

Owls, Pelicans Face Pet Rivals

Medford To Host KU Club

The 50th renewal of one of the hottest rivalries in Oregon prep football circles is scheduled in Medford Friday night when the Klamath Union Pelicans tangle with the Black Tornado in the highlight of Southern Oregon Conference action on tap.

In other SOC play the Grants Pass Cavemen host the Ashland Grizzlies while the Crater High Comets step out of league to host the Yreka Miners.

Although the annual battle between Medford and Klamath Falls was inaugurated in 1914 there were five years in which the two teams met twice. There were two games in 1914, 1915, 1916, 1920 and 1925.

The history of the classic shows Medford with 35 wins to its credit, KF with eight, and six ties.

The last Pelican victory was chalked up in 1953 when the KU squad won 26-18. In 1955 the teams split a 13-13 tie but since then it has been all Medford. In 1958 the Pels were blasted 53-0 and in 1959 they were handed a 44-7 licking by the club that was to eventually become the Oregon state champion.

Off comparative performances thus far in the 1960 season the Pelicans are not accorded even a "look-in" Friday night. The Tornado is still undefeated while the Pels have only one win in four starts.

Last weekend the vaunted Medford eleven scored four times in just 19 plays while clobbering Crater 48-6. The Pels faltered 19-6 to the Grants Pass Cavemen and in so doing lost the services of Kent Hunsaker, the starting quarterback, when he fractured a bone in his throwing hand.

However all is not too black on the KU horizon this week. Three regulars, co-captain and Wayne Dennis, guard Sam Henzel and halfback Earl Brinson, are all reported in good shape and ready for work.

KU coach Bob Williams noted that the QB duties would undoubtedly be shared by Gary Buchholz and Sherman Allen in Hunsaker's absence. Monday afternoon the Pels reviewed movies of the KU-GP game last Friday and also ran through films of the 1959 Medford-KU contest.

Broken Neck Kills Player

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Howard Glenn, a football player for the New York Titans, died of a broken neck, an autopsy Monday showed.

Glenn, 24, a native of Louisville, Miss., was injured in the Titan-Houston Oiler American Football League game Sunday. He died about two hours after the game.

As a result of the fracture, jagged bits of bone eventually severed Glenn's spinal cord. Dr. Joseph Jachimczyk, Harris County medical examiner, said. He ruled the death an accident.

Glenn, who had also lived in Vancouver, Wash., left the game in the second half. He was taken to a hospital after he became belligerent, hysterical and went into a stupor in the Titan dressing room.

There was no sign of a brain injury or a heart attack, the medical examiner said. Glenn did not die instantly, the doctor said, because it took some time for the edges of the broken bone to sever the spinal cord.

Pro Golfers Earn Acclaim

DUNEDIN, Fla. (AP) — Mike Brady, one of the most active of professional golf's old timers, and Jimmy Demaret, youngest of the middle-agers, are new members of the PGA Hall of Fame.

Their election, by a vote of PGA members, was announced today by Harold Sargent, president of the Professional Golfers' Association of America. A third Hall of Famer will be chosen this year by a vote of those who already are members. All three will be inducted at the PGA annual meeting in Phoenix, Ariz., next month.

Election to the Hall of Fame is based on lifetime playing ability. Only players 50 years or older and retired from active national competition are eligible. Brady, 73, is a native of Brighton, Mass. He was one of the first great American born golf pros. From 1906 through 1925, he won 26 important tournaments and twice tied for first place in the National Open, only to lose the playoffs.

Bargain Day

AMMUNITION SAVER — What with the high cost of hunting this season young Jim Floren, son of Mr. and Mrs. Axel Floren, Klamath Falls, decided on a conservative course in the woods near Bly. He bagged his fine pair of bucks with one shot while hunting with his dad.

Ole Miss Rates 1st, Orange Now Fourth

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS — Three Big Ten teams are among the nine leading challengers for Mississippi's No. 1 spot in college football and the oft-repeated contention that the Big Ten plays the toughest schedules of all is in for a test in the next couple of weeks.

Mississippi regained the top place in the voting of The Associated Press panel of 48 newspaper, TV and radio football experts when 1959 national champion Syracuse barely beat a winless but fired up Holy Cross team 15-6.

Ole Miss, impressive in its 26-0 victory over Vanderbilt Saturday night, polled 19 of the 48 first place votes and 428 points on a 10-9-8 etc. basis. Iowa, Ohio State and Syracuse followed in that order and monopolized the rest of the first place ballots.

