

SEVERAL SCHOOL - DAY FRIENDS gathered for lunch at the Pelican Cafe on Thursday to honor Mrs. Hugh Colopy (Lydia von Bartheldorf) of Akron, Ohio, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard von Bartheldorf, at Trails End Ranch in Swan Lake Valley. Mrs. Colopy, wife of an Akron attorney and mother of two sons, is a talented pianist and prominent in Ohio musical groups. Pictured left to right, Mrs. Ethel Carlson Goeller, Mrs. Colopy, Mrs. Joy Evans Rolph and Mrs. Norma Dooze Uerlings.

ALSO PRESENT at the luncheon Thursday in honor of Mrs. Hugh Colopy of Akron, Ohio, were, left to right, Mrs. Ailsa Massey Kuykendall, Mrs. Marie Crystal Reeves, Mrs. Ruth Cofer Barrie and Mrs. Venice Moore Dryden. —Photo by Kettler

Royal Matron Is Honored

YREKA — Royal Matron Ella Manning of the Siskiyou Court No. 100, Order of Amaranth, was specially honored during the last regular meeting of the organization on Friday, April 8, with the royal matron and Charles Orr, acting patron, presiding.

When the royal matron entered the lodge room with her staff of officers, she was surprised by the presence of Job's Daughters who escorted her to the east and presented her with a corsage. A cross was formed before the altar by the girls, who then sang a song. They then retired accompanied by their leader, Mrs. Kathryn Morford.

Large baskets of pink and white spring blossoms decorated the lodge room. The same decorations prevailed in the banquet room where the group gathered after the regular session. The royal matron was presented with gifts from her officers of the past year.

Rainbow Girls Meet In Malin

MALIN — The Malin Rainbow Assembly met Monday evening, April 11, at the Malin Masonic Hall with Worthy Adviser Marcia Kenyon presiding.

Plans were made for the official visit of Mrs. Hazel Graham, supreme deputy of Oregon, who will be in Klamath Falls on Monday evening, April 25, to meet with the Rainbow Assemblies from Chiloquin, Klamath Falls and Malin. Mrs. Frances Kalina, past mother adviser and Mrs. Virginia Blohm, mother adviser, will accompany the Malin girls to the special visitation.

The group decided to have its annual graduation dance on Friday evening, May 27, following the Malin High School graduation. Committees were appointed to hire an orchestra and to plan a theme for the dance. General chairman is Donna Lee Mlicka. All members of Malin's graduating class will be given complimentary tickets to the dance.

The worthy adviser announced that Emil Toffel will make the cedar chest which will be filled with linens and given away the night of the dance. Dance tickets and cedar chest tickets may be obtained from any Rainbow member.

Mrs. Kalina made two surprise announcements. Susan Whitman has been named grand choir member for the Grand Assembly of Oregon, and Phyllis Unruh has been named recipient of the Grand Cross of Colors award. They will receive the honors at Grand Assembly to be held in Hillsboro in June.

EASTER VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Schubert and their young son, Drew, were Easter week guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Schubert. The family left Sunday for their home in Eureka where he will be graduated this June from Humboldt State College in physical education.

Marge Banks of Vancouver, British Columbia, arrived by air Thursday of Easter week for a short weekend visit with her nieces, Mrs. Fred Coles and Mrs. Jack Prock. She was a guest at the Coles' home during her stay.

Offices Filled By Auxiliary

YREKA — During the recent meeting of the Siskiyou Ladies Encampment Auxiliary No. 15 and Siskiyou Encampment No. 15, Mrs. Winifred Kirkpatrick was elected treasurer and Mrs. Sylvia Thomason was named as publicity chairman.

The meeting held April 5 in the Odd Fellows Hall in Yreka was conducted by Mrs. Beatrice Sorth, chief matriarch.

It was announced by Mrs. Helen Hitchcock, scribe, that new bylaw books, including the 1959 supplement, are now available.

It was reported that the LEA of Redlands, California, will confer the degree on initiates, and if any auxiliary has any candidates they are welcome to attend and have the degree conferred on them.

