Willamette Ace Leading

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Stan Solomon, Willamette University half-back, is leading the ground-gainers in the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics.

He piled up 235 yards against Lewis and Clark last weekend and increased his average to 141.5 yards a game. That moved him from 13th in the NAIA standings to first.

Second place is held by Ray Hayes of Central Oklahoma, who has averaged 141.2. Hayes also holds the scoring lead with 70 points.

Raider Eleven Under Handicap

OAKLAND (UPI)—The Oakland Raiders, now 2-3 on the year, will be slightly handicapped when they try to even their record against Boston Sunday in San Francisco's Kezar Stadium.

Tony Teresa, suffering from a torn back cartilage, is expected to see only limited action. Nyle McFarlane has a bad shoulder and ends Gene Prehoda and Charley Hardy have charley-horses.

Series Air Full Of Rumors

By MURRAY OLDERMAN
PITTSBURGH (NEA)—The following, ma'm, are not necessarily the facts:

Yogi Berra will be shipped west in 1961 to manage the San Francisco Giants . . .

Harvey Kuenn will get a one-way ticket back to Detroit as playing-manager of the Tigers.

Casey Stengel will quit, come back, quit, come back, quit . . .

Milwaukee will unload a half dozen warriors so Ernie Banks can find refuge from Chicago's North Side in the tepee of the Braves . . .

And that's only part of the palaver going on here at the World Series.

The balcony of the Pittsburgh Hilton, a glass vortex where the Monongahela joins the Allegheny, is the clearing house for rumors. What's a World Series without rumors?

For this is where the baseball mob takes over when the Pirates and Yankees stop scuffling at Forbes Field and the hordes come down the hills to the base of the Golden Triangle to enjoy Bucca- neer hospitality.

The setting, with light rays playing musical chairs on the modern walls of glass while a tu m n brushes the hills, is a lot more romantic than that place from which all army rumors emanated.

See Lee McPhail of the Orioles over there in a corner with John Quinn of the Phillies? If they linger too long over their antipasto or creme souffle, a guy tuned in on their antenna will soon have Chuck Estrada going to Philadelphia for Robin Roberts and half of DuPont.

Now it's a fact that Leo Du- rocher is going to manage San Francisco. But so is Cookie Lava- getto. So is Bob Scheffing.

It's also a fact that Bill De- Witt wants Ralph Houk, the Yan- kee coach, to manage Detroit. He must be fickle, ma'm, for that job has been held out to Bobby Bragan. And Bill Rigney. Not to mention Kuenn. Of course, De- Witt's going to get fired before he can do anything about it.

But you didn't know that Joe

Gordon quit the Tigers because DeWitt ate him out for leaving the team and driving to Kansas City with one of his coaches at the end of the season.

Or that J. Arthur Friedlund, at- torney for the Yankees, offered the job of New York manager to Al Lopez over the unknown wrinkles over there in a corner with John Quinn of the Phillies? If they linger too long over their antipasto or creme souffle, a guy tuned in on their antenna will soon have Chuck Estrada going to Philadelphia for Robin Roberts and half of DuPont.

The general manager bit is get- ting to be as juicy in the rumor field as the field skipper switch. Frank Lane will be canned in Cleveland. Parke Carroll is through at Kansas City. When the Athletics are moved to Houston to forestall expansion (oh, didn't you know?), Ed Doherty will stop being a minor league president and take over as GM.

Jack Carr, an Englishman, dis- covered how to apply "English" to a billiard ball in 1820.

The Giants have finished sec- ond 13 times in the National League baseball race since 1900.
