

MRS. ROBERT N. VIDALIN
(Rosalie Pinelli)
—Photo by Ferebee

Rosalie Pinelli Bride Of Robert N. Vidalin

Rosalie Pinelli, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sandrino Pinelli, became the bride of Robert N. Vidalin of Santa Rosa on October 1 at Sacred Heart Catholic Church. He is the son of Mrs. Winifred Vidalin of Santa Rosa. The 11 o'clock nuptial mass was officiated by Msgr. T. P. Casey before a background of white gladioli at the altar and behind the railing. White satin bows marked the pews along the center aisle.

Mrs. D. C. Heffley was the organist and accompanist for Mrs. Hank Minton, soloist.

Susan Pinelli, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Pinelli of this city, was flower girl and Sammy Piseni, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Piseni of Santa Rosa, was ring bearer. They preceded the bride and her father who gave her in marriage.

The bridegroom was of Chantilly lace and bouquet taffeta. Seed pearls and sequins outlined the Sabrina neckline. The bouffant skirt was made with panels of handpleated lace and chapel train. The elbow length veil of English silk illusion was caught to a sophisticated peau de soie pillowbox trimmed with pearls and a rose at the back. The bride's bouquet of cymbidium orchids and stephanotis streamers also held a crystal rosary, gift of the bridegroom. She wore the traditional blue garter and a lace handkerchief borrowed from Bruna Babbini. "Something old" was a slip which had belonged to her grandmother and "something new," cultured pearl earrings, gift of the bridegroom.

Lillian Pinelli was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were

Lady Elks Stage Luau

YREKA — Approximately 170 persons attended the Hawaiian luau given Sunday night by the Lady Elks, held in the Pythian Hall, which had been transformed into an exotic setting with the use of artificial palms, tropical flowers and fish netting.

Arrangements of water lilies, palm leaves, pineapples and coconuts, and lighted candles centered the tables from which the Hawaiian feast was served. To add to the festive island setting, those attending wore gay informal clothes, with leis and Hawaiian hats.

For entertainment, Hawaiian dance numbers were performed by Chereen Ferber and Nicki Evans, students of Daryl's Dance Studio, and violin selections were played by Charlene Cordes, who was accompanied by Mrs. Joyce Sanderson, pianist.

Mrs. R. D. Baumbach was the Lady Elks chairman for the event, and decorations were done by Mrs. George Bray, Mrs. Harry Crebbin, Mrs. Jim LeBaron, Mrs. Harris Messner, Mrs. Louis Robin, Mrs. Pete Schlueter and Mrs. Robert Scott.

Rainbow Girls Seat Officers

MALIN—At the 33rd public installation of the Order of Rainbow for Girls, Malin Assembly, held September 20, in the Malin Masonic Temple, Shirley Bunnell was installed as worthy adviser. The welcome address was given by Florence Wilson and installing officers for the ceremony were Donna Micka, worthy adviser; Marcia Kenyon, chaplain; Wanda Sarutski, recorder; Glynn Weatherby, marshal; Mrs. Eileen Herringshaw, soloist; Tom Cronon, musician; Mrs. Virginia Blohm, mother adviser.

Performing the crowning ceremony was Hab Wilson, assisted by Donna Lee Micka. While Shirley knelt at the altar Mrs. Eileen Herringshaw sang "I'll Walk With God."

Officers installed were Shirley Bunnell, worthy adviser; Susan Whitman, worthy associate adviser; Maralee Lyon, charity; Judy Huffman, hope; Susan William, faith; Cathy Kenyon, recorder; Linda Reber, treasurer; Gwen Kirkpatrick, chaplain; Lois Owens, drill leader; Peggy Long, love; Darla Micka, religion; Loudean Lyon, confidential observer; Andy Oliver, outer observer and Carol Merrille, musician.

An addenda written by Mrs. Florence Wilson and presented by Mrs. Virginia Blohm honoring both Donna Lee and Shirley was given by all the officers of the assembly. Donna Lee Micka was presented with a past worthy adviser's pin. On behalf of the Malin Assembly Linda Ingram presented the new worthy adviser a bouquet of deep pink roses.

The theme chosen by the new worthy adviser for her term of office was "I'll Walk With God." Her colors are rose and white.

