

Young-Conner Vows Read In Merrill Church

MERRILL — Before a background of candelabra and baskets of white stock and pink carnations, Donna Rae Conner and Vernon Melvin Young were united in marriage Saturday evening, March 26, in the Merrill Presbyterian Church.

The impressive 8 o'clock double ring ceremony was read by the Rev. Lloyd Henderson in the presence of 200 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Conner of Merrill, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Young of Klamath Falls.

Escorted by her father, who gave her in marriage, the bride was charming in a waltz-length gown of ivory satin and lace, made by her mother, with a boat neck and long tapered sleeves trimmed with lace. The same lace extended from the waistline to the bottom of the dress with two bands of lace around the skirt of the gown. The headpiece, covered with net and a lace-trimmed fingertip veil and she carried a white Bible with stephanotis and mock orange blossoms centered with a pink rosebud corsage tied with long white streamers. The bride wore pearls given to her by the bridegroom.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Frank Testerman of Redding, sister of the bride. Serving as bridesmaids were Rae Dean Marks of Klamath Falls and Mary Breeden of Merrill.

The matron of honor wore a waltz-length dress of two shades of pink. The scoop neckline and the skirt were trimmed in a white edging. She carried a nosegay of pink carnations on a background of blue net. The bridesmaids wore identical dresses in two shades of blue with the same detailing as the matron of honor. They carried pink carnation nosegays. All the attendants wore white feather headbands, white shoes and gloves.

Best man was Dennis Tonelli of Klamath Falls. Seating guests were Eddie Coble and Keith Cooper, both of Klamath Falls.

Larry Conner, brother of the bride, and Chuck Cahoon served as candlelighters.

Mrs. Jerome Groeneveld played the traditional wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Delmer Haskins and James Chance while they sang "Hawaiian Wedding Song." Mrs. Haskins also sang, "Wedding Prayer."

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Conner chose a two-piece blue afternoon dress with white accessories. She wore a pink rosebud corsage. Mrs. Young wore a pink lace over satin dress with a matching lace jacket and white accessories and a white rosebud corsage.

The reception was held in the church parlor. Mrs. Dale McCulloch, sister of the bride, attended the guest book. Margaret Qualls was seated at the gift table. Mrs. Wilbur Haskins, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Paul Hess, aunt of the bridegroom, served the cake, beautifully decorated by Mrs. Luther Rippy. Mrs. Wilby Conner, aunt of the bride, served coffee and Mrs. Lee Haskins, the bride's cousin, served punch. Mary McCulloch helped the wedding party with their corsages.

For their honeymoon trip to the coast the bride wore a two-piece beige dress with bone accessories.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Clyde Duroy, Montrose, Colorado, grandmother of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Testerman and sons of Redding, and Mr. and Mrs. Dale McCulloch and Tracy of Santa Rosa.

A shower was given February 26 by Rae Dean Marks, Mary McCulloch, Claudia Heaton, Margaret Qualls, Glenda Story and Mary Breeden, all high school friends. Another get-acquainted shower was given March 14 by relatives of the bridegroom at the Klamath Falls Community Lounge. Hostesses were Mrs. Paul Hess, Mrs. Ed Gifford and Mrs. Ralph Cummings.

Remember when people look at you they see not only your face, but all of you. That is why your hair, skin, hands, body, feet or the "entire you" must be right to be beautiful.

To look beautiful you must think that you are and that you look well, for the best groomed woman in the room will not stand out if she is slumped over and has a self-conscious look on her face.

Study yourself and know how your hair must be dressed to set off your face to its best advantage. Know the condition of your skin and the creams or lotions you need to keep it looking fresh. Consult your beautician about how to bring out your best qualities and how to hide your bad features. Then, stand proud and, most of all, remember to smile.
