A all-events; Dale Himelwright's 1884 score in the Class B all-events; Harold Heaton and Roger Vanderhoff's 1252 in the class B doubles; Leo Benn's 695 in the Class A singles, and Fiegi's 687 in the Class B singles. Dodgers, SF Giants Sharing First Place In Senior Circuit

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS — To open the bottom of the 14th Hodges, Mustal, Snider, Grammas, San Francisco's major winter After Don Blasingame sacrificed Moon, trade that sent outfielder Jackie Loes to second, Davenport came Brandt to Baltimore for pitchers through with his second single to Billy O'Tell and Billy Loes has end the four-hour contest.

Loes the unpredictable was Loes the magnificent Sunday. The 30-year-old relief ace not only batted three hitless and runless innings but singled in the bottom of the 14th and scored the run that gave the Giants a 4-3 triumph over the Chicago Cubs.

Third baseman Jimmy Davenport, whose late season injury was a big factor in the Giants' 1959 collapse, drove in the tie-breaking run with a single off relief pitcher Ben Johnson.

The victory enabled the Giants to remain in a first place dead lock with the Los Angeles Dodgers. The defending champions defeated the St. Louis Cardinals 7-5 for their third consecutive victory.

The defeat was the fifth for the winless Cardinals.

Milwaukee remained a half game behind the leaders, walloping the Philadelphia Phillies 8-4 for its third success in four starts.

Pittsburgh jumped into fourth place by sweeping a doubleheader from Cincinnati. The Pirates won the opener 5-0 behind the four-hit pitching of Bob Friend, then came from behind with a six-run rally in the bottom of the ninth to nip the Reds 6-5 in the nightcap.

Giants 4, Chi 3 — Loes was the fourth Giant pitcher, following Mike McCormick, Stu Miller and Jack Sanford. He took over in the 12th, retired six straight batters, then pitched himself out of trouble by getting pinch hitter Sammy Taylor with two runners on base in the top of the 14th.

The New York born right-hander, who will not win any honors with his bat, surprised the home crowd of 33,337 by lashing a single off Johnson, third Chicago pitcher.

Camilo Pascual, who turned in an incredible pitching feat last year by winning 17 games for the year Senators, has been selected by manager Cookie Lavagetto to hurl against Ted Williams and Company. Choice of the Red Sox was Tom Sturdivant (7-0), a right-hander who did his pitching for New York and Kansas City last year.

Around 120,000 baseball-minded folks, two thirds of the fans who turned out for the National League opener, were expected to take in the four games Tuesday.

The first game is a seven inning tilt with the second game going five frames. Only the first one counts in Southern Oregon Conference standings.

The Pelicans, who have turned from near hitless wonders a week ago, are now nearly the talk of the league. Last week the Pels hosted the Crater Comets from Central Point and clubbed them into a 16-1 and 13-0 submission.

The KU swatmen pounded the Crater hurlers mercilessly for two games and collected 22 hits, four less than they gathered in their first six outings.

The rampaging Pels, coached by Bill Mansfield, now boast a seasonal record of six wins and four losses. The victories include single wins over Prineville and Yreka and doubles over Crater and Grants Pass.

Pitching tomorrow for the Pels will probably be Blake Griggs and John Webb. However, the Pels host the much stronger Medford Black Tornadoes here on Saturday.

Frank Lane of the Indians to give the slugging Colavino in a straight player deal for Kuenn. Colavino parked 42 homers last year and should do even better in Detroit's Briggs Stadium with its friendly left field wall. He had a .257 batting average compared to Kuenn's title-winning .353. But Kuenn hit only nine homers.

"The home run is overrated," said Lane in explaining why he gave up one of the game's finest young power hitters for one of its all-time consistent hitters.

"I hated to let Rocky go, but I think our chances of winning the pennant are greater with the steady hitter like Kuenn in the lineup."

The Crater games last weekend were the best games the Pels have played all year. For the first time everything seemed to jell. The defense, offense and pitching young power hitters for one of its all-time consistent hitters.

Griggs pitched his second league win in the opener and Webb came in to shut out the season. Earlier he blanked the Grants Pass Cavemen.

HR'S Sparkle PCL On Easter Sunday

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS — The Pacific Coast League blossomed out with a home run parade for Easter Sunday and the Spokane Indians placed around Sacramento into first place.

A double victory for Spokane over Salt Lake by scores of 3-2 and 2-0 put the Indians on top when Vancouver took a 10-1 decision over previously unwhipped Sacramento.

San Diego and Seattle split a pair and the scheduled double bill between Tacoma and Portland was rained out in Tacoma.

