CAROL ALBERT

2nd Entry Seeks Title

The second entry in the Klamath County Dairy Princess, 19-year-old Carol Albert, signed up this week.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Albert of Bonanza. She is a senior in the Bonanza High School this year and plans to enter business college this fall. Her 4-H Club work has covered a four-year period.

The Alberts have operated a dairy farm near Bonanza for the last 10 years. Two years ago, their Holstein dairy had the distinction of being the smallest among members of the Klamath Basin Grade A Milk Producers Association and at the same time having the highest butterfat production rate.

Their daughter Carol is next to oldest of five children. She has an older and younger brother and two younger sisters.

The Oregon Dairy Princess contest is open to any single girl between the ages of 16 and 25 who has a dairying background.

The first entry in the Klamath County contest was Ruth Born, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Born.

BASIN BRIEFS

Women's Civil Defense Committee of Klamath County will meet in the recreation room of the suburban fire station, 2342 Gettle Street, Tuesday, April 26, at 2 p.m.

Quartz Valley 4-H Club is sponsoring a square and popular dance Friday, April 29, from 8 p.m. to midnight at the American Legion Hall in Greenview.

PROP WASH
 By HAROLD G. JONES
 Klamath Airport Manager
 Props are whirling at the airport and with better weather: transient aviation is increasing and the line of planes become longer.

A group of Klamath Falls Chapter Oregon Pilots, headed by OP State President Ned Putnam, went up to Madras last week to meet with a group of central Oregon pilots. Ned Putnam took a group of businessmen to San Francisco this week. Weyerhaeuser has a new Aero Commander coming into Kingsley Field regularly. Leo Purington of Montague and party dined at the Satellite Restaurant recently. Les Liston, victim of an accident at Hermiston is recuperating at his home with a broken leg.

H. O. "Juck" Juckeland and Don Der Miner, co-chairmen for Aviation Week, are meeting regularly for planning of the third Aviation Week program, May 16 through May 22 in cooperation with Armed Forces Days, May 21-22. A nationally known speaker has been invited for the annual banquet at the Willard Hotel, the night of May 21. Several new events are planned this year. Some service clubs plan to hold luncheons at the field during Aviation Week. Air Force officials will meet with the committee from this point to plan for Air Force participation. Rusty Rustad, district sales manager of West Coast Airlines, has been in Klamath Falls calling on businessmen and entering into plans for the week.

Tony Steinbock has announced plans for two big "Piperama Days," Saturday and Sunday, April 23-24. A group of pilots will take an air tour Saturday and Sunday, April 30 and May 1, to Wenatchee for the Apple Blossom Festival and to Yakima where State President Putnam will address a group interested in starting a pilots organization in the state of Washington. The party will attend the Ice Follies in Seattle before returning to Klamath Falls Sunday.

Pan American Airlines notified the airport manager's office that a Boeing Stratocruiser would be in Klamath Falls this week on a charter flight. This airport is one of the few in the state that can handle the big ships without trouble.

Blacktapping is under way around the terminal building and those visiting the airport are asked to park elsewhere for the present.

Flying businessmen are on the move. A recent notice from the California State Board of Aeronautics states that the runway at the Nut Tree Airport, a popular spot for pilots, has been lengthened and improved. Transportation is furnished to the Nut Tree Restaurant from the landing strip. This trip is a nice weekend flight for families.

Mr. and Mrs. Orel Lewis, Oro Fino, had their daughter, Janet, at home for Easter vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Deppen and family, Etna, and Mrs. Louisa Fay of Yreka spent Easter Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Saling at Klamath Falls.

Sara West, student at Castilleja School in Palo Alto, California, spent Easter vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dale West, at Merrill.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cramer, Portland, spent several days in Etna recently as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Roff.

Mrs. Velma Newcome, New Pine Creek, recently took her mother, Mrs. Clara Cloud, to Palo Alto, where they attended the wedding of Mrs. Cloud's grandson, Stanley Cloud, to Miss Barbara Hicks of McMinnville.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Aker, Etna, spent Easter Sunday at Redding with her sister, Mrs. Thelma McNeil, a patient at the Cascade Sanitarium.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Ochs, Merrill, spent Easter with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hunnicutt of Veneta.

Mrs. Fay Keller Rose left New Pine Creek last Monday for Stewart Hot Springs, a few miles from Weed.

DRIVE ON CANCER
 NEW YORK (UPI) — The Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center Wednesday night announced a 126 million dollar five-year program in an all-out attack on cancer. About 86 million dollars will be provided by institutional income and grants and a 75th anniversary fund has been established to raise the remaining funds needed.
