spectators during the women's tourney was any criterion, the men's tourney will set some sort of unofficial attendance record. This year's tournament has already set one record before it has even started.
Beginning tonight at 6:45 are two A teams and two B clubs. The listings include Fitzgerald Roofing and the Wallers in Class A, and the Knights of Columbus Team Number One and Midway Gate in the B division.

Collegians Face Shaky Ring Future

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — Intercollegiate boxing, a target of sniping attacks by bitter opponents for many years, faced a rocky future today as a 22-year-old University of Wisconsin senior lay near death with a brain injury suffered in a national championship bout.
A dwindling corps of college boxing supporters braced for an expected renewal of demands for abolishment of the sport while Charlie Mohr of Merrick, N.Y., battled for his life in the University of Wisconsin hospital.
Mohr, a 1959 champion kayaker in defense of his title by Stu Bartell of San Jose State Saturday night, was reported in critical condition after emergency surgery for a brain hemorrhage.
The injury stunned officials, coaches and fighters from 17 colleges in the three-day 23rd annual National Collegiate Athletic Assn. tournament at the Wisconsin fieldhouse.
"It makes me sick," said Coach Julie Menendez of San Jose State team champions. "I didn't think Stu hit him that hard."
Under constant fire by opponents, the sport has dwindled in colleges in virtually every section of the country except the Far West. Only a handful of the 60 entrants, with the exception of host Wisconsin, represented schools east of the Rockies.
Mohr collapsed in the dressing room 30 minutes after he left the ring. He rested in his corner for several minutes following his technical knockout by Bartell in the 163-pound final.

Badger Puts New Spark Into ABC's

TOLEDO, O. (UPI) — A 32-year-old Industrial Engineer from La Crosse, Wis., and two pin-splattering teams from Pennsylvania and Illinois shot new life into the American Bowling Congress tournament here yesterday.
With the standings remaining fixed for days, Howie Zunker cracked out a second place in the singles as he rolled a 725 series, only one pin short of the leader.
And the Preate Furniture Club of Old Forge, Pa., rolled a 3,023 for seventh place in the open team standings and the John Ploeden Florals team of Chicago rolled a 3,012 total for ninth place.
This was only the second time in the first 37 days of the 79-day bowling marathon that two teams had cracked 3,000 on the same day.
It appeared that Zunker was going to oust Paul Kubbaga of Cleveland as the top singles man but ran into trouble in his final game.
Zunker, no relation to the ABC hall of fame Gil Zunker, opened up with games of 215 and 212 and was working on a string of nine strikes in his last game. If he struck out it would have given him a 727 pin count and the lead. But the six pin hung and Zunker converted for a spare and a 278 game, one pin shy of a tie and two short of the lead.

Palmer Birdies 2 For Masters Title

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — Cheers for the champion rang for Arnold Palmer in the 1960 Masters Golf Tournament. Tears were shed for Ken Venturi and Dow Finsterwald, who made valiant bids that failed.
Although he led after every round, Palmer had to win his second Masters the hard way Sunday. The big better from Pennsylvania needed birdies on each of the last two holes to clinch the title. He got them.
"I knew what I had to do," the broad-shouldered Palmer said after providing an estimated 40,000 golf lovers an electrifying finish.
His birdie-birdie finish enabled the 29-year-old professional to post a chart of 67-73-72-70—282 and pick up a record check of $17,500.
The disappointed losers, Venturi and Finsterwald, had been in about an hour when Palmer charged home. Venturi had 73-69-71-70—283, Finsterwald 71-70-71-71—284. Par for the Augusta National Course is 36-36—72.
After Palmer failed to birdie Nos. 13 and 15, par-five holes where his great power can be an advantage, few thought he would be able to overhaul Venturi.
But they reckoned wrong. Palmer stroked in a putt of about 37 feet for a birdie on 17 and made a great six-iron shot to the 18th green, then held a six-foot putt to clinch the victory.
For Venturi, the loss was particularly galling. As an amateur, he had the 1956 Masters in his pocket until he soared to an 69 the final day and lost to Jack Burke Jr. — also by one shot.
The Palo Alto, Calif., professional's eyes were misty but he promised he'd be back next year for another try.
Finsterwald, who staged a tremendous head-to-head battle with Venturi in the final round, bogied the last hole. The stroke he lost there, plus two penalty strokes assessed for a practice putt in the first round, cost him the championship.