Honored guests introduced were Mrs. Louis Kalina, Mrs. Mervyn Wilde and Mrs. L. B. Schreiner, past mother advisers of the Malin Assembly; Mrs. Wayne Rick, Judy Cunningham, Marcia Kenyon, Glynn Weatherby and Phyllis Unruh, past worthy advisers of the Malin Assembly.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kalina, worthy patron and matron of Prosperity Chapter, OES, were also guests.

Playing a piano solo was Tom Cronon from Klamath Falls. The benediction was given by the Rev. Eileen Whitman. Refreshments were served following the program.

Guests offered congratulations to the newlyweds at a reception in the parish hall. A three tiered wedding cake topped with yellow bells was first cut by the bride couple with a silver knife decorated with white lilies, gift of Mr. and Mrs. A. Piseni. The cake was served by Mrs. Bonnie Hurley of San Francisco. Mrs. Birdie Glemberg of Sebastopol poured coffee and R. H. Cotter attended the punch bowl. Diana Zancaner of Sacramento held the guest book. Presiding at a children's punch table was Maria Burnett.

Rosa Marie Pinetti and Sylvia Pinelli gave to each guest a packet of confetti tied in net with small bouquet of baby breath.

Following the reception a dinner was served at Lucca's Cafe. The newlyweds honeymooned in Los Angeles and Lake Tahoe. Mrs. Vidalin's travel ensemble was a champagne colored brocade dress, moss green accessories and the bridal orchid as a corsage.

Mrs. Vidalin was graduated from Sacred Heart Academy and attended dental nursing school in San Francisco. The bridegroom attended Santa Rosa Junior College and is associated with Sonoma Linen Company in Santa Rosa where they will reside at 4785 Newanga Avenue.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. John Mori and Mr. and Mrs. A. Piseni, Santa Rosa; Mrs. Inese Babbini, Healdsburg; Mr. and Mrs. Gene Giano, Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. James River, Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Pasqual Sartor and Mr. and Mrs. G. Zanotto, all of Weed; John Nani, San Jose; Diana Zancaner, Sacramento; Mr. and Mrs. M. Silva, Montague.

Several showers were given in Santa Rosa and this city to honor the bride prior to her marriage.

SEE PAGE 3
in Today's Family Weekly
Then Go To DICK REEDER'S

for a PERFECT WEDDING

- ★ Announcements
- ★ Invitations
- ★ Bride's Books
- ★ Plates and cups
- ★ Napkins
- ★ Bibles

SHAW
STATIONERY COMPANY
729 Main Ph. TU 2-2586

MRS. JACK DOUGLAS THOMAS
(Carole Jeanne Hedington)
—Photo by Ferebee

Tulelake Couple Wed In Presbyterian Church

Beauty baskets of pink and white asters and chrysanthemums and white tapers in tall candelabra formed the background for the wedding of Carole Jeanne Hedington and Jack Douglas Thomas in the Community Presbyterian Church of Tulelake on October 2 at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Mary Hedington and Victor Hedington and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Thomas, all of Tulelake.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The double ring ceremony was read in the presence of approximately 200 guests by the Rev. Wayne Waltman. The organist and accompanist was Mrs. Harvey Greenback. Gwen McCracken sang "O Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bridal gown of nylon lace and satin was fashioned with fitted bodice, long tapered sleeves and bateau neckline. It was buttoned at the wrists and from below the waist to neckline in back with tiny satin buttons. The full skirt of satin was floor length. A seed pearl crown held the fingertip veil of illusion. The crown and veil were borrowed from a friend, Mrs. Josephine Mendes of San Francisco. The bride carried a bouquet of pink roses and stephanotis on her Rainbow Bible. Her blue garter was borrowed from the matron of honor. She wore a penny of the year of her birth in her slipper. Cultured pearl earrings were a gift of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Darla Decious Lusk of Oakland was matron of honor. Vicki Hedington, sister of the bride, and Kay Parsons of Berkeley were bridesmaids. The matron of honor wore a street length dress of mint green brocade tulle and carried a cascade bouquet of bronze chrysanthemums. The bridesmaids wore pink brocade dresses identical in style to that of the matron of honor. They carried green chrysanthemums. All wore headbands matching their dresses.

