HOME EXTENSION

FORT ROCK — Laurayne Kennedy, Lake County home extension agent, will lead a workshop session on making draperies Friday, October 21. Fort Rock and Silver Lake ladies are invited to take part. The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Bud Parks.

JOAN'S KITCHEN. Alice Detroit is chairman, Ann Federhart, vice chairman; Fran Hayes, secretary, and Ruth Hull, treasurer. Chairman of standing committees are June Zumwalt, membership and hospitality; Neva Hayes, luncheon; Ruth Hull, recreation and finance; Millie Ballantyne, publicity; Ruby Beaver, AZWCA House; Ann Federhart, ACWZ; Irene Thompson, health and safety. Project leaders were also chosen. Leaders of the first lesson on foods to tote who attended the training session were Dorothy Matthews and Irene Thompson.

CRAFT FAIR The County Advisory Committee of the Home Extension office is sponsoring a craft fair on October 29. The fair is open to the public and instructors will be on hand to explain and instruct. Displays will include ribbon tying and gift wrapping, fiber flowers, mosaics, natural craft, basket weaving, candle making, cake decorating, textile painting, tube painting, miscellaneous Christmas gifts and possibly copper wire jewelry.

CRESCENT - GILCHRIST UNIT The Crescent - Gilchrist Unit met for an organizational meeting September 8 at the Community Club. Mrs. Mattie Glanton was chosen to attend the Grants Pass district meeting. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Earl Burger and Mrs. Joe Conway. The group met again on September 22 with Mrs. Jesse Kerten, chairman, conducting the meeting. Mrs. Joe Conway and Mrs. Closson were hostesses. A Halloween party is planned for October 27 with Mrs. Crawford Page and Mrs. Ernest Evins heading the program committee. Mrs. Ruth McHone and Delores McHone will be hostesses.

ADVISORY COMMITTEE Klamath County Advisory Committee met October 3 at Joan's Kitchen with Ruth Dyer, Mildred Marten, Margaret Freuer, Beulah Kloiber, Eula Prough and Kathryn Billings present. A new unit was formed at Fort Klamath last month. Ruth Dyer and Beulah Kloiber visited there September 13. Twenty three ladies from Klamath Falls attended the District 5 meeting in Grants Pass on September 14. Speaker for the meet was Dorothy Sherrill, family finance specialist from Oregon State College.

ROOM MOTHERS were also nominated for the year. The next meeting will be October 26. At that time 4-H presentations and awards from the county office will be made. The afternoon session consisted of money talks conducted in small groups. Following a housing tour of the area the Klamath Falls contingent returned home.

Instruction School Set By Lakeview PTA

LAKEVIEW — A school of instruction for all Lake County Parent Teacher Association members and officers will be held Tuesday, October 18, in the Memorial Hall of the county courthouse in Lakeview, according to announcement by Mrs. Shirley Sipp, president of the Lake County Council of PTA.

Parents and Patrons

BONANZA SCHOOL A reception was held for the teachers at the first meeting of the Parents and Patrons on September 28 in the Bonanza School gymnasium. Carnation corsages were presented to the following elementary teachers: Irma Partridge, Olive Fraley, Jean Angel, Marie Ellis, Jacqueline Morley, Johanna Chapman, Charles Dobry Jr., Norman Stratton and Don Quick. High school instructors are Joanna Givan, James Morley, Donna Gift, Erwin Ellis, Ervin Tippery, Irene Whittaker, Charles Dobry Sr. and Charles Steiber, principal.

Beverly Roberts and Evelyn Seater presided at the silver coffee service. Carolyn Dearborn and Marie Ellis were in charge of the program. Sherrill Smith and Paul Dearborn played piano solos and Janice Burk and Linda Holt played several accordion selections.

A County Council meeting will precede the gathering and the luncheon break will be no-host at Van's Restaurant.

Of special interest at the meeting will be the discussion on the need for a high school student-parent teacher association. This participation of student members has been tried and found successful in other portions of the state. The students would meet in panel discussions with the adults and go over juvenile problems and programs. It will be determined whether local people are interested enough to promote the program.

Ways and means, Howery Roberts, Don Philpotts; program committee, Caroline Dearborn, Marie Ellis; publicity, Cora Leavitt; hospitality, Jean Angel, Helen Shriner and Roger Reid; membership, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Burnett and Mr. and Mrs. LaVerne Haskins; school improvement, Charles Steiber, Lois Monroe and Clyde Wooten. Room mothers were also nominated for the year.

The next meeting will be October 26. At that time 4-H presentations and awards from the county office will be made.

The afternoon session consisted of money talks conducted in small groups. Following a housing tour of the area the Klamath Falls contingent returned home.

Group singing was led by Vesta Shogren of Klamath Falls. Guest speaker, Dorothy Sherrill, family finance specialist from Oregon State College, spoke on "This Matter of Money."

The guests were Judy Ross, Virginia Hartley, Evelyn Wood, Elizabeth Bell, Louise Horton, Willadean Hall, Elsa Clark, Irene Harley, Ethel Crawford, Virginia Marry, Aylce Haley, Violet Brown, Vera Carl and Phyllis Hultman.

Keep Towels Handy In Home

When installing a paper towel holder in your kitchen, be sure to locate it where it will be most convenient to reach for the many jobs paper towels can do.

Paper towels are handy for scrubbing the sink with cleanser, drying hands after doing dishes, wiping the range after cooking, drying pots and pans or for draining vegetables or bacon. Towels and holders are available in a range of pastel colors to match or complement your kitchen color scheme.

TENT TOWN TO TOP

When construction of the Alaska railroad began some 40 years ago, a tent town sprang up between Seward and Fairbanks. The settlement, named Anchorage, now has a population almost three times more than any other Alaskan city.

PTA News

KLAMATH COUNTY COUNCIL "You are all stockholders in school business," stated Dale Goode, county school clerk, as both school district budgets were highlighted by him and Harold Ashley city school clerk, at the Klamath County Council PTA meeting on Tuesday afternoon, October 4, in the Altamont Junior High School.

Mrs. Ray Dunn, council president, called the meeting to order and Mrs. M. A. McKinnie led the group in prayer. In compliance with the State Congress of PTA, OEA and the School Board Association joint committee plans, Mrs. L. E. Saunders, council legislative chairman, announced the Klamath County committee members as follows: Mrs. Ray Dunn, Dr. Cliff Robinson, Ray Hunsaker, Adolph Faller, Klamath County OEA representative, and Mrs. L. E. Saunders, chairman. The committee will initiate a program in the schools for the study and discussion of pertinent legislative matters at the earliest possible date in order to stimulate the statewide program "Lights on for Education" for the evening of January 5, 1961.

Klamath County Council went on record endorsing Ballot Measure 6. The November 1 Klamath County Council meeting will be held at Conger School. Dr. Winston Purvine, director of OTL, will speak on "The Institute's New Standing and Place in the Community" and explain how Ballot Measure 6 will affect OTL.
