Jeanne Morgan Bride Of Michael D. Wonser

Jeanne Morgan of Eugene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Troy Morgan, Klamath Falls, became the bride of Michael Dean Wonser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wonser of Bend, on September 18 at the Roselight Wedding Chapel in Eugene.

The double ring ceremony was read at 2 o'clock by the Rev. Marvin Webster of the First Baptist Church in Eugene. The altar was flanked by large baskets of white gladioli accented with blue bows.

Troy Morgan escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. Her princess style gown of Chantilly lace was fashioned with Empire bodice, long sleeves and Florentine designed neckline edged with tiny pearls and beads. In back of the full floor length skirt cascaded tiers of lace ruffles. The small crown of miniature pearls and crystals held in place the elbow length veil of silk illusion. She carried a white embroidered handkerchief from Switzerland and a cascade of gladioli with carnations and pink rosebuds and streamers of white ribbon and ivy.

Maid of honor was Opal Morgan, the bride's sister. Sandra Branch, classmate, from Paisley, was the bridesmaid. They were dressed alike in blue ballerina frocks of nylon sheer over taffeta made with scoop necklines and huge puffed sleeves. They were accented with wide cummerbunds of Venice lace. They wore brief blue veils and carried nosegays of white gladioli and carnations.

Beth Harris, cousin of the bridegroom, was flower girl and Donnie Morgan, the bride's brother, the ring bearer.

Judy Morgan, sister of the bride, lighted the candles prior to the service.

The bridegroom was attended by his brother, Pat Wonser. Ushers were Ron Rexroad and Larry Segreude.

Judy Roberts, cousin of the bridegroom, sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

A reception in the chapel annex followed the ceremony. Assisting were Mrs. Peggy Holland, Linda Helgeson of Bend, Virginia Ausland, Betty Brown, Joyce Murphy and Mrs. May Haught.

Mrs. Wonser's going-away ensemble was a pale blue two piece suit with white collar and black patent accessories. The couple honeymooned at the Surfside at Oceanlake.

The bride was graduated this August from Sacred Heart Hospital School of Nursing and is now employed in Eugene. Her husband is attending University of Oregon where he is affiliated with Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity. Their address is 372 West Broadway in Eugene.
