JONES, Dugan-Mest Chevrolet, has been designated as one of Chevrolet's top-ranking retail parts and accessories sales managers in the nation and the leading man in that field for his section of the country during the past year. In recognition of that achievement, he is congratulated here by I. W. Thompson, left, Chevrolet assistant general sales manager for parts and accessories. The occasion was a recent three-day meeting at Detroit.

Bid Received On Pilings

Pope and Talbott Inc. of St. Helens was low bidder on 90 Douglas fir, creosoted bridge pilings ordered by the County Road Department.

DECIDES QUESTION

TETTENHALL, England (UPI)—While Howard Jeffries sat in his dining room Monday pondering what to have for dinner the question was decided for him. He cooked and ate the wild pheasant that crashed through the window.

County Engineer Jack Kalinoski said Pope and Talbott submitted a bid of $2,989 to provide pilings of 20, 25 and 30 foot lengths. The pilings will be used on county road bridges this summer. Other bidders were McCormick and Baxter of Portland, $3,092; J. H. Baxter of Portland, $3,150; and Niedermeyer-Martin of Portland, $3,176.