3 minutes reading this new booklet

can FREE you forever from wearing glasses!

This booklet gives you the answers to all of your questions about Contact Lenses in a brief, easy-to-understand manner. No obligation—no purchase required. Come in to any of our eight conveniently located offices and pick up your copy while they are still available.

Convenient Credit

Dr. Niles
optometrist

our 55th year
COLUMBIAN OPTICAL CO.
730 Main Ph. TU 4-7121

*Mrs. Omar J. Niles and Robert Peters

Barry - Cossey Nuptials Solemnized In Lakeview

LAKEVIEW — A Nuptial Mass and double ring ceremony at St. Patrick Catholic Church in Lakeview Saturday morning, September 10, marked the wedding of Wanda Sue Cossey and Jere Patrick Barry. Father Peter Duignan officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard S. Cossey of Lakeview and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. M. P. J. Barry and the late M. P. J. Barry, longtime Lakeview residents.

Large baskets of white gladioli were used for church decorations. Mrs. M. M. Barry was organist and accompanist for John Barry, brother of the bridegroom, who sang "Ave Maria" and "My Rosary."

The bride's gown of Chantilly lace was floor length with fitted bodice and long sleeves. Scallop finished the edge of the neck and hemlines. A pearl tiara held her fingertip veil of illusion. The bridal bouquet was of white roses and stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Flocks of the attendants formed the color theme of fall. Josephine Barry of The Dalles, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor and she wore a waltz length dress of rust colored organza over tulle. The bridesmaids, Mrs. Linda Cossey, sister-in-law of the bride, and Mrs. Lois Moss, a cousin, wore shades of green in similar frocks. Each carried nosegays with flowers of rust shades.

Best man was William P. Barry of Pullman, brother of the bridegroom. Ushers were Gordon Emery of Silver Lake and Glenn Cleland of Adel. Altar boys were Michael Stoffel, a nephew of the bridegroom, and Henry Albertson.

Mrs. Cossey's ensemble was a beige sheath dress of organza and tulle with bone colored accessories, and Mrs. Barry wore an afternoon dress in shades of burgundy. Both had corsages of white orchids.

At the reception in the parish hall the cake was served by Pat Welch. Sylvia Cleland and Louise McLane poured the punch; Irene Lemke, the coffee; Jennie Welch had the guest book, and Joanie Welch and Sandra Mulkey received the gifts.

An ensemble in lavender was chosen by the bride for her travel outfit. She wore the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The couple is now at home in Lakeview following a two-week wedding trip to Canada and the Midwest. Both are graduates of Lakeview High School. The bride attended the Medford Beauty School, and the bridegroom, Oregon State College.

burgundy. Both had corsages of white orchids.

At the reception in the parish hall the cake was served by Pat Welch. Sylvia Cleland and Louise McLane poured the punch; Irene Lemke, the coffee; Jennie Welch had the guest book, and Joanie Welch and Sandra Mulkey received the gifts.

An ensemble in lavender was chosen by the bride for her travel outfit. She wore the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The couple is now at home in Lakeview following a two-week wedding trip to Canada and the Midwest. Both are graduates of Lakeview High School. The bride attended the Medford Beauty School, and the bridegroom, Oregon State College.

State Officer Visits Auxiliary

Mrs. Frank Christian of Talent, state president of Oregon Lions auxiliaries, made her official visit to the Klamath Falls Lions Auxiliary which met October 10 at the home of Mrs. Keith Coddington. Mrs. Christian was accompanied by Mrs. Ronald Larson of Bandon, director of District E.

One of the official duties of the state president is to visit all state auxiliaries which now number 82 with a membership of 1,800 women in Oregon.

Members of Toketee Auxiliary were guests at the meeting. Received into the auxiliary were four new members, Mrs. Dick Green, Mrs. Victor Samples, Mrs. Carl Bartlett and Mrs. James Mosely.

Co-hostesses with Mrs. Coddington were Mrs. James Patterson, Mrs. Marvin Lucas and Mrs. Walter Weisendanger.

Mrs. Harlan Dexter will be hostess at the November meeting. Maury Clark will be present to show films of his recent trip to Germany.

R. N. Rinabarger, Charlotte Parsons of Burlingame attended the guest book. Karen Porterfield and Marilee Rinabarger received gifts.

