

SOCIETY

Herald and News, Klamath Falls, Ore. April 24, 1960

MR. AND MRS. JOHN FRANKLIN DODSON JR.
— Photo by Bob Anderson, Guderian Studio

Mary Lou Engelcke Easter Sunday Bride

Easter Sunday, April 17, was the date chosen by Mary Lou Engelcke for her marriage to John Franklin Dodson Jr. of Hayward in St. Paul's Episcopal Church. Baskets of lilies and lighted tapers were the appropriate setting for the four o'clock nuptials read by the Rev. Robert L. Greene and witnessed by 150 guests.

The bride, daughter of Dr. Raymond H. Engelcke and the late Mrs. Engelcke, was escorted to the altar by her father. She was lovely in a floor length gown of hand clipped Chantilly lace over satin and tulle. The fitted bodice was made with Sabrina neckline and long pointed sleeves. A tiny lace princess crown with inner circle of pearls held the fingertip veil of English silk illusion. She carried a bouquet of white Croft lilies.

Orchid chiffon and taffeta frocks, fashioned with full skirts, short capped sleeves and wide draped cummerbunds, were worn by the bridal attendants. Their hats were matching chiffon flower petals with pearl drop and handkerchief veils. Matron of honor, Mrs. Jay Montgomery, carried a nosegay of sterling silver roses with white carnations. Bridesmaids Mrs. Jim Holland and Mrs. Jim White carried white roses and orchid carnations. Flower girl Debbie Hiebert of Redding, the bridegroom's niece, wore an orchid and white dress and carried a basket of orchid and white sweet peas.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Dodson Sr. of Redding. He was attended by Ronald G. Carpenter as best man. Ushers were his brother-in-law, Delbert Hiebert of Redding, and James R. Austin.

Steven Farrell was organist and Gail Nersteth, soloist.

Mrs. John Dodson Sr. chose for the occasion a lavender linen suit, matching hat and beige accessories. Her corsage was of white roses.

A reception at the home of the bride's father, 1026 Pacific Terrace, followed the ceremony. A beautiful wedding cake encircled with elf roses and fern centered the bride's table. Orchid and white packets of rice were given to each guest. Assisting were Mrs. Jule Stoecklein, Mrs. Martin Clark, Mrs. Glenn Dehlinger, Mrs. Delbert Hiebert and Mrs. Keith Sexton.

For traveling the new Mrs. Dodson changed to a blue and white flower print sheath dress with white accessories. A gardenia corsage was pinned at the shoulder of her light blue duster. She is a graduate of Klamath Union High School and attended Oregon State College and the University of Portland.

Her husband, a graduate of Shasta High School, attended Air Route Traffic Control Specialist School in Oklahoma City. He is employed by the Federal Aviation Administration in Oakland. They will make their home in Hayward.

JOANNE BOGATAY
— Photo by Fahly Studio, Eugene

MR. AND MRS. EARL KENT
— Photo by Guderian

Kent-Cameron Vows Exchanged On April 16

In a simple, impressive ceremony Saturday, April 16, Betty Cameron became the bride of Earl Kent in the First Methodist Church. The two o'clock double ring service was read by the Rev. Dallas McNeil before a background of Easter lilies and white carnations.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Smith of Eureka and former residents of Klamath Falls, was given in marriage by her father.

The bridegroom is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Glen Kent, who were pioneer residents of this city.

For her wedding the bride chose a navy blue suit worn with a white hat and white accessories. She carried an arrangement of white orchids.

Matron of honor, the bride's cousin, Mrs. James Stillwell, wore a beige suit dress with matching hat and an orchid corsage.

Robert Kent was best man for his brother. Organ selections were played by Mrs. Leland Agonbrod.

Following the church service a reception was held at the James Stilwell home on Etne Street. The wedding cake was served by the bridegroom's sister-in-law, Mrs. Robert Kent. His sister, Mrs. Robert C. Winters Jr., presided at the coffee service. Assisting was Terry Stillwell.

The newlyweds will reside at 1945 Leroy Street after a short honeymoon in the south.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Winters Jr. of Kentfield, Mr. and Mrs. Don Ellington of Baker and Mr. and Mrs. Wesley McNeel of Portland.

A JAPANESE PARASOL shaded a centerpiece of daffodils and grape hyacinths on the tea table at the Monday meeting of the Klamath Falls Womens Library Club. The affair honored Mrs. Walter Brown, state president of the Oregon Federation of Womens Clubs. She is pictured at center with Mrs. Clay M. Lee of Medford, left, president of District I, and Mrs. Frank B. Kelo, right, Klamath Falls club president.

— Photo by Kettler

A FORMAL BALL last Saturday evening honored the new exalted ruler of the Klamath Falls Elks lodge, Jay Lemire. He and Mrs. Lemire are shown at left with outgoing ruler George Flitcraft and Mrs. Flitcraft during the social hour for incoming and retiring officers preceding the dance.

DURING the evening John Schubert, center, chairman of the Elks inaugural ball, was photographed with Mrs. James Noel, a committee member, and Frank Peyton.

— Elks Photos by Guderian

A LONG RECORD of 26 years as organist for the lodge is held by W. R. (Baldy) Evans, who with Mrs. Evans chats with Roy Ruge, left, and Vern Moore at the inaugural ball on Saturday.