Twenty Bout Amateur Fight Card Set Saturday

OREGON TECH RING THREATS — Big Bob Petersen, left, and Bud Maupin, a popular pair of Oregon Tech athletes more widely known for their prowess in other fields of sports endeavor, have donned boxing gloves, at least for a time. Although they are not matched against each other in the big amateur fight card slated for the Old Armory Saturday night, they will appear against talented opponents in what should be highly interesting scraps. Petersen, an ex-All State Pelican basketball player, will tangle with Sonny James, while Maupin, ex-star of the State B champion Merrill football team, will square off against big Rog Hooper, a rugged Owl gridder. Between 16 and 20 other bouts are planned for the card.

County, KF, Tech, Medfordites Ready

At the latest count there were at least 40 of the area's top amateur fighters signed up for the mammoth fight card scheduled tomorrow night at 8 o'clock in the Klamath Auditorium (old armory). The big 20-bout spectacular is being sponsored by the Order of O, the Oregon Tech Letterman's club, and the Owl Hoots, the OTI backers' association.

The auditorium box office will open at 6:30 p.m. Ringside seat tickets are $1.50, general admission $1 and students 50 cents. Ringside tickets may be purchased today and tomorrow at the Klamath Billiards, Herman's Men's Store and Dick Reeder's.

Arrangements for the smoker, which promises to be one of the biggest local sports shows of the season, are under the direction of Rex Hunsaker in cooperation with Chiloquin Police Chief Lou Jones, Buck Davidson and George Miller. Ticket sales are under the direction of Owl Hoot members while auditorium ring and seating facilities are being handled by the O club members.

Officials to work at the ringside include Sheriff Murray Britton, Deputy Del Summers, George Price, Davidson and Miller, each of whom will be delegated to handle a portion of the refereeing chores. Handling the ring announcing job will be Bob Scott of KLAD.

Timekeepers, judges and the ring physician had not been named at this writing.

Each of the 20 bouts on tap is scheduled for three minutes. Hunsaker noted that the program would be run off in rapid-fire fashion.

The Chiloquin Boys Club, handled by Jones, will send 22 of the fighters entered in from 50 to 165-pound weight brackets. Those matched include Jake Gregg, Ramon Unive, Butch and Mike Wampler, Mike Chase, Van Todd, Ray DeBortoli, Don Taylor, Bob Bjorcas, Errol Todd, Lee Chase, Len Andersen, Leon Weeks, Ralph Wright, Richey Starkey, Al DeBortoli and Duane McDaniels.

From Sprague River are Larry Barney, Paul Melandras, Freddie Schonchin, Cal Summers, Al Forman and Jim Wright.

Oregon Tech athletes Bob Petersen, Bud Maupin, Rog Hooper, Sonny James, Dave Kubesh, Dan Shamion, John Weaver and Jim Bellm pair off to make up four of the bouts. They are training under Miller.

Working with Buck Davidson and Jerry Jennings as their trainers are Bill and Bob Kincaid, Skip Waits and Vern Huck, Herb Waits and Dennis Cornwall.

Chiloquin battler Ron Hoggarth, a rugged 165-pounder, is still in search of an opponent, as is Jesse Sanchez, a 149-pounder from Weyerhaeuser with 49 amateur scraps to his credit.

The Medford contingent under the leadership of Jim Zack of the Medford PAL club, includes Larry Lewis, Bib Little, Earl Warren, Cliff Roberts and Bill Thomas.

Chesapeakes Out Of Trials

Entry of two champion Chesapeakes slated to compete in this weekend's Shasta - Cascade Retriever Club Field Trials was canceled because of the illness of their owner.

Mrs. Walter S. Hellar of San Rafael withdrew Nelgard's Baron, CFC and AFC, and Ch. Platte River Jane. The third dog she had entered, Baron's Tule Tiger, has been brought here by Marvin (Snuffy) Belliveau, professional handler from Sonoma, California, who will handle him in the derby.

The 96 entries include two labradors, AFC Black Cougar, amateur winner in last September's field trials here, and Wee Lady, owned and handled by James L. Casey of Palo Alto.

Lewiston, Tri-City Ball Clubs Slated For Stadium Tonight

Baseball fans who have long bemoaned the fact that Klamath Falls is without a professional baseball club and is not represented in the Northwest League, a Class B operation, at least get a chance to see what they're missing when the Lewiston Broncs and the Tri-City Braves appear in Gem Stadium tonight at 7 o'clock.

Stadium gates and box office will open at 6 p.m., according to the Pelican Booster Club, sponsoring organization officials. Admission charges are $1 for adults and 50 cents for students. The concession stands will be in operation.

Manager John McNamara and his Lewiston nine got a familiarization run at the stadium this morning between 10 and 12 o'clock and the Tri-City organization, led by coach Whitey McDowell, took over at noon and worked until 2.

Both teams are en route to their respective cities where they will wind things up prior to the Northwest League opening Tuesday night, The Broncs open at home against the Wenatchee Chiefs while the Braves travel on to Yakima where they clash with the Bears. Salem and Eugene pair off the same night to round out the loop.

Starting hurlers for tonight's game are Lewiston's Jim Johnson and Tri-City's Dave Gray. Depending on the temperature, both clubs may call upon two or three chuckers before the test is over.

