Fights Set April 23

REAL SLUGGERS — Vern Huck and Skip Waites of Klamath Falls are seen preparing for the April 23 smoker in Klamath Auditorium. The 90-pound Huck is a student at Fairhaven School, and Waites, who tips the scales at 93 pounds, is a student at Roosevelt. The 12-card plus fights will headline Klamath Falls 119-pound Southern Oregon Golden Gloves champion Jake Gregg and Sprague River's Jack Barney. Both 119-pounders have won numerous bouts in Oregon this year. Gregg's only loss came in the Portland Golden Gloves tourney last month. Ringside tickets are available for $1.50 at Herman's Mens Store, alKmath Billiards and the Chuck Wagon. The participating fighters will come from Chiloquin, Sprague River, Klamath Falls and possibly Oregon Tech. The smoker is sponsored by the Oregon Tech Owl Hoots.

B Lead Uprooted In Men's Tourney

Heaton Steel took over the first place lead in the Class B division last night in the 16th annual City Association Men's Bowling Tournament now in its second night at Lucky Lanes Bowling Alley. Fitzgerald Roofing retained its early first night lead in the Class A department.

Wes McCabe paced his Heaton Steel teammates with a 585 roll while the total team score with 3084 pins. Grabbing second and third positions in the division were Great Northern with 2974 and Klamath Hardwood B team with 2938. The 2934 score that City Center Lodge compiled Monday night was dropped to a fourth place in team standings. Floyd A. Boyd stood at 2932 and KC Paint at 2907 pins.

Trailing Fitzgerald Roofing's 3075 pins after the second evening's results in the Class A division were Baldwin Richfield with 2960, Larry's Foods with 2954, Spud Cellar with 2924, Merrill Moose, 2924, and Bowers Distributors with 2921 pins.

The team bowling competition goes into its final session this evening and concludes the three-day team pairings. Thursday night the Class A and Class B singles and doubles pairings get underway at 9:15. First night competition includes 21 pairings of doubles and 42 sets of singles.

Jerry Cote retained his first night lead in high team series at 655 points. However, making a valiant bid for second evening leadership was Bud Scott's 653. Other men keglers over the 600 mark, which includes their handicaps, were Shelby Baldwin with 639, Pete Bray with 609, John Bailey Jr. with 603.

High game leaders after the second evening were Irv Carr at 248 and Scott at 232.

Besides McCabe's pacesetting 585 the first place Heaton Steel individual score breakdown was Johnny Bowers' 562, Harold Heaton's 546, Ken Baker's 446 and J. C. Heaton's 429.

The score of the Class A leaders, Fitzgerald Roofing, includes Ira Ott's 606 series, Stan Larson's 537, Floyd Larson's 560, Bill Tull's 573 and Clayton Sweasy's 595.

Merle and Hazel Hanscam, owners of Lucky Lanes, have announced plans to construct a new 24-lane bowling alley near the Rickfalls Apartments. The new plant should be open by fall. Silani-Fisher Realty handled the transaction which included the purchase of property from Arthur Rickbeil.

Bill Rigney: 'Winds Hurt'

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — "Winds at Candlestick Park are going to be tough," declared San Francisco Giants Manager Bill Rigney, "but it's like the rain—there's nothing you can do about it."

After the Giants inaugurated the 15-million-dollar edifice with a 3-1 victory over St. Louis Tuesday, agreement was general that Candlestick will be great for pitchers and left-handed hitters.

"There's a lot of room out there," said winning pitcher Sam Jones, referring to the vast expanse of outfield. "That's good for the pitcher."

The toothpick man allowed only three Cardinal hits, one a 400-foot homer over the right field fence by left-handed swinger Leon Wagner, a Giant last year.

Rigney commented, "There's going to be some doubles and triples hit in the park. We're not going to play for so many big innings. With winds like that there will be a lot of low scores."

Orlando Cepeda knocked in all three San Francisco runs, with a first-inning triple to center and a third-inning single in the same direction.

