Two Wives Shed By Man In One Day

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—Ronald Ralph Reiter is a rare man, indeed. He belongs to that small number who can say they were divorced twice—and from two different wives—on the same afternoon.

Although Reiter, 26, was a somewhat innocent pawn in a strange crossing of paths, he'll long remember his afternoon before Common Pleas Judge Charles W. White Monday.

Here is what happened.

He won a divorce from his first wife, Hazel Parr Reiter, whom he had married in 1932 in Lawrenceburg, Ind. The charge was that she had left him in 1955. The judge awarded custody of a 6-year-old son to Reiter's mother.

Next, Pauline E. Reiter, 22, won a divorce from him on grounds of gross neglect and cruelty. The judge awarded her custody of their year-old daughter and $15 a week for the infant's support.

Reiter married Pauline in Mountain City, Tenn., in 1958 after Hazel telephoned his mother that she had received a divorce from him in Florida. Hazel later told a domestic relations investigator she was drunk when she made the telephone call.

Reiter, a fireman for the South Shore Railroad when he is working, brought suit for divorce against Hazel to clear up that marital tangle. Meanwhile, not knowing he still was married to his first wife, Mrs. Reiter No. 2 (Pauline) brought suit for divorce.

Pauline's attorney said he doubted there would be any big action since it appeared that Reiter entered the second marriage innocently.

Reiter has been in the workhouse since Sept. 19, charged with assault and battery against a policeman. His term runs until Feb. 15, 1961.

'Quizperts' Face Perjury

NEW YORK (UPI)—The scene was the mahogany paneled courtroom of the Court of Special Sessions, Chief Justice John M. Murtagh presided.

In the first two rows sat the 14 defendants, their faces grim. Nearby was the array of attorneys representing them.

One of the defendants—a handsome, wavy-haired man who just two years ago captured the imagination of much of the nation's youth and instituted a new form of hero-worship, the intellectual—fidgeted.

His eyes were moist with tears and he kept folding and unfolding his arms across his chest.

He was Charles Van Doren, scion of a prominent literary family and winner of $129,000 on the now defunct quiz show "Twenty-One."

Charged With Perjury

Van Doren and 13 other TV jackpot winners, including one of the all-time top money winners, Elfrida von Nardoff ($220,500), were arrested Monday and this was their arraignment on perjury charges.

Dist. Atty. Frank S. Hogan said the names of the other six persons named in the informations would not be disclosed until they are in custody. Hogan indicated they are expected to surrender voluntarily in the near future.

Although Van Doren is the only confessed liar among a total of 20 persons named in the New York County grand jury information, all are accused of lying when they testified they never received questions and/or answers in advance of their appearances on TV quiz shows.

The charge, a misdemeanor, carries a maximum sentence of one year in prison plus a $500 fine on conviction.

On Same Shows

All of the contestants named in the jury's information appeared on either "Twenty-One" or "Tic Tac Dough." "Twenty-One" was once the top-rated TV show in the nation but both programs were dropped when the "fix" scandal came to light in 1958.

After being booked at the Elizabeth Street precinct stationhouse the defendants were brought before Murtagh. Only one defendant, Morton Harelik, pleaded innocent to the charge and his trial was scheduled for Nov. 3.

All the others were paroled in their own custody and the cases were set for pleading on Nov. 10.

Other winners who surrendered Monday included Hank Bloomgarden, 31, a public relations adviser, $98,500, and Mrs. Vivienne Nearing, 34, a lawyer, $5,500.

Slay Charge Faces Heir

TOURS, France (UPI)—Patrice Michelin, 32, French tire fortune heir accused of murdering his pretty blonde wife, insisted today "it was an accident, a ghastly accident."

Michelin was arrested Monday night and charged with the "willful murder" of his wife, Nicole, 29.

The heir said he shot his wife accidentally during a hunting trip in the woods near their castle home Sunday. He said he tripped on a tree root and the 22 caliber carbine he was carrying discharged as he fell to the ground.

But police said their reconstruction of the shooting, coupled with the autopsy, indicated the accident could not have happened as Michelin described it. The murder charge was based on an expert's finding that the bullet entered the back of Nicole's neck horizontally.

Michelin, a gentleman-farmer, was grandson of one of the two brothers who founded the Michelin tire firm in 1889. The company prospered and the family brought a 60 per cent controlling interest in the Citroen auto firm.

Suburban Cop Arrests Man Wanted By FBI

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP)—A suburban policeman parlayed good eyesight and memory, a newspaper photo and an FBI circular into the capture Monday of one of the nation's most sought after criminals.

Patrolman Robert May of Kirkwood recognized Charles Francis Higgins, 54, as one of the FBI's 10 Most Wanted Men.

Sunday night May read a St. Louis Globe-Democrat story that the fugitive might be in the St. Louis area. He studied Higgins' picture.

Monday morning, the patrolman, 29, dug out the FBI circular, read that Higgins was a heavy drinker and had the initials "C. H." tattooed on his right forearm.

That afternoon, May spotted Higgins staggering along a street. At the police station a fingerprint check quickly proved Higgins' identity.

"If he hadn't been staggering I might not have noticed him," May said.

Higgins was sought as an escapee from the Colorado penitentiary where he was serving a term for robbery.

Dormitory Thefts

CORVALLIS (AP)—Police say thieves lifted some $500 from the wallets of sleeping students in six Oregon State College dormitories and fraternities last weekend. The biggest loss, $165, was suffered by Kappa Sigma members.

Two towns in the southwestern corner of Missouri are named Braggadocio and Bragg City.

To Pass On Aid

BURNS (AP)—The state Board of Health will pass on $1,530,930 in federal hospital aid allocations Wednesday at a scheduled meeting here. The state Health Department advisory council recently urged approval of 11 projects.

More than 400 million trees have been planted by American forest industries in 1960.

Thief Absconds With $800 Cash

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—"I want 50 ones, 50 fives and 50 tens," said the stylishly dressed man Monday to a cashier at a branch of Security First National Bank.

Pulling out a small revolver and pointing it at cashier Carole Ann Jerskie, the man asked softly, "That comes to $800, doesn't it?"

She nodded, he smiled while she counted out the money and then he fled with the loot.

Yanks Given New Warning

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The State Department has issued a new warning for American adventurers to stay out of Cuba.

It said Monday that their intervention in Cuban affairs could have serious consequences for the United States as well as cost them their lives before a firing squad.

The department previously had urged Americans not to travel to Cuba unless they had "compelling reasons" to go there. No ban has been imposed on travel to Cuba, however.

The new statement denounced as "drumhead justice" the execution by the Castro regime of two Americans accused of taking part in an invasion of Cuba on Oct. 5.

The charge was based on the fact that appeals by the two Americans—Robert Otis Fuller, 25, of Miami, and Allen Dale Thompson, 36, of Queen City, Tex., and Mooringsport, La.—were decided against them in five minutes.

But the department made it clear that it does not condone the actions of Americans who join in international adventures such as plots to overthrow Cuban Premier Fidel Castro.

Alabama takes its name from an Indian tribe of the Creek confederacy. The name means, "I clear the thicket."