Homers accounted for all the Seattle runs. Bill Ham, Buddy Gilbert and Gordon Coleman hit four-baggers as Seattle won the opener 4-2. Ham's coming with a homer on base. Harry Malmberg's homer was the only Seattle run in San Diego's 2-1 second game victory.

Howie Goss powered three circuit blows as Vancouver avenged three previous defeats by Sacramento. Goss batted in six of the Vancouver runs and had a double in addition to his ladder clouts.

A home run by Willie Davis in the second round after Mohr fell under Bartell's attack. He jumped to his feet and took a mandatory nine-count but remained dazed and defenseless. Mohr was rushed to a hospital when he complained to team physician Dr. John H. Flinn that he felt sleepy. By the time the ambulance arrived, Mohr was unconscious.

The immediate cause of death was failure of vital centers in the brain to respond.

Mohr's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mohr, and his sisters, Carole and Joan, returned to the family's Merrick, N.Y., home Sunday. The funeral tentatively was scheduled for Wednesday morning.

A southpaw noted for his ability to escape punishing blows, it was the first knockout for Mohr in his collegiate career. He entered the tournament to defend his championship and was regarded as a strong favorite. Mohr had outpointed Bartell by a decisive margin in a bout one week earlier.

Miss Von Saltza, of the Santa Clara, Calif., swim club, set three U.S. records, won three events and led her team to a smashing victory in the meet, which concluded here Saturday night and wrote some new chapters in America's Olympic futures book.

Miss Cone, of Ridgewood, N.J., swimming for the Shamrock Hilton Swim Club of Houston, set a new record in the 100 yard backstroke only to lose the event on a judge decision to Lynn Burke of the Santa Clara Club. Both finished in identical times of 1:03 flat.

The 20-year-old Miss Cone lost in the 1956 Olympic 100 meter event on a similar judge's decision. And earlier in this meet she had lost her title in the 200-yard backstroke event to Miss Burke, but by a more decisive margin.

Chuck Mohr, Collegiate Boxer, Dies

MADISON, Wis. (AP)—Charles Mohr, 22, University of Wisconsin boxer who suffered a brain injury in a collegiate title bout April 9, died Sunday.

"His death is a great tragedy," said Coach Vern Woodward. "Charlie was symbolic of all that is fine in college boxing."

Mohr died without regaining consciousness from the time he was admitted to the hospital, less than an hour after he walked out of the ring following a National Collegiate Athletic Assn. 165-pound title bout with Stu Bartell of San Jose State.

The fight was stopped in the second round after Mohr fell under Bartell's attack. He jumped to his feet and took a mandatory nine-count but remained dazed and defenseless. Mohr was rushed to a hospital when he complained to team physician Dr. John H. Flinn that he felt sleepy. By the time the ambulance arrived, Mohr was unconscious.

Nats, Boston Start AL Flag Race Today

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS — Rumors to the contrary, the American League does plan to play baseball this year.

As a matter of fact, Joe Cronin's circuit gets going today with its traditional opener in the nation's capital. President Eisenhower even interrupted his Georgia vacation to fly up to Washington to throw out the first ball in the game between the Senators and Boston Red Sox.

On Tuesday, exactly seven days after the National League raises the 1960 curtain, all teams will open a full-scale drive for the flag in the Chuck Wagon Restaurant.

Final plans are to be worked out concerning the smoker that the Owl Hoots are sponsoring in the Klamath Auditorium Saturday evening at 8 o'clock.

Ringside tickets for the smoker may be purchased for $1.50 at Klamath Billiards, Herman's Men Shop and Dick Reeder's. Tickets will be sold at the box office of the Klamath Auditorium Saturday night at $1 for general admission and 50 cents for students.

The smoker is blossoming into a 14 card-plus light night with boxers from Chilomun, Sprague River, Klamath Falls and OTI being represented.

Ronald and Gloria Bishop of Mount Shasta ran off with the winning costume representing Andy and Raggedy Ann.

Winners of the obstacle-course race were Bob and Nancy Duncomb of Portland who represented miniature Alpine people.

The judges of the Konwaktion Kapers were K. C. Mather of Redding and San Diego and Roger Hines and Mariane Theobald of Mount Shasta.

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Tigers have parted with Harvey Kuenn, the American League's top hitter of 1959, to put more long ball punch in their lineup.

And the Cleveland Indians have given up the league's co-home run king, Rocky Colavito, hoping to convert Kuenn's steady hitting into a pennant. The biggest star-for-star trade in years came on the eve of the American League's 1960 opening.

Many baseball fans were surprised Sunday when they learned President Bill Dewitt of the Tigers had persuaded General Manager Medford Black Tornadoes here on Saturday.

Frank Lane of the Indians to give the slugging Colavino in a straight player deal for Kuenn.
