D-Day for office seekers! Weeks of strain and work will come to a screeching halt Thursday afternoon for student body candidates when students will flock to the polls to exercise their right to vote in the school's annual student body elections. Elections are fashioned after the nation's and are so evenly matched with competent hopeful candidates that the voters are having a difficult time picking their favorites.

The 29 candidates delivered speeches to the student body in an all-school assembly Monday morning during second and third periods in hopes of persuading some wavering voters to cast their ballots for them.

Following school Monday, the politicians and their campaign committees raced to the halls to fight for wall space for their posters. Students thoroughly enjoyed the proceedings as they wandered around in the halls viewing the spectacle. The parade of posters of all kinds and descriptions hang from nearly every inch of wall space available — from ceilings and walls, to stair ways, doors and arches.

Another part of the campaign included button-type cards that were passed around immediately following the assembly Monday and through Tuesday. Students had fun collecting as many as possible and displaying them all.

To give the voters a further chance in choosing their candidates the student newspaper published a special election edition in which all the nominees were given equal space for their pictures and statements.

Egg Hunt Is Planned

CHEMULT—At last week's regular monthly meeting of the Chemult Community Club committees were scheduled to work out the Easter egg hunt at the club grounds after Sunday School. The hunt will begin about 3:30 p.m. The Easter bunny will be there in person and everyone is invited.

Mrs. William Taylor explained the duties of each resident in case of radioactive fall-out and told other features of the civil defense program. She handed out informative leaflets to each one attending the meeting.

It was announced the X-ray chest unit will be at Chemult on the post office frontage the latter part of this month and everyone was urged to have the examination April 28. Teams of Chemult women will assist with making out cards and fixing appointments.

Guests at the meeting were Mrs. Dorothy Ward and Mrs. Leond Towner. A membership drive will be undertaken this month and new members received at the next session.

Insurance Men To Meet

All Klamath Falls area insurance men have been invited to attend a meeting Wednesday in the Spruce Room at the Willard Hotel for a project lesson on the storage of electrical appliances. Take fruit for a fruit salad. Rolls will be furnished. No sack lunch.

Specifically, they will talk about auto glass and how much of it is broken. Such claims of breakage cost insurance companies more than $200,000,000 annually, say officials of the Kimball Glass Company of Klamath Falls, sponsors of the meeting.

Verne Campbell, sales manager of Auto Glass Service, Portland, and Bob Hunter, Shatterproof Glass Corporation representative for Oregon and Washington, will speak. A question and answer period will follow.

Macdoel Youth Shoots Self

A 16-year-old Macdoel boy accidentally shot himself with a .22 caliber revolver Monday afternoon while he was putting on his belt, holster and gun.

Attendees at Klamath Valley Hospital said Donald Roy Dysert was treated for the gunshot wound and released. State police said a bullet entered Dysert's body near the groin and exited from the outside hip.

Police said the gun slipped from the holster and fell to the floor as Dysert was strapping the belt around his waist. The boy attempted to catch the gun when it fired.

VALIANT LOWERS YOUR COST OF LIVING IT UP!
Valiant wagons look like they'd cost a bundle. But they just look expensive. They're really nickel-nurses at heart!
Take Valiant's inclined engine. Very open-handed with performance, tight-fisted with a gallon of gas. Or take its battery-saving alternator electrical system. Same with Valiant's rust-proofed fully unitized body. A perfect teammate for another Valiant feature — Torsion-Air suspension. It takes the lumps out of bumps. Transmissions? Suit yourself. Pick a floor-mounted stick shift. Or a three-speed push button automatic, optional at extra cost. Both get great gas mileage.
And now let's give more thought to your family. Valiant wagons have lots of room for legs, elbows, hips, and plenty of headroom, too. All that plus 72 cubic feet of wide open cargo space.
Like we said, Valiant wagons lower your cost of living it up. Just look at one. Then imagine yourself behind the wheel. Great, isn't it? That's nothing compared with getting behind the wheel for real—and for keeps!