In the eighth, the right-handed slugger put all the wood to the ball but Bill White hauled down the drive in deep center field that measures 420 feet to the fence.

"I can't hit a ball harder than that," declared the 210-pound Puerto Rican.

San Francisco's largest baseball crowd — 42,269 paid admissions — watched the initial game. Because most came early and many by bus, the anticipated traffic jams didn't materialize.

About 200 or 300 came by yacht and power boat to the new stadium on San Francisco Bay.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon helped dedicate Candlestick and termed it "the finest baseball park in America."

There were some minor complaints from fans. Some box seat customers in back of home plate sat behind a wire netting that ran up from the backstop. The wire, almost horizontal, caused a mirror effect.

Island Ace Meets Hart

CHICAGO (AP)—Rocky Kalingo of Manila is a fighter with a mission.

"I want fight fans of this country to like me and I want to beat Hart tonight very much to make a good impression and get a ranking," says the 24-year-old Philippine welterweight champion.

Kalingo five months ago stopped the then undefeated Cuban, Florentino Fernandez, in the first round and gained international attention.

His foe for the 10-rounder—ABC 10 p.m. EST—is seasoned Sugar Hart of Philadelphia, loser of his last two bouts. Hart, slumping to the ranking of No. 7 contender, can hit with either hand and has scored 21 knockouts in 28 victories. He has fought two draws and lost five.

City Babe Ruthers Conclude Auctions

A gigantic step was taken toward the opening of the Babe Ruth League baseball season which starts the first week of June this year, as the City Babe Ruth coaches held their auction for players last night in city hall. A total of 47 13, 14 and 15-year-olds were picked up by the eight city teams.

The four other teams in the league, Chiloquin, Merrill, Malin and Tulelake, are composed of players in their own area.

The auction, which was held about a month earlier than in the past, was successfully conducted by Cliff Nelson, city league president, and Bert Smith, auctioneer. All eight clubs now have complete 15-man rosters and the teams are eligible to schedule practices in preparation for the league openers in June.

The 1960 Babe Ruth program in the Klamath Falls area has some new faces. The South Suburban area broke away from the single Babe Ruth League early this year and is conducting separate operations under the presidency of Paul Barnes. In the city league the Elks Club replaces the old K Amusement sponsorship, and Merrill, Malin, Tulelake and Chiloquin come in from the old county league.

The Eastside team acquired Clay Davis, John Tinker, Monte Metz, Dave Johnson, George Sprague, Rich Jackson and Dave Vincent.

Filling out the roster for the Fluhrer's diamond nine are Oran Teater, Stanley Kluth, Rich Robles, Dennis Cornwell, Lewis Rickey and Joe Lilly.

Balsiger's picked up John Parisoto, Jeff Bingham, Billy New and Gary and Danny Maw.

Playing for the Superior Troy outfit are Homer Garrich, Mike Spiker, Tim Bailey, Jack Thomas and Ken Tutor.

Gun Store acquired Steve Young, Henry Brazil, Tom Natale, Roy VanPelt, Will Brazil and Hoister.

The Elks Club picked up John Smith, Roger Walker, Fred Rawlins, John Jendrzejewski and Pat Jones.

The Moyina Heights nine completed its 15-man roster with Terry Ash, Stephen Hampton, Bob Robins, Terry Rodgers, Steve Gordon, Jim Jackson and Joe Harris.

Paxton, Elder In Bowling Win

LAKEVIEW—June Paxton and Ethel Elder were winners in the women's doubles tournament which was held Sunday at Lakeview Bowl. They rolled a total of 4214. Coming in second were Betty Morrill and Edith Morrill, a mother and daughter team, with 4025, and third were Dixie Dodson and Theresa Dollarhide with 4000.

City Little League Coaches Complete Minor Rosters

A future Mickey Mantle, Ted Williams, Stan Musial, Al Kaline or any other superstar of the future may have joined his first team in organized baseball as the City Little League teams held their player auction at city hall last night.

All of the acquired players in the 8, 9, 10, 11 and 12 year-old age groups will report to their farm clubs in the near future for practice sessions. The league opens in early June.

