Meal Held By Auxiliary

TULELAKE—The annual Pan American program planned by Mrs. May Rudd, Pan American chairman for the auxiliary of Tulelake Post 594 and the post members, brought out a large number of members of the two groups.

A potluck dinner was followed by a program and separate meetings of the auxiliary and post. Mr. and Mrs. Al Childers were special guests.

Tables arranged by Mabel Rogers and Kathleen Todd carried out an attractive Spanish theme. Place ornaments were made by the junior auxiliary members.

Portia Atkins gave a book review on Guatemala, community singing was led by Addie Meshke, Wood Chambers accompanied by Leon Van Norwick sang three numbers and there were vocal numbers by Bonnie and Audrey Townsend. A tap dance was given by Carol Dahlie.

Mrs. Cleo St. Peter, auxiliary president, reported on the District 2 meeting at Enterprise.

Items Held By Police

City police have three articles of householders found and turned in Wednesday.

A juvenile officer found a "Hathaway 29" red bicycle abandoned in a vacant lot across from 465 Adams Street. The seat has no cover, he said, and the front fender is covered with decals. The serial number is 70001-530.

An unidentified resident found a Studebaker hubcap on Alandale Street and turned it in.

Bonnie Schill found a pair of glasses with thick lenses near Mills School. Owners may call police headquarters, TU 4-3111.

Nearly all of the aspirin made in the U.S. comes from Michigan.

Ed Meet Scheduled

An educational conference of state legislators, the state AFL-CIO analysis of major measures in the 1959 session with the voting record of legislators on these issues and a program outline listing the steps through which a bill must pass before it can become law.

The program, prepared by the Research and Education Department of the Oregon AFL-CIO, is built around the theme of how a bill becomes a law. Purpose of the conference is to acquaint the citizen with the principle processes in the operation of the state legislature.

A kit of materials will be given each person who attends. Included is a pamphlet outlining, briefly, the law-making process on the state level. Other materials include a list of current