For the wedding trip to Reno, Virginia City and Lassen Park the bride changed to a gold wool sheath dress with brown accessories. Her corsage was pink roses.

Both young people are graduates of Tulelake High School. They will reside in San Francisco where they will attend school.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Decious, Chico; Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hosick, Mrs. Earle Green and Mrs. Ernest Johnson, all of Yreka; Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Norris, Brownsville; Mrs. Jay B. Snow, Salem; Mrs. Earl Epoch, Klamath Falls; Mrs. Rance Stover and Mrs. Norwood Bourdon, Warden, Washington.

MRS. JERE PATRICK BARRY
(Wanda Sue Cossey)
—Photo by Jones Studio, Lakeview

Portland Rites Unite Couple

The marriage of Helen Ray Hutchinson, daughter of Mrs. Harold Leslie Hutchinson and the late Harold Hutchinson, to Richard Carl Lolcama was solemnized on Friday, October 14, at St. Peter's Episcopal Church in Portland. The Rev. Kent L. Haley officiated at the quiet ceremony attended by members of the families.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Peter Gerard Croes of Portland and the late Clarence Milo Lolcama. He is a former resident of Klamath Falls.

The new Mrs. Lolcama, formerly of Ocean Springs, Mississippi, attended Lewis and Clark College and was graduated from Millsaps College in Jackson, Mississippi, in June of this year.

Her husband is attending the University of Oregon. They will reside in Eugene.

VISITOR HONORED LANGELL VALLEY — Mrs.

Lloyd Gift entertained at her home the afternoon of October 12 in honor of Mrs. Eleanor Peterson who is visiting her son, Oscar Peterson, and family of Bonanza, from her home at Caldwell, Idaho. Others enjoying the refreshments and social afternoon were Mrs. Jack Metter, Mrs. Paul Monroe, Mrs. Doug Smelter, Mrs. Oscar Peterson and Mrs. Jack Lynch.

Members of Toketee Auxiliary were guests at the meeting. Received into the auxiliary were four new members, Mrs. Dick Green, Mrs. Victor Samples, Mrs. Carl Bartlett and Mrs. James Mosely.

Co-hostesses with Mrs. Coddington were Mrs. James Patterson, Mrs. Marvin Lucas and Mrs. Walter Weisendanger.

Mrs. Harlan Dexter will be hostess at the November meeting. Maury Clark will be present to show films of his recent trip to Germany.

R. N. Rinabarger, Charlotte Parsons of Burlingame attended the guest book. Karen Porterfield and Marilee Rinabarger received gifts.

For the wedding trip to Reno, Virginia City and Lassen Park the bride changed to a gold wool sheath dress with brown accessories. Her corsage was pink roses.

Both young people are graduates of Tulelake High School. They will reside in San Francisco where they will attend school.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Decious, Chico; Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hosick, Mrs. Earle Green and Mrs. Ernest Johnson, all of Yreka; Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Norris, Brownsville; Mrs. Jay B. Snow, Salem; Mrs. Earl Epoch, Klamath Falls; Mrs. Rance Stover and Mrs. Norwood Bourdon, Warden, Washington.

Specially Priced!

Coats

New Fall Styles
Assorted Fabrics

29⁹⁵
Values to 49.98

All from regular stock.
No special purchases.
Tweeds and solids.
All are Milium lined.

Suits

Entire stock of better suits. All famous brands. Many styles and fabrics.

20% off

FOULGER'S Leons
525 Main

MOVADO KINGMATICS

Reign Supreme Over All
Self-Winding Watches.

The most advanced, the most dependable automatic movements made... the most handsome styling. New Kingmatic calendar models feature an instantaneous patented date setting mechanism.

Square Kingmatics: With calendar, in 14K gold, $210; Without calendar, in 14K gold, $195.
Round Kingmatics: Subsea, Water Resistant With calendar, 14K gold, $200; St. Steel, Bezel topped with 14K gold, $145; St. Steel, $115; Without calendar, in 14K gold, $195; St. Steel, Bezel topped with 14K gold, $135; St. Steel, $100.
Fed. Tax Incl.

MOVADO
for those whose moments are precious

"Charge It"

Prickys Jewelers

700 Main St. and Town & Country