

THIS COMMITTEE, hard working and energetic, successfully staged a get acquainted party for all members and friends of Reames Country Club on Sunday, April 10. The affair, one of the first of its kind, was planned to include games and activities for all age groups. Prizes were given for dances, musical chairs and putting contests. The large crowd enjoyed a buffet supper and an early evening of dancing to the music of Fred Dallas and his trio. MARY LOU ENGELCKE, right, who will become the bride of John Franklin Dodson Jr. of Redding today, was honored at a lovely party April 7 at the home of Mrs. Fred Farley, 1444 Pacific Terrace. Mrs. Farley, left, was co-hostess with Mrs. J. Martin Adams, center, for the linen shower and dessert party to which close friends of the guest of honor were invited. Gifts were partially hidden by a large parasol of pastel shades placed on the raised hearth. Pastel shades were used again in floral arrangements about the rooms and the table where dessert was served. — Photo by Guderian

Zuleima Nile

Zuleima Nile Club of Klamath Falls met Wednesday evening, April 6, at the Willard Hotel for its regular monthly meeting.

Chairman of the evening was Ruth Renie, Decoration chairman. Delight Hicks, used the Easter motif in decorating the tables. Green nests filled with colorful candy eggs formed the base for pink candles, and the beautiful spring floral arrangements were of pink carnations, heather and Star of Bethlehem.

Floral arrangements were given to Marie Pike and Gretchen Thompson who held April birthday tickets, and to Bertha Murdoch, Doris Peyton, Marge Whytal, Lillian Haneline and Bess Hunt as winners of special prizes.

Students from KUHS entertained Nile members with a Pelicana preview, an annual variety show which is sponsored by the Exchange Club of Klamath Falls. Roberta Renie was mistress of ceremonies.

The first number was an electric and steel guitar arrangement of "Drifting and Dreaming" by Kay Parker and Cheri Meints. The second number was a piano selection by Ramona Soto. Sidney Miller and Mary Ann Gallagher sang "Just Between You and Me" for the third number.

The last act of the Pelicana preview was the Three Essentials, Bob Elliott, Danny Johnson and Don Isensee, who gave their rendition of "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot," "Scarlet Ribbons" and "Good News."

The next regular luncheon meeting of the Klamath Falls Nile Club will be Wednesday, May 4. All members are urged to attend as Doris Wray, new queen of Zuleima Temple, Daughters of the Nile, will make her official visit at that time.

The population of Los Angeles has increased six times in the last 30 years.

Although no hair spray can take the place of a permanent, it can sure help to hold and control the curl you have. A few tips on its use: To get the best results from hair spray, hold the container about 10 to 12 inches away . . . keep the container in motion . . . Try tying a hair net over your hair, then spray . . . This is a big help on rainy days . . . if spraying in curls before setting makes them too tight, try spraying lightly after you set your hair . . .
