Wild Fight Ends Tension In Georgia

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A savage fight between Negroes and white youths climaxed weeks of racial tension in Savannah, Ga., where Negroes have been staging sit-down demonstrations and boycotting stores with segregated lunch counters.

Ax handles, pipes, knives and other weapons were swung in the brief but vicious clash in a park Monday night. A white youth was hospitalized with a serious knife wound in the neck. Two other white youths and a Negro were treated at a hospital and released.

Police jailed two Negroes and seven white persons and began an extensive search of the area for 20 others believed to have taken part in the fight in the Georgia coastal city.

Cause of the burst of violence was not determined. Investigators said the teen-agers who were arrested gave conflicting accounts.

Melvin Bryan, 18, suffered a deep stab wound in the side of the neck.

Allen Louis Johnson, 22-year-old Negro, received a badly bruised elbow when he was struck by an ax handle.

The battle in the park occurred a few hours after police reported a white man struck a Negro student during a lunch counter sit-down demonstration at the S. H. Kress & Co. store. It was the second such incident in three days.

A white man knocked a Negro demonstrator from a lunch counter stool in the same store Saturday. The Negro's jaw was broken.

Former President Harry S. Truman told newsmen at Atlanta, N. Y., he wouldn't be surprised "if the sit-downs in the South were inspired by Communists."

Seven Negro ministers staged a silent prayer session on a safety zone at an intersection in downtown Chattanooga, Tenn. One of the signs they carried read, "We pray for our city in Christian love. Stop Jim Crow."
