Grand Officers Are Installed

YREKA—Highlight of the recent meeting of Siskiyou Court No. 11, Order of the Amaranth, was the installation of appointed grand officers, with Ella Manning, royal matron, and Charles Orr, acting royal patron, presiding.

Grand Royal Patron Otis Truex of Tarzana was present to install the appointed grand officers as follows: Mildred Gilbert, district deputy grand royal matron, and Mary Hebard, assistant grand lecturer of the Order of Amaranth, State of California.

Other officers appointed to fill the following stations for installation were Gladys Feustal, grand musician; Hazel Rohrer, grand secretary, and Lee Morford, grand prelate.

Also during the March 25 meeting, the officers to serve the Siskiyou court for the coming year were elected, with Florence Marliave chosen as royal matron, and Gerald (Jerry) Hopkins as royal patron.

Other new officers elected were Jeanne Gray, associate matron; Herman Gray, associate patron; Esther Gray, treasurer; Hazel Rohrer, secretary; Ethel Gavin, conductress; LaVerna Hopkins, associate conductress; Ruby Johnson, two year trustee; Clyde Hebard, three year trustee.

The date for installation has been set for April 23.

During the evening, Grand Royal Patron Truex gave an inspiring talk on the teachings of the order and spoke of the beauty of Siskiyou County, especially Mt. Shasta.

Florence Marliave, who recently attended grand court, gave a report on her trip and some of the highlights of the session.

Following the meeting members and guests retired to the banquet room for a social hour. The room was decorated with vases of spring blossoms. Later the flowers were presented by the royal matron to the lady officers who had served with her during the year.

BUY THE BEST

A sound rule of fashion always is to buy the very best you can afford. Don't succumb to bargains or markdowns just for the sake of a bargain. Quality counts, both with yourself and with others.

CHECK LAMPS

Checked your lamps lately? Cord coverings tend to deteriorate over the years. If insulation is cracked, checked, or split, have associate conductress; Ruby Johnson.

These lamps rewired at once.

Haz-Bins

The Haz-Bins met recently at the home of Betty Ketsdever, 1028 Jefferson Street, with eight members and one guest present.

After a short business meeting pinocle was played. High score was won by Sarah Kirby, second by Louise Davis and low by Mary Wells. Guest prize was given to Lola Truax.

The 300 pinocle prize was won by Sarah Kirby and Stella Percell.

The next meeting will be at the home of Sarah Kirby, 749 North Ninth Street, April 23 at 7:30 p.m.

TRAVEL TIP

If you're one of the many Americans making a first trip to Europe this spring, remember that European heating is not like ours. Even in spring, you'll need warm clothes and, certainly, a couple of wool cardigans.

Let your first hat of spring be a shiny black straw, one that will look well with your winter coat.

Faculty Wives Have Style Show

The annual Faculty Wives Club spring style show was an event of April 5 in the Pine Grove Room of the Willard Hotel.

Approximately 70 guests attended the dinner and saw the latest fashions presented by Bon Bazaar. Nellie Angstead was the commentator.

Incidental music was played by Mrs. Anita Campbell at the piano for the parade of models who were Patricia, Brenda and Ann Marie Williams, Christy Casteel, Bruce Johnson, Barbara McKinney, Judy Angstead, Sherry Keck, Margaret Stroke, Marilyn Johnson, Marsha Nickols, Toni Balogh, Helen Williams, Bobbie Adams and Joan Herling.

"Around the World in Fashion" theme was carried out with posters, souvenirs and different articles of dress from various countries. Table decorations were United Nations flags and a beautiful centerpiece of spring flowers donated by Bill and Rita's. Stereophonic music was played during the dinner hour.

The entertainment included three numbers. Aida Zurita presented a Spanish dance, accompanied at the piano by Carol Baker. Gail Campbell, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Anita Campbell, sang and Harriet Fitzgerald danced the hula.

Carol Casteel, a new resident of the city, headed the committee which each year is comprised of new members of the group. She was assisted by Harriet Fitzgerald as co-chairman and Norma Davis, Marsha Nickols, Shirl McKinney, Helen Williams, Joan Herbig, Agnes Keck, Vi Tidwell, Jean Dody and Carolyn Manown.

Womens Club Is Entertained

BONANZA—Mrs. Fred Rueck, Mrs. Bill Burnett, Mrs. Birdie Burk, Mrs. Howard Schmidt and Mrs. Les Leavitt gave an Easter party for members and guests of the Bonanza Women's Club at the library the evening of April 14.

Marla Burnett made a decoration of roses and Easter eggs for the refreshment table and spring flowers and pussy willows were used around the room. Mrs. Schmidt decorated a cake which was given as a special prize to Ida Rowcliffe.

As the guests came in they were given eggs to decorate. A prize for this went to Dorothy Stevens. Judges were Birdie Burk, Lillian Becholdt and Madeline Ketchum.

Florence McCartie, Madeline Ketchum, Velda Haley, Dortha Stevens, Jackie Morley, Jo Givans, and Janet Fernlund won prizes for games during the afternoon.

Refreshments were served to 28 ladies by the hostesses.

IDEAS CHANGE

Travel notions have changed in the jet age. Women who used to wear slacks for air travel now are partisans of the wool knit dress. There's nothing like it for emerging from a plane serene and unrumpled.

WISE PRECAUTION

It's wise precaution to shampoo your hair immediately after a shopping expedition during which you've tried on hats that others have tried on before you.

MANZANITA OES

A stated meeting of Manzanita Chapter No. 172 OES was held in the Scottish Rite Temple April 13. Nina Hall, worthy matron, and William Steiner, worthy patron, presided.

Wilbur Harnsberger, worthy patron of Aloha Chapter, was introduced and escorted to the east.

Verda and Harry Scribner affiliated with Manzanita Chapter from Silverwave Chapter.

The ceremony of initiation was conferred on six candidates.

April 27 will be Friendship Night and at this time new officers' chairs will be dedicated.

Refreshments were served in the dining room. The tables were attractively decorated in the Easter theme. Chairman for the evening was Helen McCormack assisted by Mina Hoff, Dora Austin, Lillian Webb and Clella McDonald.

Bonanza Club

BONANZA—The Bonanza Women's Club met at the library with Veta Williams in charge.

It was voted to help with civil defense and five members attended a meeting in Klamath Falls on April 16.

Madeline Ketchum reported on the meeting of the library board she and Velda Haley and Margaret Anne Whitlatch attended in Klamath Falls.

Noma Becholdt, Velda Haley and Cora Leavitt were appointed to the nominating committee. The next meeting will be on May 3. Betty Pepple and Mildred Kelson will be hostesses.

Refreshments were served by hostesses Ida Casebeer and Ida Wu to Florence Horn, Ida Rowcliffe, Veta Williams, Annie Cline, Cora Leavitt, Birdie Burk, Noma Becholdt, Margaret Burnett and Madeline Ketchum.

PRETTY SPRING COLOR

Pale green is a pretty spring color. Try it in a cashmere cardigan, matching pullover and pleated skirt. This is the trio that creates the typical American look.
