

THE DRILL TEAM of Shasta Lily Rebekah Lodge of Mount Shasta, is, left to right, Mrs. Lourene Bishop, Mrs. Beth Brinser, Mrs. Gertrude Gist, Mrs. Julia Olovson, Mrs. Fern Woodall, Mrs. Daisy Downs, Mrs. Zalda DeSoza, Mrs. Elsie Peterson, Mrs. Margaret Stoner and Mrs. Thelma Welch. They presented a drill program at the Mount Shasta Rebekah goodfellowship meeting March 22. — Photo by Kita

SOCIETY

By HELEN BECHEN

Theta Rho No. 48

MERRILL—Alpha Omega Theta Rho No. 48 met April 7. A report on the first pond and refreshment booth the girls had at the Odd Fellows party was given. Easter seal containers are out in Merrill firms. Easter lilies will be sold April 16.

Merrill Theta Rho will initiate at the district convention in Klamath Falls at the Odd Fellows Hall April 9. Three candidates are Nancy Basdal, Lora Lee Bushnell and Peggy Carter. Cherry Keck, musician; Deane Walker, marshal, and Patty Burleigh, treasurer, are the officers from Merrill.

Patty Kimo, vice president of State Theta Rho Assembly, will be at the convention. Mrs. Edna Oster, chairman of the youth committee, will pay her official visit to this district during the convention.

State Assembly will be held June 17 and 18 at Springfield, Oregon.

Next meeting will be April 19 at 8 p.m.

Lodge Breakfasts On Palm Sunday

Members, officers and guests of Friendship Court No. 11, Order of the Amaranth, met at Bing's Cafe April 10 for their annual Palm Sunday breakfast. Wes Guderian gave the devotional prayer.

In the absence of the royal matron, Phyllis May, William Goen, royal patron, thanked the court for the large attendance.

After the breakfast Jack Schulz, past royal patron, called up the membership who joined hands and sang old-fashioned songs. Several prospective members were introduced.

Julia Spence, associate matron, made several announcements. The rummage sale sponsored by Friendship Court No. 11 will be at Clyde's Towing Service, 734 Klamath Avenue, Friday and Saturday, April 15 and 16. There will be an officers' practice at the Scottish Rite Temple, 632 Walnut Street, Friday, April 15, at 7 p.m.

The royal matron, royal patron, associate matron and associate patron will serve a spaghetti feed Wednesday, April 20, at 6:30 p.m. for all members, families and invited guests of the court. Entertainment will be furnished by the rally squad of Klamath Union High School. A regular meeting will be held after the banquet. Officers are asked to wear street clothes that evening.

Club Conducts Seal Campaign

MERRILL — At the March 24 meeting Alpha Omega Theta Rho No. 48 elected to be in charge of the Easter Seal campaign in Merrill. They will be placing money boxes in the stores and will sell Easter lilies on Saturdays.

During the meeting, presided by President Shirley Moore, a memorial was presented for Sandy Frisvold, a former member.

Majority degrees were given Mrs. Leroy Johnson, Mrs. George Arnold, Kathy Moore and Mrs. Maxine Morse Craigen.

Refreshments were served to 31 members, eight Rebekahs and two advisers after the meeting.

Roses are easy to grow. There are popular varieties thriving in every state of the Union, including Alaska.

Birthday Is Observed

MONTAGUE—Mrs. Anna Dexter, who at the age of 4 crossed the plains by wagon train from Missouri, recently celebrated her 89th birthday with members of her family.

Her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Dexter, granddaughter, Mrs. Al Clement, and three great-grandchildren brought her a giant birthday cake bearing 89 candles. Other cakes were there to serve to guests who dropped in to chat with her.

Also visiting her were Mrs. Earl Flock, a daughter; Mrs. Norman Flock, a granddaughter by marriage, and three great-grandchildren, Karen, Mary Lynn and Norman Flock, Jr.; Mrs. Bruce Rohrer, another daughter; Elaine Rohrer, granddaughter, and Mrs. Agnes Dexter, a daughter-in-law.

Career Women Speak To Club

YREKA—Career advancement set the theme for the program presented during the dinner meeting at the Yreka Business and Professional Women's Club held in the Yreka Inn March 24. Mrs. Frances Wacker was program chairman.

