Probation Given Man

John D. Curfman, 38, 1313 Nimitz Street, was placed on probation for one year in district court Tuesday after pleading guilty to furnishing liquor to a minor.

Curfman admitted providing beer found in a car occupied by himself and two other boys. Police said one of the others, a 16-year-old boy, admitted striking Clark Zadina of Chiloquin in the face while Zadina was walking on the South Sixth Street overpass Saturday night.

The blow cut Zadina in one eye. Police officers said Zadina had lost one eye a few years ago, at age 12, and the blow Saturday that shattered his glasses temporarily endangered his good eye.

Curfman told District Judge D. E. Van Vactor he had not bought the beer, but he admitted providing it for himself and his two companions.

The 16-year-old was being held in city jail pending hearing in juvenile court.

Indian Reservation Funds Distributed

Payments totaling $805,100 representing part of the Klamath Tribe's total assets were sent out today on a pro rata distribution to the withdrawing members of the tribe under the Klamath tribal termination program, Don Foster, area director of the Bureau of Indian Affairs, Department of the Interior, announced.

This represents a payment of $485 to each of 1,660 withdrawing members and is the second one made in the termination proceedings. A pro rata distribution of $1,300 to each withdrawing member was made last spring.

The money for this distribution was derived from the sale of the Klamath Marsh to the Fish and Wildlife Service for $476,401 and from the sale of timber and personal property. The Fish and Wildlife Service will retain the Klamath Marsh as a waterfowl refuge.

Not all of this payment of $805,100 will go in cash to the members, as there are offsets totaling $391,711 that will be applied against indebtedness of the members to the government under such categories as land or personal property purchases, revolving credit, irrigation, operation and maintenance charges and miscellaneous. However, there will be net payments to beneficiaries amounting to $413,388 involving 795 checks to withdrawing members and 243 checks to heirs of withdrawing members.

Of the total checks drawn $59 or 77 per cent will be drawn to trustees for minors or for adults in need of assistance.

Walter A. Smith Joins Staff At Jones' Office Supply

Mr. Walter A. Smith, recently of Panama City, Florida, has joined the staff at Jones' Office Supply, 829 Main.

The announcement was made today by Lowell C. Jones, owner of the firm.

Mr. Smith's extensive business background includes seven years with Boyd Bros. Printing and Office Supply in Panama City. He also has served as sales representative for Smith Corona Marchant at Miami, Florida. Recently he has been a newspaper account executive with the Panama City News Herald.

Mr. Smith was a student at Oregon Technical Institute in 1952-53. "Once you have lived in the Klamath Country, it is awfully hard to be satisfied living elsewhere," he commented on his return to Klamath Falls after a seven-year absence.

"Walter's extensive experience in the office supply business will make him a valuable asset to our firm," said Mr. Jones. "And it will enable him to be of truly expert service to the business firms of the Klamath Basin," he added.

Mr. Smith is married and the father of two children. Mrs. Smith and the children are still in Florida, but will move to Klamath Falls shortly after Christmas.

More Dems Than GOP — By Three

LAKEVIEW—Lake County has three more Democrats than Republicans according to the figures compiled at the county clerk's office here at the close of registration for the November 8 election.

The totals show 1,725 Democrats, 1,722 Republicans and 32 others. In the May primaries there had been a rush of party changes because of a preference for some candidates on the Republican ticket and that party showed a lead at that time of 134.

Since then approximately 80 per cent have changed back to the original party, and there have been 229 new registrations. The number of independents signing up showed an unusually heavy figure for this county. In the 1956 records the total for the county was 3,513 and the Democrats were then leading by 276.