UO Director To Remain

EUGENE, Ore. (AP) — Athletic Director Leo Harris of the University of Oregon said Saturday: "I'm happy at Oregon. I'm not planning to leave." This was in response to reports that he would go.
"Of course," he said, "anyone must look at opportunities when and if they come along, but right now I have none offered me."
The rumor was that Harris had talked with an old friend, A.C. Stephens, Sunnyvale, Calif., superintendent of schools, at a recent NCAA meeting in San Francisco. Stephens reportedly offered Harris an athletic post heading programs for three schools.
Harris was reported interested because his 20 years he already served with the California schools and the job would qualify him for a pension at two-thirds of his highest salary. Among his California posts, he was superintendent of schools at Carmel.

Idahoan Brings Home AAU Title

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Harold Espy, Pocatello, Idaho, was the only one of four Pacific Northwest fighters sporting a crown after the finals of the AAU boxing tournament.
Espy, 27, outpointed Jimmy Jones, 29, of Chicago, for the heavyweight title Saturday night.
The three other Northwest fighters went down to defeat. They were Nick Spanakos, Caldwell, Idaho, 125-pound class; Quincey Daniels, Seattle, 129-pounder, and John Rademacher of Yakima, Wash., in the 136-pound category.

Rawls Takes Famed Open

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP) — Betsy Rawls was back on the winning road today, first money in the $6,500 Babe Zaharias Open Golf Tournament in her hand bag.
Miss Rawls closed with a par 73 for a 54-hole total of 211 Sunday to win the tournament named for the late Babe Zaharias, most famous of women golfers.
She had to fight off a great challenge by Fay Crocker, the Montevideo, Uruguay, veteran. Miss Crocker shot a closing 70 and pulled into a tie with Rawls through 13 holes of the final round, gaining five strokes. But on 16, where her second shot hit a spectator, she took a bogey while Miss Rawls got one stroke back with a birdie on 17, but on 18 she drove behind a tree, hit two others coming out and finished two strokes off the pace.
Louise Suggs of Cincinnati and Patty Berg of Minneapolis tied for third with 215.

Montreal Shy By One Game

MONTREAL (AP) — The Montreal Canadiens, fast becoming prohibitive favorites to win their fifth straight Stanley Cup Championship, set out for Toronto to the best-of-seven final series in short order.
The Canadiens completed back-to-back victories on home ice with a 2-1 victory over the Maple Leafs Saturday night.
Just as in last Thursday's 4-2 win, the Canadiens jumped in front early and the battling Leafs were struggling to catch up the rest of the way.
Now down 2-0 in games, the Leafs will have whatever advantage goes with home ice in trying to get the series on an even basis. The third and fourth games will be played in Toronto Tuesday and Thursday.

Tribe Buys Pitcher

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Right-handed pitcher John Klippstein of Los Angeles has been sold to the Cleveland Indians in a straight cash deal, the Dodgers announced today.
The 33-year-old hurler was all-glass most of last season with a bad back. He appeared in 26 games for the world champions, notching a 4-0 record and a 3.87 earned run average.
The Baltimore Colts of the National Football League intercepted 40 passes during the 1959 season, nearly twice as many as the runners-up Pittsburgh Steelers and New York Giants.
The Penn State football team went unbeaten in 30 games between 1919 and 1922.

And No Dependents

LINCOLN, R. I. (AP) — An unidentified better won $29,769.20 on a $2 wager Saturday, correctly picking the last six winners at Lincoln Downs Race Track.
The huge payoff, which track officials said was one of the largest ever made at a U.S. track, was in the Papeleta-Quadro, a pool betting arrangement on the last six races.