An invitation was extended to the members by Mrs. Ruth Hammond, past grand matriarch, for the spring party at the Fort Jones Auxiliary meeting April 22. It was the official visit of Mrs. Matilda Sypos, grand matriarch of the state of California. A school of instruction will be conducted by Mrs. Nilda Cadola, district deputy grand matriarch of Scott Valley Ladies Auxiliary No. 30.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hammond will be in charge of serving refreshments at the organization's next regular meeting May 3 in the Odd Fellows Hall at 8 p.m.

Following the meeting members adjourned to the dining room for refreshments served by Mrs. Shellie Hallmark and Mrs. Sylvia Thomason.

LOOKING CHIC

Looking chic if you travel a great deal isn't easy. But it helps if you keep clothes simple, take enough accessories to allow frequent changes and are careful about having shoes polished several times a week.

Auxiliaries Attend Meeting

YREKA—Eight auxiliary units of the American Legion of District 2 were represented at the annual meeting and banquet held at the Yreka Inn on Saturday, April 9. Past presidents of the auxiliaries of the district were honored.

During the brief business session it was voted to contribute money to the nurses' scholarship fund. Mrs. Sylvia Schorn, past department president, gave a short talk, as did Mrs. Lillian Elder of Enterprise, district president.

The meeting was conducted by Mrs. Helen Sherman, chairman of the past presidents' parley.

Large paper hats filled with flowers and miniature hats filled with candy at each place setting were the decorations. Following the meeting the group enjoyed singing, with Mrs. Ruth Krider accompanying at the piano.

Mrs. Ruth Hurley gave a humorous skit on the trials and troubles of a young soldier.

The Shasta Dam unit participated in the program with a play entitled "How an Auxiliary Meeting Should Not be Conducted."

The Yreka unit, represented by Mrs. Helen Sherman and Mrs. Geneva Thomas, presented a mock television show.

An Easter parade concluded the entertainment with each member modeling a hat she had created. Winning prizes were Mrs. Pearl Lynch of the Shasta Dam unit, Mrs. Rose Taylor of the same group and Mrs. Kenneth Green of Weed.

FOR YOUR WEDDING

- ANNOUNCEMENTS
- INVITATIONS
- NAPKINS
- FAYERS
- BRIDE'S BOOKS
- BIBLES

Let Us Help You!!

JONES' OFFICE SUPPLY

629 Main TU 3-4408

Master Point Winners Named

Winning full master points at the April 19 Tuesday morning master point play were North-South players, Mrs. Leona Robertson and Mrs. Roy Carter. East-West winners were Mrs. George Dugan and Mrs. Bob Cheyne.

Other North - South winners were Mrs. W. L. Bullard and Mrs. Raymond Reeves, second; Mrs. Frank Tarr and Mrs. Warren Bennet, third; and Mrs. Claude Davis and Mrs. F. Cecil Adams, fourth.

East-West second place winners were Mrs. Claudine Van Buskirk and Mrs. E. B. Brosterhouse; third, Mrs. David Vandenberg Jr. and Mrs. Walter Richtz; fourth, Mrs. Robert Chilcote and Mrs. Ted Hyde.

The next play will be May 3 starting at 10:15 a.m. Players are reminded to bring a sack lunch.

According to Mrs. Ted Hyde, director, extra points will be awarded to individual winners in the spring series event on the basis of the best four out of six times played during the month of March through May.

SOJOURNERS

Mrs. Calvin Shaw, president, conducted a short business meeting at the regular luncheon of Sojourners April 13 in the Pine Grove Room of the Willard Hotel.

First time guests attending were Mrs. R. E. Tesch, Mrs. J. O. Anderson and Mrs. F. L. Hales. Second time guests were Mrs. A. E. Abis, Mrs. Earl Nash, Mrs. Jack Kalinoski and Mrs. Frank Nelson. Mrs. Clifford McGinty and Mrs. F. Muzik were third time visitors.

An afternoon of cards followed and high score prize at bridge was awarded to Mrs. Lee Holli-day and second high to Mrs. Delbert Blake. Mrs. Don Ritzel won high score at canasta and Mrs. Juanita Anderson at pinocle.

The next regular meeting will be April 27. All newcomers are welcome and may secure information from Mrs. Eugene Jackson at TU 4-7658.

Rebekah Lodge

McCLOUD—Mrs. Addie Mason, noble grand, presided at the April meeting of the Shasta Lily Rebekah Lodge in McCloud.

