SILK FOR SPRING

Paris likes the notion of dressing from head to toe in silk for spring. This means large trimmed silk hat, soft silk dress and silk for matching shoes.

The borough of Brooklyn became part of New York City in 1898.

Bethel No. 61

Bethel No. 61, Order of Job's Daughters, held a regular meeting, Monday, April 4, at the Scottish Rite Temple. Honored Queen Patricia Anderson conducted the meeting. Natalia Reichenberg, guardian, and Larry Whytal, associate guardian, welcomed members and guests.

Penny Preston, junior past queen, was introduced.

Plans were made for the official visitation of Evelyn Sult, grand guide, on Monday, April 18, at the regular meeting. A potluck dinner at 6 p.m. will be held that night in her honor and the Bethel will have initiation. A father's night will be held at the May 16 meeting and all girls are asked to bring their fathers. A letter from the Masonic Home informed the girls of their new grandmother, Bessie Smith.

For entertainment a poem on "Daffodils" was read by the librarian, Jackie Dukes.

All members are asked to be present at the next meeting April 18, for the official inspection.