REDS RETURN CARDENAS

CINCINNATI (UPI) — The Cincinnati Reds today returned Chico Cardenas, a 21-year-old infielder from Matanzas, Cuba, to Havana of the International League, subject to 24-hour recall.
Goalie George Hamsworth recorded 22 shutouts in 44 games with the Montreal Canadiens in the 1928-29 National Hockey League season.
Jockey Willie Shoemaker has ridden six winners on a single day's horse racing card on four different occasions.

LINCOLN, R. I. (AP) — An unidentified better won $29,769.20 on a $2 wager Saturday, correctly picking the last six winners at Lincoln Downs Race Track.
The huge payoff, which track officials said was one of the largest ever made at a U.S. track, was in the Papeleta-Quadro, a pool betting arrangement on the last six races.

REDS RETURN CARDENAS

CINCINNATI (UPI) — The Cincinnati Reds today returned Chico Cardenas, a 21-year-old infielder from Matanzas, Cuba, to Havana of the International League, subject to 24-hour recall.
Goalie George Hamsworth recorded 22 shutouts in 44 games with the Montreal Canadiens in the 1928-29 National Hockey League season.
Jockey Willie Shoemaker has ridden six winners on a single day's horse racing card on four different occasions.

Rawls Takes Famed Open

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP) — Betsy Rawls was back on the winning road today, first money in the $6,500 Babe Zaharias Open Golf Tournament in her hand bag.
Miss Rawls closed with a par 73 for a 54-hole total of 211 Sunday to win the tournament named for the late Babe Zaharias, most famous of women golfers.
She had to fight off a great challenge by Fay Crocker, the Montevideo, Uruguay, veteran. Miss Crocker shot a closing 70 and pulled into a tie with Rawls through 13 holes of the final round, gaining five strokes. But on 16, where her second shot hit a spectator, she took a bogey while Miss Rawls got one stroke back with a birdie on 17, but on 18 she drove behind a tree, hit two others coming out and finished two strokes off the pace.
Louise Suggs of Cincinnati and Patty Berg of Minneapolis tied for third with 215.

UO Director To Remain

EUGENE, Ore. (AP) — Athletic Director Leo Harris of the University of Oregon said Saturday: "I'm happy at Oregon. I'm not planning to leave." This was in response to reports that he would go.
"Of course," he said, "anyone must look at opportunities when and if they come along, but right now I have none offered me."
The rumor was that Harris had talked with an old friend, A.C. Stephens, Sunnyvale, Calif., superintendent of schools, at a recent NCAA meeting in San Francisco. Stephens reportedly offered Harris an athletic post heading programs for three schools.
Harris was reported interested because his 20 years he already served with the California schools and the job would qualify him for a pension at two-thirds of his highest salary. Among his California posts, he was superintendent of schools at Carmel.

Idahoan Brings Home AAU Title

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Harold Espy, Pocatello, Idaho, was the only one of four Pacific Northwest fighters sporting a crown after the finals of the AAU boxing tournament.
Espy, 27, outpointed Jimmy Jones, 29, of Chicago, for the heavyweight title Saturday night.
The three other Northwest fighters went down to defeat. They were Nick Spanakos, Caldwell, Idaho, 125-pound class; Quincey Daniels, Seattle, 129-pounder, and John Rademacher of Yakima, Wash., in the 136-pound category.

Smelt Derby Champ

TROUTDALE, Ore. (AP) — Bernie Bissonette easily beat the seven other entries in the Troutdale Enulachon Society's smelt eating derby here Sunday.
Bissonette, a 220-pound Troutdale foundry worker, ate 122 smelt—34 more than his nearest rival, Gerald Van Der Zanden of Portland.

Montreal Shy By One Game

MONTREAL (AP) — The Montreal Canadiens, fast becoming prohibitive favorites to win their fifth straight Stanley Cup Championship, set out
