Appeal Denied

SALEM (AP) — An appeal of Levi S. McDonald of Portland on a decision by Circuit Court Judge P. K. Hammond of Oregon City that favored the Oregonian and Oregon Journal was denied Tuesday.

The Oregon Supreme Court denied McDonald's petition to have the two Portland daily newspapers declared in contempt of court for publication of testimony which preceded his arrest.

The testimony was that of Gerald Couzens of Portland, who admitted a part in the bombing and said McDonald hired him.

McDonald, a member of the Stereotypers Union that struck the two newspapers Nov. 10, was charged in the Jan. 31 bombing of trucks that hauled newspapers for the struck Oregonian and Oregon Journal.

Hopeful Set For NW Tour

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) is scheduled to arrive Friday morning in Portland and hold an 8 a.m. news conference at Portland International Airport.

The news conference will open two days of campaigning to win Oregon's free-for-all May 20 presidential preference primary. Oregon delegates will cast 17 votes at the Democratic National Convention next July in Los Angeles.

Kennedy's schedule Friday calls for a tour of several Clackamas County points and winds up with a speech that night in Eugene.

Kennedy Saturday will be grand marshal of the Pear Blossom Parade in Medford, Ore., then go on to Ashland. He speaks Saturday night in Portland.

4 Partake In Exercise

Four soldiers from Klamath Falls participated in the Army's recent "Exercise Quick Strike" at Fort Campbell and Camp Breckinridge, Kentucky.

They were S.A.C. Robert L. Stillwell, 4420 Harlett Avenue, Pfc. William J. Noel, son of Mrs. Lura Noel, 114 Eldorado Avenue; S.A.C. Robert L. Sari, son of Ezio C. Sari, 2439 Homedale Road, and Pfc. Jerry B. Alley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Orval Alley, 4437 Onyx Avenue.

All are members of the 101st Airborne Division, which participated in the operation to sharpen its readiness and striking power as one of the major Strategic Army Corps units. The exercise featured helicopter river crossings, ground and sky rails and patrolling maneuvers.

Stillwell is a supply clerk in Headquarters Company, 502 Infantry. Noel is a member of Company B of the division's 801 Maintenance Battalion. Sari is a member of Headquarters Detachment of the division Support Group. Alley is a member of Company A of the division's 506 Infantry. All entered the Army after graduation from Klamath Union High School.

No Picnic

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex. (AP)—One unit taking part in logistical exercises at Mustang Island has decided Army life is no picnic—not with seagulls around.

The 394th Transportation Battalion set up outdoor tables for their meals. Then the gulls began swooping down to snatch the soldiers' chow.

Several mess tents were borrowed from a National Guard outfit and the 394th retreated inside.
