Charge Denied By Prosecutor

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Dist. Atty. William B. McKesson Monday denied reports he had offered to let Dr. R. Bernard Finch plead guilty to a lesser charge at his second murder trial.

Finch's attorney, Grant Cooper, also denied he had attempted to get a lesser plea for his client. Finch and his mistress, Carole Tregoff, are accused of killing Finch's wife. The first trial ended in a mistrial.

"We're still prosecuting him for murder and if anyone wants to plead guilty to a charge it would have to be first degree murder," McKesson said.
