Poster, Essay Winners Told

The district winners for the Oregon Federation of Garden Clubs poster and essay contests were announced this week.

David Ganger of Tulelake High School won first prize with his poster.

In the grade school poster division first place went to Judy Prosser of Newell School. Second place went to Kathy Chilcote of Roosevelt School and third place to Tommy Carnes, Altamont School.

Honorable mention was awarded to Sheryl Jean Cuffman, Alturas, and Maria Castel, Sacred Heart Academy.

In the high school essay contest Paul Brown of Tulelake High School was first.

The grade school essay first place was won by Barbara Roberts of Newell School. Sheila Shelton of Altamont placed second and Joyce Smith of Fairview School, third. Receiving honorable mention were Betty Coon, Roosevelt, and Susan Olson, Alturas.

The first place posters and essays will be sent to the Oregon Federation of Garden Clubs for state competition.

Judges for the district contest were Mrs. J. R. Miller, Mrs. Charles Thurman and Mrs. Doris L. Miller.

Parents and Patrons FAIRHAVEN SCHOOL.

Mrs. Bernard Fiegi presided at the April meeting of Fairhaven School Parents and Patrons. The flag salute was led by Mrs. Ernest Briggs, Den 2 Cub Scouts.

T. Patok's students won the room count for the second consecutive month.

Officers for the coming year were elected: Lou Smith will be president, Martha Mickelson, vice president; Dorothy Ziemer, secretary, and Fay Spiker, treasurer.

Tom Roe, physical education teacher and coach, presented his jumbling team in an excellent program.

Refreshments were served by first grade mothers.

BRIDGE CLUB

LANGELL VALLEY — Mrs. Doug Smolcer entertained members of her bridge club at dessert on April 14. Three tables were in play. Mrs. Lloyd Gift won high prize for the afternoon, Mrs. Leona Harris second high.

Mrs. Harry Frazier won the traveling prize and Mrs. Lea Leavitt the low prize. Other guests were Mrs. Ted Rowcliffe, Mrs. Bill Burnett, Mrs. Bill Becholdt, Mrs. Harold Williams, Mrs. Cecil Hahley, Mrs. Owen Pepple and Mrs. Mabel Maxwell.

8 And 40 Salon Plans For Party

Party plans were the highlight of the program when the Eight and Forty Salon met at the home of Mrs. Julian Abbott on Wednesday, March 29. Mrs. Carl Schaubert announced her committee chairman for the big party of the year when the salon entertains the state officers on April 23, at the Legion Hall, as follows: Mrs. Alfred Petersteiner, dinner chairman; Mrs. Paul Otterbein, decorations; Mrs. Fred Heilbroner, cocktail hour; Mrs. Julian Abbott, program; and the past salon officers, hostesses. Mrs. John Glueck will greet the party. The theme this year for the guests will carry a Chinese motif and hostesses will carry out the Oriental idea in dress and decorations.

STATE PRESIDENT Mrs. Harold Larsen of the Eight and Forty Salon, service organization of the American Legion Auxiliary, will make her official visit to the local unit April 23. She and several other state officers will be entertained that evening at the Legion Hall. Mrs. Larsen resides in Portland.

In more serious business, the salon members will man the chest X-ray mobile unit on June 3, and Easter gifts will be sent to the tuberculosis hospitals, an annual custom. Mrs. C. H. Foster has been appointed county chairman for the chest X-ray program, and gave a report on activities in Klamath County.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Fannie Thompson, Mrs. Katherine Keep and Mrs. C. H. Foster.
