Lodge Chiefs Attend Rites

Principal officers of most Masonic bodies in the Klamath area attended Easter morning services for Scottish Rite Masons Sunday, April 17, at the Scottish Rite Temple.
Gus G. Vlahos, wise master, Klamath Chapter of Rose Croix, presided at the meeting of Scottish Rite Masons during the ceremony of relighting the lights, and also at the breakfast which followed the Easter lodge services.

The social club of Manzanita Chapter OES served a capacity group. Many daughters and invited girls of Masons attended the breakfast as honored guests.
A choral group from Fremont Junior High School under the direction of Don Herbig sang three numbers for the assembly. Gail Porter was accompanist. A vocal solo by R. J. Guzman was featured during the breakfast.
Following the breakfast an address was made by Cress U. Reed.
