Bad Weather Halts Trip

Mary Sue Hodge, 22-year-old American dairy queen, failed to make scheduled appearances at Grants Pass and Klamath Falls today because of bad weather on the west side of the mountains. Miss Hodge, a home economics teacher of Snover, Mich., on a year's leave to be top saleswoman for the National Dairy Association, is making an Oregon tour under sponsorship of Oregon Dairy Products Commission, with June Hansen, of the commission, as chaperon. The party is flying in a private plane, a C-44, piloted by Chris Schirwatt, Portland. Bob Bissell, of Cole and Weber, the commission's advertising agency, is also in the party. Bissell telephoned to say the plane had to return to Springfield where he says some other planes are grounded because "they can't get over the mountain." Grants Pass was on the morning schedule and the plane was due in here at 11 a.m. today for an hour stop. They are planning to go to Roseburg by car to keep an afternoon appointment and then return to Eugene for an evening meeting planned and then back to Portland tonight.

Scouts Host Children

Explorer Scouts of Post 43 hosted a group of neighborhood children during an Easter egg hunt Saturday, and were rewarded in turn by members of the A-O-Wa-Ki-Ya Camp Fire Girls unit. The girls of Mills School seventh grade and Fremont Junior High School conducted a party for everyone concerned at the home of W. K. Galloway, 1334 Johnson Avenue. Games and dancing were featured. Refreshments were served by Mollie Wilcox, Nina Tucker and Janice Britton. Carolyn Gattis, Beverly Morstad, Carol Amidon and Geraldine Fitzgerald served on the entertainment committee. The Camp Fire unit is sponsored by the Klamath Union High School Semper Paratus Horizon Club. Horizon Club members attending were Donna Swain, Barbara Hamilton, Patricia Anderson, Paulette Eden, Kathy Fleet and Anicely Durrell. Group leaders assisted. Children in the neighborhood of the Galloway home who hunted eggs were Rusty, Ricky and Keny Anderson, Richie Concanon, Jan, Martha Ann, Laurie and Jim Conlin, Gregg Hetley, Karen and Robin Carlson, Connie and Charles Clark, Janetta Amidon, Karen and Terry Fitzgerald and Kris Fristoe. Kenny Anderson, Charles Clark, Janetta Amidon and Terry Fitzgerald won prizes. Explorers who planned the hunt were Bob Anderson, Jerry Kramer, Ken Galloway, Sid Uglum and Kent Puckett. The post adviser is Oscar Anderson and the Klamath Lutheran Church is sponsor.