Sixteen members enjoyed the quarterly birthday party and a visit from Mrs. Marguerite Overmyer, a former resident of McCloud and member of the local lodge, now living in Yuba City.

Refreshments were served after the meeting by Helen Hegre, Dorothy Powell, Daisy Diggins, Clifford Kernohan and Alice Whan who also were in charge of decorations, which were in the Easter theme. For the table a large square cake made by Mrs. Hegre was used.

Entertainment followed the meeting with prizes going to Mrs. Zeldia DeSoza and Mrs. Overmyer for the most unusual hat. Mrs. Violet Zanni won first and Mrs. DeSoza low in another contest.

Legion Women Plan Projects

MERRILL — The American Legion Auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. Delia Hodges April 12. It was decided to send two dollars for the Leonard Wood Memorial.

Mrs. Thelma Stukel, chairman of the Poppy Day sales, reported the poppies will be sold in Merrill May 20 and 21. Five members volunteered to help with the tuberculosis X-ray unit, to be in Merrill May 11.

The members worked on handkerchiefs to be sent to the Roseburg Hospital. All members are asked to bring two dozen cookies to the May 10 meeting to send to the hospital for a party.

FREE

QUART OF OIL COUPONS

In April Issue of Reader's Digest

Redeemed Here

Read about this "Free Quart" of Quaker State Motor Oil offer on page 221 in the April "Reader's Digest."

Bring your "Free Quart" Coupon to Any Service Outlet Where Quaker State Products are Sold!

Distributed by Specialized Service Co. Ph. TU 4-5103

MR. AND MRS. JOHN E. JEFFRIES of Eugene, former residents of Klamath Falls, announce the engagement of their daughter, Kathleen (Kathy) Jeffries, to William L. Awbrey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd C. Awbrey of Jasper, Oregon. The bride-to-be attended Klamath Falls grade and high schools and graduated from South Eugene High School in 1959. She is now attending Oregon Technical Institute, training as a dental assistant. She is a member of OTI rally squad. Her fiancé served with the armed forces after he was graduated from Pleasant Hill High School. He is also a student at OTI, majoring in electronics. The wedding is planned for late July.

OSC Sets Dates To Fete Mothers

Mothers Weekend, traditional highlight of spring term at Oregon State College, has been scheduled for April 29 and 30 with some 1800 mothers expected to come to the campus for the special program.

Weekend events will include a style show presented by the school of home economics, a water-paint, flower show and performances of the musical "Kismet."

and the annual inter-fraternity sing competition. Also planned are dinner and firesides in the living groups, student talent show, ROTC drill competition and a crew race and baseball games.

Mothers will have an opportunity to attend classes with their sons and daughters on Friday and Saturday morning.

The Mothers Club will also announce recipients of its full tuition scholarships during the weekend. This year the Mothers Club provided 21 full tuition scholarships. Money is raised through special projects conducted by clubs in various communities of the state.

The Klamath Falls Mothers Club, under the direction of Mrs. Hugh Swaney, president, contributes to this project.

Klamath Falls women active in the state club include Mrs. Phil Schroeder, state vice president; Mrs. Robert Thompson, district representative; and Mrs. H. O. Juckeland, membership committee chairman.

SURPRISE PARTY

MERRILL—A surprise birthday party was given for Wayne (Bing) Hile, formerly of Merrill, at the home of Mrs. Melvin Rodgers of Merrill April 5. Those attending the party were Larry Rodgers, Ronnie Green, Linda Green, John Chatham, Coleen Crockett, Shelia Hedrick, Janice Hedrick, Carol Rarnell, Dennis Barry and Charlean McMenamy. Bing is living with Mr. and Mrs. Don McGhiey of Klamath Falls.

KEEP COOL

Frozen food can be kept cold while the refrigerator is being defrosted if it is placed in insulated bags. For this purpose, save bags that keep ice cream from melting.

Club Honors Past Presidents

Past presidents of the Klamath Falls Lions Club Auxiliary were honored at the April 11 meeting of the group at the home of Mrs. Estin Kiger. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Ray Ward, Mrs. Hal Shidder and Mrs. Ed Hickman.