The program was slanted to the mature woman in seeking and retaining employment and Mrs. Wacker had arranged for three speakers to cover the phases of employment, clothing and beauty or appearance.

Mrs. Wacker introduced F. Joy Johnson of the Yreka office of the California Department of Employment. She talked on the many employment problems to be met by the mature woman worker.

The second speaker was Mrs. Loraine Hill, owner-manager of the Style Shop in Yreka. Mrs. Hill demonstrated on a model how one good basic dress could be used not only for work, but with the aid of jewelry, a hat, different styles of gloves, could be worn for all occasions.

Mrs. Marquerite Hayden, owner-manager of Hayden's Beauty Salon in Yreka, discussed the proper care of skin, hair and nails to give the mature woman a good appearance in the business world.

President Betty Dow appointed the auditing committee, Mrs. Pearl Linc, Mrs. Ora Jackson and Mrs. Eva Turner.

FAMILY REUNION

LANGELL VALLEY—Mr. and Mrs. Jack Metler had a family reunion and dinner at their home in Langell Valley on April 3. A social time followed the dinner. Invited were Mr. and Mrs. Ward Metler of Spokane, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Metler, Mr. and Mrs. George Metler, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Metler and Dickie, Lori and Maria, Norman Metler, Sally Loveless and Betty Metler, all of Klamath Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Yancey, Lauryn and Johnnie, Mr. and Mrs. George Keady and Virginia, all of Langell Valley.

MRS. ANNA DEXTER of Montague recently celebrated her 89th birthday with members of her family. The photo was taken by her granddaughter, Vera Clement.

who had married and moved to Courtland, Ontario. There were two bridesmaids and two stand-

Anna's father died shortly after the family's arrival in Oregon and the Gostey family left Oregon to settle near Oak, Bar, Be-

Anna Gostey and George Franklyn Dexter were married at the Ashland Hotel May 25, 1906. He was a native of grandchild today. George Dexter died on August 17, 1943. She was an active member of the Montague Women's Society of Christian Service for many years and on her recent birthday the organization honored her with a party shower.

ANNOUNCEMENT!
Cherub Diaper Service
 Now Located At
Bob's Self Service Laundry
 1711 Main Street
CALL TU 4-9234
 For Full Information On This New Service

Be wise . . .
PATRONIZE a proven service. See us today for YOUR musical needs . . . whether it be a musical instrument or a music lesson your LOCAL dealer is interested in your musical future. With private ACCORDION instructions you get more for your money. Steel and standard GUITAR is also our specialty. Don't be misled . . . be led by honest dealings to your locally owned and operated STUDIO, Klamath Music Center, 515 East Main . . . "Right Across From Mills School" . . . Phone TU 4-3360 for an appointment.

Easter Candies
 You Get Quality at Low Price
 When You Choose
Miss Saylor's
 priced from only 1.75

Nougat Eggs
 Miss Saylor's Large Size - Each 59¢
Happy Easter Duck $1.00
 full of Miss Saylor's Easter candy for children - only . . .
 Choose your Easter Candy from Wood's Selection of Miss Saylor's, Gobelin or Moyer's
WOOD'S DRUG
 Medical-Dental Bldg. 9th & Main

EASTER FASHIONS
 all so very parade-able . . .
 Town Shop's Collection of Spring style hits!

LEFT
 Helen Whiting presents this woven-check Empire. Tailored trim ties into bow. Shawl collar draps to deep V in back. Slim skirt for Easter Parading. Green or gold. Sizes 9-15.
12.95

RIGHT
 The sheath of its very best . . . by Jonathan Logan. Remarkably flattering, comfortably cool cotton with woven tone-on-tone embroidery in light blue or beige. Sizes 9-15.
14.95

The Town Shop
 500 Main

TOP BUYS FOR Easter

MILK AND OTHER DAIRY PRODUCTS

Take it from me . . .
 Don't get Caught Short! Stock up on Milk for the Weekend

Use fresh, rich milk or cream in your holiday cooking . . . and drink 3 glasses each day for real Easter Bunny Energy!

KLAMATH BASIN GRADE A MILK PRODUCERS ASSN.

An organization of Klamath Basin Dairyman whose job it is to bring you the best milk possible . . . locally produced for local people!