Six coaches bid for the young talent acquiring the services of six 12 year-olds, 13 11 year-olds, 19 10 year-olds, 37 nine year-olds and 19 eight year-olds, making a total of 94 youngsters playing Little League ball in the city this year. The City Little League held its first player auction immediately after last year's season.

Hal's Sport Shop acquired only one 12 year-old, Raymond Cornwell. The other draftees for Hal's were 11 year-olds Rick Lynn and Alex Robles. They picked up Forrest Costanzao, Doug Ward and Dan Allbritton as 10 year-olds. Ronald Wright, Steve Battis, Leroy Griswold, Bob Narramore, Bobby Groves and Scott Bradshaw were acquired as 9 year-olds. The remainder of the roster was filled by 8 year-olds and include Mike Hampton and Joel Summers.

Johns-Manville acquired Keith Bannice, Bob Hicks, Jimmy Whitlock, Charles Harless, Dale Bannice, Doug Zarosinski, Steve Kramer, Mike Dugan, George Brosterhous, Charles Trainor, Gary Murray, Vince Wachter, Kenneth Kitchen, Waimen Yee, Robert Waites and Robert Malcomb.

Park-Moyina picked up Byron Hall, Roger Lamb, Joe Rickey, Robert Rollins, Dorian Keener, Leo Snyder, Larry Gasperini, Douglas McCart, Tom Fergerson, Charles Bath, Larry Williams, Tim Hansen, Will Rickey, Darrell Shearer and Gene Dompier.

Car-Ad-Co drafted Steve Dippold, Mike Crouse, Ronnie Holaway, Dave Thomas, Steven Lindenburg, Bruce Broderick, Bobby Smith, Ron Young, Don Matlick, Bill Barnett, Rusty Robinson, Tom Miller, Steve Natale, Dave Keener and Mark Wendt.

Weyerhaeuser-Gene's acquired Dale Husted, Mike Carlson, Frank Meyers, Dave Switzler, Denny Homer, Don Sterling, Jim Melbeck, Dennis Schweiger, Gregg Peters, Mike Weber, Hadley McCann, Harold Derrah, Dan Olsen, Dave Briggs, Mike Snyder, Marvin Dunster, Reid Olsen and Glenn Gunter.

KU Banquet Set Tonight

The Klamath Union annual sports banquet convenes this evening at seven o'clock in the high school cafeteria. Tickets are $1.50 per person and may be purchased at Hal's Sport Shop, the Chuck Wagon, the Home Appliance Company and at the high school.

Steve Belko is slated as the guest speaker for the evening. Belko is the University of Oregon basketball coach at Eugene. Several ex-Klamath Falls stars are under his tutelage including Glenn Moore and Butch Kimpton.

The banquet is in honor of the Pelican basketball team which finished second in the state tournament at Eugene last month, and the wrestling squad which tied for fourth in their state tourney held at Corvallis.

Crowds Set NL Opening Day Record

Bums, Braves, Giants, Reds Win

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The National League is off on another pennant chase, but except for what happened to relief whiz Roy Face, you'd think it was still '59, what with Los Angeles, Milwaukee and San Francisco jammed together at the top.

The world champion Dodgers, drawing a record crowd at the Coliseum, defeated the Chicago Cubs 3-2 in 11 innings Tuesday night and kept the pace set by the Braves and Giants, who finished 2-3 last year, in afternoon games. The Braves clipped the Pittsburgh Pirates and Face 4-3. The Giants defeated the St. Louis Cardinals 3-1 for a dandy debut in their 15-million-dollar Candlestick Park.

In the other afternoon game, Cincinnati's Reds whipped the Philadelphia Phillies 9-4.

The four games drew 179,782 fans, an opening day record for the NL, which beat the American League, still playing exhibition games, to the punch by six days.

