DOUGLAS KIRKPATRICK, Army private, son of Mr. and Mrs. Silas H. Kirkpatrick, 1981 Harriman Avenue, recently was graduated from paratroop jump school at Fort Campbell, Kentucky. He was graduated last year from Sacred Heart Academy.

New Name Explained

LAKEVIEW—Indian legend and lore will form the background for extensive remodeling of the building which was formerly Hotel Lakeview, according to Robert Ogle, who has bought the building from his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Ogle.

An Indian word meaning health, happiness and long life formed the name of the new Wanataee Lounge. The new restaurant will be named the Indian Village with a seating capacity of 220 persons. New furniture has been selected for the restaurant as well as for the bar, which will retain its present name.

Ogle has long been a collector of Indian arrowheads and artifacts. His collection and about 10 other private collections he has purchased will be displayed in the new quarters. It will be one of the most extensive on the West Coast.

Demolition of the top stories of the old hotel building by E. S. Ritter and Company of Salem was completed a week ahead of schedule. Planned opening date for the new lounge and restaurant is now May 7. The remodeling work is being done by Lytton Plaster. The exterior of the building will be painted with murals of Indian signs on stucco by Duncan Linecum.

Placards Aid Tourists

Cards designed to help convention visitors find parking places and use them without cost were received today by the chamber of commerce.

The cards are designed for mounting on an auto dashboard—in full view of the metermaid—and may be stamped with the effective date.

Inside the card contains a map of Klamath Falls showing downtown points of interest.

The cards will be used for the first time this Friday, Saturday and Sunday by delegates to a Jehovah's Witnesses convention.

Helix Rancher Visits Basin

S. E. Brogitt, chairman of the State Board of Education, here to attend the annual banquet of the Oregon Technical Institute and Mrs. Brogitt, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. V. E. O'Neill, 1634 Portland, during their visit to Klamath Falls.

Brogitt, a livestock man and rancher at Helix, was one of several guests present to receive honorary memberships in the Synthesis.

He is prominent in educational circles at local, state and national levels. He has served on the State Board of Education for 10 years, has held offices in the National School Boards of Education, and now regional vice president of the Western Division, is a past president of the Oregon School Board Association and present chairman of the Umatilla Rural School Board.

Funds Donated To Library

CHLOQUIN—National Library Week, last week, had special significance for the Chloquin branch of the county library as work progressed on the new location in the city hall. The Thunderbirds, a local basketball team whose manager and coach are Ron Hatfield and Sandy Miller, turned over a check for $30.10 to Mrs. Paul Herron, local librarian, to be used for a floor for the new library.

The proceeds came from a recent food sale and from several private donations. The sale was put on by the Thunderbirds with assistance of Mrs. William Wampler and was held at the Indian Education Office.