Iowa had 17 firsts and 411 points, Ohio State 8 and 385 and Syracuse 4 and 362. A week ago Syracuse drew 28 of the votes for top place. Minnesota gained 10th place in the balloting.

Purdue, Illinois and Arkansas were among the ten leaders a week ago but didn't get a vote after last Saturday's licks. The top teams with first place votes in parentheses:

1. Mississippi (19) 428
2. Iowa (17) 411
3. Ohio State (8) 385
4. Syracuse (4) 362
5. Navy 218
6. Missouri 176
7. Baylor 131
8. Clemson 108
9. Kansas 99
10. Minnesota 82
11. Texas 68
12. Wisconsin 55
13. Washington 47
14. Michigan State 38
15. UCLA 35
16. Alabama 28
17. Oregon State 25
18. Arizona State 19
19. Georgia Tech 17
20. Penn State 16

Tied in the scoring race were Washington's Charlie Mitchell and California's George Pierovich at 24 points. Mitchell scored a touchdown against Stanford last Saturday while Pierovich tallied two against Washington State.

Mitchell leads in rushing with 235 yards on 32 carries for a 7.2 average. Stanford's Gil Dowd has gained 162 yards in 50 tries for a 3.2 average.

Norman has completed 39 passes, the most in the conference, but Gold has gained 441 yards on 37 completions to 404 yards for the Stanford tosser. Gold also has the better percentage, 627 to 438.

Although Stanford hasn't won a game, Indians lead in two other categories. Skip Face has caught the most passes—12—for 109 yards and Gary Craig leads in punting with a 43.7 average on 16 boots.

Washington QB Back Of Week

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Bob Schloredt, the University of Washington's All-America quarterback, is the Big Five's back of the week. Schloredt's selection was announced Monday. He was picked for his play last Saturday when he directed the Huskies to a 29-10 win over Stanford.

The triple threat field general chalked up 148 yards passing and running, threw a 33-yard touchdown pass and scored another TD on an 11-yard run.

Raiders Threaten Techmen

Saturday night on Madoc Field the Oregon Tech Owls would like very much to repeat their 1958 performance when they swamped the Southern Oregon College Red Raiders 40-0 as the feature of their homecoming celebration.

The setting is much the same this year. The annual classic is once again the top attraction of the Oregon Tech Homecoming—but the casts are different.

The Raiders, who have no trouble getting "up" for the game with the Owls, are rated a much better chance this time.

According to Owl backfield mentor Jim Cordial who scouted the Raiders in their 39-20 victory over powerful Portland State, "SOC is the finest team I have seen all season." And all of Cordial's time, on ball game night, has been spent in scouting.

Last year the Techmen traveled to the SOC campus and handed out a 14-6 Raider defeat and there was nothing easy about it. This year the Raiders have many of the same players back and they have played a schedule that has paid off with some good experience.

The Owls are fresh from a 51-6 Eastern Oregon but the game could not be called a true test of their overall ability.

This week on the Mile High campus the Techmen will spend a good deal of time "fattening their offense," as coach Rex Hunsaker puts it.

Both Monday afternoon and today the Owl staff was busy working on new plays destined for the Raider invasion in addition to a general loosening-up session.

The OTI eleven emerged from the contest at La Grande Saturday in good physical shape with the exception of reserve quarterback Dennis Coffey who suffered a shoulder dislocation. Coffey was hospitalized overnight in La Grande but joined his teammates Sunday for the bus ride back to Klamath Falls.

"Barring any misfortunes in our preparations this week, we should be in absolutely top shape for the Saturday game," commented Hunsaker.

UCLA Back Leads Big 5

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — UCLA's tailback Bill Kilmer was played only two games so far this season, but he still leads the Big 5 Conference in total offense with 429 yards.

Other stars had two weeks to catch him since the Bruins were idle two weekends in a row. Washington's Bob Schloredt is just a yard back with a 428 total.

California sophomore quarterback Randy Gold and Stanford's senior Dick Norman were deadlocked for third place with 405 yards.

Tied in the scoring race were Washington's Charlie Mitchell and California's George Pierovich at 24 points. Mitchell scored a touchdown against Stanford last Saturday while Pierovich tallied two against Washington State.

Mitchell leads in rushing with 235 yards on 32 carries for a 7.2 average. Stanford's Gil Dowd has gained 162 yards in 50 tries for a 3.2 average.