Those present to receive a gift from the auxiliary in recognition of their year as president were Mrs. Vern Moore, Mrs. Ann Mason, Mrs. Clarence Humble, Mrs. Morgan Johnson, Mrs. Harlan Dexter and Mrs. Estin Kiger.

Unable to be present were Mrs. Gene Hooker, Mrs. Winston Purvine, Mrs. Ed Robinson, Mrs. Everett Miner, Mrs. Irving Burke and Mrs. John Schubert. They will be honored at the June meeting which will be at the home of Mrs. Vern Moore.

Mrs. Wayne Newton, Mrs. C. W. Davis and Mrs. Robert Garrison were initiated into the auxiliary in a ceremony conducted by Mrs. Walter Franklin assisted by Mrs. Harlan Dexter.

Appointed to the nominating committee were Mrs. John Schubert, chairman, Mrs. Estin Kiger and Mrs. Irving Burke.

The institute for the parents of visually handicapped children will be held from April 27 through May 11 at Salem.

A motion was made to send $100 to the Oregon School for the Deaf at Salem. This is one of the auxiliary projects in addition to participation in the statewide eye conservation program and the institute for parents.

COLLEGE NEWS

Michael T. Propst and Ronald W. Robertson, both sophomore students from Klamath Falls, are members of the Oregon State College Army ROTC drill team that has won top honors in the Northwest section of the country.

The OSC drill unit defeated four other teams at Seattle in the finals of regional drill team competition. Members of the team are picked for outstanding performance in ROTC work.

Stan Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Miller of Malin, was listed on the honor roll for winter term at the University of Oregon where he is a senior. He was recently awarded the plaque given annually to the outstanding student in the field of business education.

Forty four freshmen students have been elected to Alpha Lambda Delta and Phi Eta Sigma, scholastic honoraries of the first year class at the University of Oregon. For election to the honoraries the students must maintain a 3.5 grade point average for the first two terms of their freshman year.

A Klamath Falls coed, Rebecca Short, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Short, was elected to Alpha Lambda Delta and first year man, Wendell Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell A. Smith, was elected to Phi Eta Sigma.

KEEP PIANO KEYS WHITE

Piano keys should be left uncovered a part of the time. They will yellow without some light. Plastic piano keys should be cleaned by rubbing with a damp cloth. Water yellows ivory keys, so clean them with a clean flannel cloth dampened with wood or denatured alcohol.

MR. AND MRS. HAROLD R. BURRITT announce the engagement of their daughter, Carol Ann, to Francis Zuppan of Martinez, California. The future bride is a graduate of Sacred Heart Academy and Arizona State College at Flagstaff. She is presently a member of the teaching staff in the Martinez schools. The wedding date is set for August 14.

Dinner Party Honors Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. Victor O'Neill were dinner hosts at their home, 1954 Portland Street, on April 18 in honor of Lieutenant Colonel and Mrs. R. B. Sturman of Fort Benjamin Harrison in Indianapolis.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. John A. Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. William F. Marshall, Anne and Barbara Marshall.

Mrs. Sturman is a sister of John and William Marshall.

Paris shows ear clips matched exactly to the buttons of your spring suit or coat.

VISITS ON CAMPUS

Mrs. L. Lewis Kandra of Merrill, attended the annual Parents' Weekend at Lewis and Clark College in Portland this weekend. Events scheduled for the visitors included a fashion show, a faculty symposium on the college's academic life and open houses in the dormitories and meals with the students. Mrs. Kandra's daughter, Lou Ann, is a junior secretarial science major.

PARIS BLOUSES

Blouses, as shown in Paris, are made of pure silk, heavy lace or printed cottons. They are worn over, rather than tucked into, skirts.

Special Purchase!

Aurora Borealis Gleaming Crystals

Come see our fairy-land of treasures that capture blazing excitement! Bewitch your costume with glorious necklaces . . . bracelets, earrings . . . a-glow with beautiful magic!

Specially Priced at

3⁹⁸ TO 9⁹⁸

plus tax

"the best place to shop . . . after all"

We give your clothes Stā-Nu!

Extra Quality...
No Extra Cost!

advertised in Vogue, Esquire

Cascade & Men's Hand Laundry and Dry Cleaners

Ph. 4-5111 or 2-2531

Opp. Post Office and 11th and Klamath