Youth Hits Pedestrian

Police said a 16-year-old boy admitted jumping from a car on the South Sixth Street viaduct Saturday night and striking a passer-by in the face. The blow, police said, cut Clark Zadina of Chiloquin on the eye and broke his glasses.

Two Disturbances Dot Weekend Police Action

Observant police officers discovered two disturbances in the course of their rounds over the weekend.

A sergeant on routine patrol observed a man weaving up Eleventh Street, between Klamath and Main, about 1:20 a.m. Sunday with another man following closely behind.

The man in the rear, identified as William Leroy Lomax, 42, a transient, was seen to jab his hand into the right pocket of the man ahead, Jose Casero Ruana, a railroad gang worker.

Police List Accidents

These weekend accidents were reported to city police: A car owned by William H. Rogers, 39 High Street, slipped from its parking place and rolled into a yard at 234 Ewanna Street, Fourth and Klamath. The officer, on foot, saw one man take a blow that knocked him to the sidewalk, then leave in his car. The assailant then struck another man, who apparently had been watching the fight.

Altamont Junior High News

By NYNA PAYNE

The football jamboree was played Saturday, October 7, at Modoc Field.

Altamont and Fremont played the first game on the field. The first play of the first quarter Fremont made a touchdown which made the score stand Fremont 7 and Altamont 0. After a few more runs in the first quarter, Fremont made another touchdown. Score at end of the half was Fremont 14 and Altamont 0.

Altamont kicked off at the beginning of the second half but they did not make any touchdowns. So the final score was Fremont 14 and Altamont 0.

Altamont's seventh grade played Fremont Middlets in the second game on the field. At the last of the first quarter Fremont made a touchdown which made the final score Fremont Middlets 6 and Altamont's seventh grade 0. (They played only one quarter.)

Altamont's last game was with Fairview. The game was a tie, with a final score of 0 to 0.

Due to an oversight we failed to mention our yell leaders who were elected at the same time as the student body officers. The five girls are Dawn Revis, Jolene Weber, Judy Valentine, Sally Bratton and Jeri Bowers.

STORMS HIT ITALY

ROME (UPI) — Snow up to 30 inches deep, torrential rains and landslides caused widespread damage and disrupted communications in northern Italy Sunday.

4 KU Students Are Commended

Four seniors at Klamath Union High School have been honored for outstanding performance on the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test given last spring.

The four are Gayle Case, Lloyd Case, Charlton Currin and David Sibbett.

John M. Stalnaker, president of the National Merit Scholarship Corporation stated: "Letters of commendation are being awarded to some 28,000 students throughout the United States in recognition of their excellent performance on the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test."

"While these bright youngsters did not reach the status of semifinalists in the 1960-61 Merit Program, they are so outstanding that we wish to single them out for special attention. The semifinalists and commended students together constitute less than three per cent of all high school seniors, and this certainly signifies noteworthy achievement."

MISTAKES COST FORTUNE

LONDON (UPI) — The trade magazine "Engineering" said boys who can't spell are costing Britain a vast fortune every year in mistakes. Apprentices commonly spell tube as toob and panel as panl, the magazine said.

Wire Breaks

PITTSBURGH (AP) — A high-tension wire broke and fell across a trolley in downtown Pittsburgh late Thursday, trapping about 30 persons for almost an hour.

Witnesses said flames and sparks shot into the air from the front of the streetcar for several minutes after the line fell. Three women suffered slight burns.

The accident, apparently caused by a short circuit, occurred while Pittsburghers were putting on a wild celebration following the Pirates triumph over the New York Yankees to win the World Series.

NAVY ELUDES PACIFISTS

GROTON, Conn. (UPI) — A group of pacifists were left today without a nuclear submarine to picket. The Navy slipped the Polaris firing sub George Washington out of harbor and into the sea Sunday to prevent an incident after the pacifists threatened to try to board the sub.

Two Accidents Listed Sunday

Two Sunday accidents were reported today by state police.

A car driven by Harry Harris Smith, 704 Fulton Street, Klamath Falls, was attempting to turn left from U.S. 97 to Sutton Road when it was hit from the rear by a pickup truck driven by W. F. Parks, Kenyon, California.

The accident occurred about 2:50 p.m. Sutton Road leads from U.S. 97, at the railroad overpass south of the city, toward Kingsley Field.

About 11:30 p.m. a car driven by Ethel Mae Messersmith, 40, Tulelake, was struck on South Sixth Street by a car driven by Nora Alice Rinker, 72, 1120 Pine Street, Klamath Falls, who was leaving the Town and Country Shopping Center.

No injuries were reported.

Actor Fined

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — Former child actor Bobby Driscoll was fined $32.50 today for disturbing the peace. Driscoll, 23, now a car salesman, was placed on probation by Judge Arthur C. Miller of Malibu Justice Court.

Judge Miller said a condition of the probation will be that Driscoll not use narcotics.

The complaint against Driscoll was brought by Lauri S. Marlow of Los Angeles, who charged Driscoll struck him with a pistol last June 17 during an argument. Driscoll pleaded guilty.

No Place To Bathe

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Walter Saxon stretched out for a bit of sunbathing Thursday and police and firemen rushed to the scene.

Saxon, 58, a brickworker, chose a five-foot ledge on the edge of a 13-story center-city building for his sunbathing. Several passersby saw him. Firemen sent their rescue unit and police rushed to the roof, thinking they might prevent the man from jumping. Saxon was amazed by the commotion. He returned to work.