Dodgers 3, Cubs 2

Chuck Essegian, a record maker with a pair of pinch-hit homers as the Dodgers beat the Chicago White Sox in the World Series, broke it up for Los Angeles with a two-out, pinch blast in the 11th off reliever Don Elston. He was batting for Don Drysdale, who blanked the Cubs on three singles over the last eight innings and got a jump toward another strikeout crown. He struck out 14.

The Cubs, with Charlie Grimm opening his third shot as Chicago manager after replacing Bob Scheffing, got four of their seven hits and both runs in the third. Don Zimmer, a long-time Dodger until last week, opened it with a home run.

The Dodgers tied it on a pair of walks and a two-out double by Wally Moon in the fifth against starter Bob Anderson, who fanned nine in his eight frames.

The game drew 67,550, a NL record for a night game. The old high was 67,037, set at the Coliseum last August 8 for a game with the Braves.

Braves 4, Bucs 3

Joe Adcock's two-run homer in the eighth broke up a 2-2 game for the Braves before 39,888 at Milwaukee's County Stadium. The shot followed a single by Hank Aaron and came off Face, the little right-hander who ran up a two-season streak of 22 victories by winning his first 17 last season. Oddly, the Braves were the only club Face didn't beat in that streak, and the club that beat him last before he started the run. He has dropped seven in a row to Milwaukee, going back to 1956.

Warren Spahn, shooting for his 268th victory, hit his 24th home run, a career high for pitchers in the NL, but gave way after blanking the Bucs on four hits for seven frames. Don McMahon came on in the eighth and won it, but needed help from Lew Burdette in the ninth to make Chuck Dressen a winner in his managerial debut with the Braves.

Friend, Face (8) and Smith, Spahn, McMahon (8), Burdette (9) and Crandall. Winner — McMahon (1-0). Loser — Face (0-1). HR—Spahn, Adcock.

Giants 3, Cards 1

Sad Sam Jones, one of three to win 21 a year ago in the NL, gave up only three hits—all by ex-Giants—while beating the Cards for the fifth straight time since they traded him to the Giants 13 months ago. Bill White singled twice, in the first and the ninth, and Leon Wagner junked the shutout with a home run in the fifth.

Orlando Cepeda drove in the Giants' runs, tripling home pair of unearned markers in the first—after an error by ex-Giant Daryl Spencer at short—and singling home Willie Mays in the third. Larry Jackson lost it before a full house of 42,269.

St. Louis	000 010 000—	1	3 2
San Fran.	201 000 00x—	3	8 0

Jackson, Duliba (8) and Smith, Sawatski (8), Jones (1-0) and Schmidt. Loser — Jackson (0-1). HR—Wagner.

Reds 9, Phils 4

The Phillies and Robin Roberts blew a 4-0 lead at Cincinnati, where 30,075 saw Roy McMillan's two-on homer cap a five-run second. Rookie Tony Gonzalez hit a two-run homer for the Reds, also off Roberts, while lefty Jim O'Toole won it with six innings of two-hit, shutout relief.

Ignored Bum Hit Ball Well

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Dodgers think they might have neglected Chuck Essegian this spring. But the muscular outfielder's first performance of the regular season suggests he had no inclination to return the discourtesy.

Essegian, best remembered for the two pinch homers he hit in the 1959 World Series, came up for the first time this season in a pinchhitting role Tuesday night. His homer broke up the game in the 11th and brought Los Angeles a 3-2 victory over the Cubs before 67,550 — the largest night game crowd in National League history.

Essegian had practically nothing to say about his 400-foot shot into the left field seats.

"I hit the ball well," he acknowledged.

"We kinda neglected Essegian in Florida," Dodger Manager Walt Alston said. "We were using Wally Moon, Duke Snider and those other guys we figured would be playing the outfield regularly and we wanted to take a look at the kids.

"He probably thought he should have been playing more, but you've got to give the guy credit for not complaining. He never said a word."

GOLFERS' FATHER DIES

ELMSFORD, N.Y. (UPI)—Mike Turnesa, 85, father of the famous golfing brothers, died Tuesday in his sleep at the home of one of his daughters, Mrs. John Recchia.