Standing by for the Broncs are Sam Canner, Ted Neal, and Dave Hill and Steve Kelly, both bonus pitchers farmed out from Kansas City.

Also scheduled to work for the Braves is Don Gorrondona, a righthander who played at Lake Charles for McDowell in 1957.

Owls, Vikings To Start Early

If there is an advantage in training in wintry type weather it should show up for the Oregon Tech Owl track team at 9:15 tomorrow morning when they play host to the Portland State Vikings in a dual Oregon Collegiate Conference meet on Klamath Union's Modoc Field.

The early start was decided upon since the same track will be used starting at 1 p.m. for a dual meet between the KU Pelicans and the Ashland Grizzlies.

The field events open the meet followed by the start of the track events at 10 a.m., according to Wally Palmberg, coach of the Owl team.

The Mile High crew learned, the hard way, last weekend that the Klamath Falls training weather was of little or no use to them when they tangled with the Viks in Portland. They were defeated 104 1-3 to 26 2-3 in a dual meet originally intended as a three-way test.

A note from Hal Childs, PSC publicist, indicates that the Vikings aren't looking for much of a score change Saturday, regardless of the weather. Said Childs, "We feel we have at least one outstanding performer in most events and excellent depth in all the flat races and in the broad jump and javelin. Our most glaring weaknesses are in the high hurdles and pole vault where we have two promising but inexperienced performers."

In proving his point Childs mentions Jon Abraham who has already set PSC marks in the 100 and 220-yard dashes and he is backed up by Gene Hedrick and Stan Miller, top 440 - yard stars. Jay Hill and Lance Newman will handle the 880 and both are rated high in the Northwest. Newman is also strong in the mile.

Among the OCC champions on the PSC roster are Lee Lukens, three-time king of the conference milers; Stan Sposito in the broad jump; Terry Kramer in the javelin, and Lee Clark, the defending shot-put king.

Little Tom Lee has a 6-4 high jump to his credit earlier this season. The PSC relay squad is made up of Newman, Hedrick, Abraham and Miller. Competition in all events is strong among the Vikings.

Palmberg designated L. T. Tennerson, Leon Wilson and Al Everson to go for the Owls in the 100; Tennerson and Wilson in the 220; Wendell Winterbottom, Paul Layher, Bud Maupin and Norm Sawyer in the 440; Keith Hockman in the half-mile; Everson, Mike Dillon and Layher in the shot-put; Tennerson, Larry Dixon and Howie Jackson in the broad jump; Winterbottom and Dixon in the low hurdles; Bill Hansen and Norm Johns in the highs; Don Anderson and Jackson in the javelin; Harry Nelsen and Hansen in the pole vault; Johns, Jerry Montgomery and Mike Martin in the discus; Charles Palmer and Larry Brown in the two-mile event; Hansen, Anderson and Dillon in the high jump.

Winterbottom will handle the first lap in the 880-yard relay, followed in order by Maupin, Wilson and anchor man Sawyer.

Title Go Set June 20th

NEW YORK (AP)—After nine months of quarrels and investigations, claims and counterclaims, champion Ingemar Johansson and Floyd Patterson have signed for a heavyweight title rematch in New York June 20.

Simultaneously with the signing was announcement that the high bid of TelePrompter, Inc., of $700,000 for the closed-circuit television, radio and motion picture rights had been accepted by Feature Sports, Inc., promoter of the fight. The fight will be carried on closed-circuit TV only.

KU Cinderburners, Grizzlies To Clash

"At the close of the Hayward Relays I would have said we could handle the Ashland track team, but now I'm not so sure," said Klamath Union track coach Jim Inglesby as his squad prepared to host the Grizzlies in a dual meet on Modoc Field tomorrow afternoon.

Inglesby went on, "The cold weather in the past two weeks has put us back to about where we were at the first of the season."

The two-way Southern Oregon Conference struggle begins with the field events at 1 p.m. Saturday followed by the start of the track events at 1:30. The freshmen teams from both schools will hold a meet of their own in conjunction with the varsity test.

Bitter cold winds this week have kept the Pelican cinderburners from finishing the normal pre-meet time trials. Inglesby hoped to wind them up this afternoon.

Statistically the Ashlanders figure to have the edge in the track events but the Whitebirds should come back strong in the field work.

Positions already decided find the following Pelicans set to perform: 100—Dave Stippich, Norm Holliday, Charles Richey and Ron Olvera; 220 — Stippich, Lowery, Jim Parks and Richey; 440 — John Rueger, Paul Bellm and Bill Albers; 880 — Eric Peterson, Jim Kuhn, Bill Sproat, Jack Mitchell and John Lewis; Mile—Sproat, Mitchell, Dean Metcalf; Low Hurdles — Dale Stites, Ken Lewis, Fred Stilwell; High Hurdles — Bill Santo, Stites; High Jump — Bob Lewis, Dana Ash, Allan Phillips; Broad Jump—Undecided; Shot-put — Santo, Les Husted, Gary Hancock; Discus—Hancock, Stiles; Javelin — Phillips, Dave Bruns, Bob Dearing; Pole Vault — Dearing, Olvera; 880 Relay — Stippich, Parks, Sanot (fourth place undecided).
