

Lake Cow Belles Elect Officers

LAKEVIEW — New officers for the Lake County Cow Belles were elected at the luncheon meeting held October 5 at Van's restaurant but will not assume leadership of the group until January.

Elected to the presidency was Mrs. Coral Hill, with Mrs. Lora Carlson as vice president and Mrs. Virginia Vernon, secretary-treasurer. Retiring officers will be Mrs. Nora Flynn, president; Mrs. Hill, vice president, and Mrs. Mildred Brattain, secretary-treasurer.

Guest speaker was Mrs. Clayton Weaver who explained a new system being tried out for the financing of foreign students under the American Field Service program. Small home banks to be used to collect loose change were distributed to the organization members and Mrs. Mary Abramson was named to make the final accounting for these when called for early next year.

Rainbow Girls Install Officers

DUNSMUIR—"Life's Rainbow" was the theme of the evening when Carolyn Clark became worthy adviser of Dunsmuir Assembly, Order of Rainbow for Girls, at the Dunsmuir Masonic Temple recently.

Gowned in a formal of heavy green satin with a hoop skirt and a cascade of net ruffles, she spoke to those present and to her fellow officers on the rewards of life through service after she took her vows of office.

The evening began with a piano prelude by Anne Messinger and the entrance of the host and hostess, Royal Cross and Mrs. Valerie Simon.

Linda Lockart, retiring worthy adviser, served as installing officer assisted by Donna Parsons, installing marshal; Margaret Ake, honorary installing marshal; Ardis Keck of Sacramento, installing chaplain; Carol Mendenhall of Guam, installing recorder.

The tribute to the Rainbow flag was given by Wilma Jean Champlin of Portland, a former member of Dunsmuir Assembly. Little Jan Kubli presented Carolyn Clark with a spray of white carnations. The new worthy adviser also carried an orchid corsage on a white Bible.

The incoming officers made their entrance carrying flower-bedecked byes made of styrofoam.

Barbara Reed sang two solos as part of the ceremonies and Dennis Clark presented the Bible. Edna Reed Gould was introduced as the new mother adviser and Bob Harris will serve as Rainbow dad.

The new officers include Patsy Herrin, associate adviser; Darlene Wylie, charity; Christine Graves, hope; Karen Cummings, faith; Noralyn Caswell, recorder; Margaret Wilcox, treasurer; Anna Mae Flannery, chaplain; Linda Guy, drill leader; Lorraine Grenwick, love; Adele Kenny, religion; Judy Murphy, nature; Carol Wagner, immortality; Sandra Anderson, fidelity; Janet Saunders, patriotism; Diane Girdler, service; Cathy Gonc, confidential observer; Mary Ann Miles, outer observer; Kathy Harris, choir director, and Jacky Winters, musician.

Refreshments were served following the ceremonies. Mrs. R. M. Clark of Mount Shasta, mother of Carolyn, was thanked by her daughter for the decorations and refreshments which added to the success of the evening.

Baby Shower

LANGELL VALLEY—Mrs. Dick Smith and Mrs. Louis Randall gave a shower at the Smith home on Wednesday afternoon honoring Robert Eugene, new son of the Rev. and Mrs. Eugene Willis of Lorella Full Gospel Church.

A tall pink stork on a white cloud of angel hair and bonnet nut cups were on the refreshment table and gifts on the low coffee table. Pink penurias, glad-joli and candles completed the decorations.

Stanford Alumni Form New Club

Forty five Stanford University alumni and guests of the Northern California-Southern Oregon area met Saturday, October 8, at the Jackson Hotel in Medford to discuss and organize a local Stanford Alumni Club.

William Patton of Ashland was elected president. Other officers are Sam Bellah of Rogue River, vice president; Wilbur L. Warren of Medford, secretary, and Mrs. Mark Boyden of Medford, treasurer.

Those on the board of directors are Anthony Giacomini, Klamath County; Harry Bryan, Siskiyou County; Lucian Rice, Curry and Del Norte counties; Hamilton Thrift, Coos; Edwin Booth, Douglas; Raymond Salisbury, Josephine, and Wilson Slater, Jackson.

The alumni decided to name the club "The State of Jefferson Stanford Alumni Club" to commemorate the rebellion of Northern California and Southern Oregon to secede and become an independent state.

The purpose of the club is to disseminate accurate information regarding Stanford University to prospective students as well as the general public.

Stanford alumni who are interested in participating in the activities of the club are invited to contact one of the officers.

Iowa is a word from the Sioux Indian language meaning "one who puts to sleep."

TO REMOVE STAINS

Tar, oil and grease stains all have a way of catching up with the male attire, even if the wearer's most strenuous labors only involve mowing the lawn. When deposit is heavy, wipe or scrape off as much as possible, then rub in vaseline or lard to soften the stain. Follow with usual washing procedure.

Rotary Anns Plan Meetings

MONTAGUE—Selection of hostesses to arrange dinner meetings during the coming year was the major point of business taken up by the Montague Rotary Anns during their September meeting held recently at the Shamrock Inn, south of Yreka. Mrs. Rosalie Grazier, president, conducted the session.

Visiting comprised the major portion of the entertainment for the evening, interspersed with games. Mrs. Margaret Day won the mystery package. Mrs. Shirley Hasselvander was present as a guest.

Present, in addition to those mentioned, were Mrs. George Fieck, Mrs. Beulah Gordon, Mrs. Ora Kouts, Mrs. Mildred Long, Mrs. Ida McCargar, Mrs. Nickie Meek, Mrs. Helen Messner, Mrs. Eleanor Phillips, Mrs. Beana Williams, Mrs. Martha Simon, Mrs. Doris Dickinson, Mrs. Leah Reichman and Mrs. Hazel Rohrer.

Toketee Ladies Host Officers

On Monday, October 10, the Ladies of Toketee Lions met with the State Lions Auxiliary president, Mrs. Frank Christian of Medford, and the district director of 36E, Mrs. Ronald Larson of Bandon.

Six regular members, two prospective members and the two state officers enjoyed dinner in the Satellite Room at the airport.

After dinner the group went to the home of Mrs. Keith Coddington on McClellan Drive where a joint meeting was held with the Klamath Falls Lions Auxiliary.

Chrysler Corporation's low-price compact at reduced prices for 1961!

Valiant is running around with other men's wives all over town. Why not yours?

What makes Valiant such a matinee idol? Good looks, of course. A case of love at first sight for most women. Courty manner. Caters to a lady's slightest whim, skipping through tangled traffic or scooting into a size 7 parking space. Valiant's the strong, silent type—as you'd expect of its unitized body.

Valiant's Torsion-Aire suspension carpets the roughest roads around. And what a beautiful bargain. Valiant—a low-priced compact last year—has reduced prices for 1961! And its inclined engine sips fuel so sparingly, it often seems Valiant is running on its good looks alone. Wouldn't it be a good idea to introduce your bride to Valiant right now?

Enjoy "The Garry Moore Plymouth Show" and "Mr. Garlund" each week on CBS Television.

Looks and drives like twice the price
