

Hampton-Wigley Vows Spoken In Yreka Church

YREKA — An autumn theme was chosen by Sharon Leah Wigley for her September 3 marriage to Monte Richard Hampton in the Yreka Methodist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Clara V. Wigley of Montague, and C. A. Wigley of Ashland, and Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Thompson of Fort Jones are the parents of the bridegroom.

Gold and bronze gladioli and chrysanthemums were arranged in baskets at the altar, flanked by tall lighted tapers in floor-length candelabra, for the 2 o'clock double ring ceremony read by the Rev. Harold C. Coleman. White satin bows decorated the family pews.

Adrian Wigley of Montague escorted and gave his sister in marriage. For her wedding, the bride chose a gown of tiered white lace over satin, fashioned with a full ballerina length skirt with a scalloped hemline. The fitted bodice featured a rounded scalloped neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. The bridegroom's gift of a single strand of pearls was her only jewelry.

The bride's veil of nylon illusion was secured with a tiara of pearls, and the white Bible she carried was centered with a white orchid nestled in stephanotis and tied with white satin streamers.

Maid of honor, Teresa Wigley, niece of the bride, and bridesmaids, Joan Wendt of Montague and Delanne Piliard, were all identically gowned in Nile green taffeta, styled with full skirts and ruffled sleeves. Their brief white veils were held in place with velvet headbands, and they carried gardenias which were fashioned into colonial bouquets.

Connie Marty of Montague served as flower girl. She wore a white frock trimmed in lace and carried a basket of white rose petals.

Ronald Clark of Happy Camp served as best man. Guests were seated by Vernon Wagner and Abner Weed Jr., both of Yreka. Prior to the ceremony Abner Weed lighted the candles.

Mrs. Ed Adams sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Because." She was accompanied at the organ by Ardeti Schuck, who also played the wedding marches.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Yreka Inn in the Melody Room, where the newlyweds cut the initial slice from the beautifully decorated four-tiered cake, which was topped with a ruffled white lace heart and doves. The cake was baked by the bride's mother and decorated by Mrs. Norman Flock of Montague.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Wigley chose a delft blue afternoon frock, complemented with white accessories. A navy blue linen suit accented with pink accessories was worn by the bridegroom's mother. Cor-sages of white rosesbud completed each of the mothers' ensembles.

Serving the cake later were Mrs. Norman Flock and Mrs. Henry Jensen, while punch was poured by Mrs. Adrian Wigley and Deanna Walter. Debbie Wigley presided at the gift table, and Stevie Wigley registered the guests.

For a wedding trip to Oregon, the new Mrs. Hampton chose a dark blue wool sheath dress with accenting accessories, and the white orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Hampton have established their home in Yreka, where the bridegroom is an employee at the Bank of America.

The bride attended and was graduated from Yreka elementary and high schools. Her husband attended elementary and high schools in Livermore.

Out-of-county wedding guests included Mrs. Grace Cleck of Red Bluff, aunt of the bride; Sam Bell of Portland, uncle of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kirk of Eugene.
