Speedsters Do TD Jig In National

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Speedsters Lenny Moore and Bobby Mitchell, elusive packers of swinging hips and flashing feet, are dancing a touchdown jig in the pass-conscious National Football League while driving their teams toward divisional titles.

Moore, former Penn State star now in his fifth pro season, scored touchdowns on runs of 1, 34 and 57 yards and caught a Johnny Unitas aerial for a fourth score as the NFL champion Baltimore Colts blasted the Los Angeles Rams 31-17 Sunday.

Mitchell, onetime Illinois standout in his third NFL campaign, returned a kickoff 90 yards for a touchdown, raced 30 yards for another and took a Milt Plum pass and ran 46 yards for a third score to pace the Cleveland Browns to a 46-7 thumping of the Dallas Cowboys.

Moore and Mitchell now are tied for the league's scoring lead with 42 points on seven touchdowns.

The Colts triumph, their third against one defeat, kept them in a tie for first place in the Western Division with the Chicago Bears, a half-game ahead of idle Green Bay. The Bears kept pace with a 27-10 victory over San Francisco.

The Browns' romp gave them a 3-0 record and edged them ahead of the defending New York Giants (3-0-1) in the Eastern Division.

The Giants were tied by the Washington Redskins 24-24 on a touchdown pass by Ralph Guglielmi with 25 seconds left.

The Pittsburgh Steelers defeated the St. Louis Cardinals 27-14 and the Philadelphia Eagles whipped the Detroit Lions 28-10 in other games.

Moore's 57-yard burst in the second quarter shook the two-time champion Colts out of their lethargy after Lou Michaels' 51-yard field goal had given the wireless Rams (0-4) a brief lead. Moore then plunged a yard for a 14-3 halftime margin and scored the clincher on his 34-yard scamper in the third period. Jon Arnett and Billy Wade scored Los Angeles' touchdowns.

With Mitchell running wild and Plum passing for two touchdowns, the Browns dealt the Cowboys (0-4) the worst defeat in the league this season.

Owl Hoots To Meet

A good crowd of Oregon Tech boosters is expected to attend the Owl Hoots' regular weekly meeting tonight in the Chuck Wagon Restaurant. The session, which begins at 6:30 o'clock, should prove one of the most interesting of the season, said club proxy Elmer Belesano.

The Owl coaches, Rex Hunsaker, George Miller and Jim Cordial, will be on hand to present their views on the Tech-men's Saturday success over Southern Oregon College. The Owls are undefeated thus far in the '60 season.

Oilers Steal Five Passes In Victory

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Coach Lou Rymkus of the American Football League's Houston Oilers might possibly have come up with a secret weapon that can tell in advance when a team is going to pass.

At least it looked that way Sunday when Houston intercepted five Dallas aerials en route to a 20-10 victory. Going into the game the Oilers had swiped only five enemy passes in four previous games.

The secret weapon story got roots from the tale of a Houston fan who walked into the team's office and announced: "I can sit in the stands and tell 90 per cent of the time when you are going to pass."

Though he didn't stick around to take up Rymkus' invitation to join the Oilers' defensive backfield, it might be hard to convince Dallas that there wasn't some other use Houston had found for him, especially since Dallas quarterback Cotton Davidson had lost only six of 163 passes in five games.

Los Angeles cut Denver's Western Division lead to a half game, beating the Broncos 23-19 as 41-year-old Ben Agajanian kicked field goals of 11, 26 and 47 yards.

Houston's George Blanda kicked two field goals and passed 9 yards to Bill Groman for a touchdown. He and Davidson came out pretty even on their heralded passing duel, Blanda getting 17 of 36 for 233 yards while Davidson had 16 of 34 for 230. Blanda had two interceptions. Groman snagged 10 for 140 yards.

Paul Lowe added scoring passes of 12 and 44 yards for Los Angeles to Agajanian's field goals that were enough to stave off a 45-yard field goal by Denver's Gene Mingo and a touchdown by Al Carmichael in the last period.

Dave Philley started the baseball season with Philadelphia, played for San Francisco and finished with Baltimore.

VERSATILE RAIDER — Gordy Carrigan, versatile SOC end-quarterback, is stopped by Owl safety man Arties Palmore after a nice gain Saturday night. Carrigan starred in a losing cause. Coming in to help Palmore are guard Chuck Oeleis (41), tackle Jim Madden (64) and halfback Charlie Wilson (52).

National League Meeting Set

CHICAGO (AP)—Owners of the National League meet today presumably to award major league franchises to Houston and New York City.

Houston appears certain to receive its franchise to operate by 1962 but New York representatives must come up with a guarantee that a new stadium will be built by 1962 or that an arrangement will be worked out with the New York Yankees for purposes of leasing Yankee Stadium.

Warren Giles, National League president, has promised some kind of action on expansion.

"We're going to do something definite," Giles said recently. "We have delayed long enough; we're sure Houston will qualify and PALMORE FOR SIX — This was a familiar sight on Modoc Field Saturday night. Arties Palmore, lanky OTI end, caught four passes for 145 yards and two touchdowns. Above, Palmore pulls in a touchdown pass. The SOC defender is halfback John Mills.

LA Rams In Trouble; Long Loss Streak Continues

BALTIMORE (UPI)—Any way you look at it the Los Angeles Rams have got trouble, trouble, trouble.

A glance backward shows a 12-game National Football League losing streak starting last year and continuing with four reverse decisions this season.

A glance at the present shows a battered Rams club, still sore from absorbing a decisive 31-17 defeat by Baltimore's world champion Colts Sunday in Memorial Stadium.

A look at the future shows next Sunday's game in the Los Angeles Coliseum with George Halas, the Chicago Bears and presumably more "jamming tactics" by Bear linebacker Bill George.
