College Grid Back To Emotional Era

By OSCAR FRALEY

NEW YORK (UPI) — In college football once again today the kids are ready to "die for dear old Rutgers."

That's the explanation from Columbia coach Buff Donelli for the weekly wave of upsets. It is due primarily, he says, to emotional and psychological reasons as much as to physical activity.

"The older, I've-seen-everything crop we had after the war is gone," he explains, "and we're back again in an era of emotions."

This is the reason he avers behind such unpredictable events as Purdue whipping Ohio State, 24-21; Ohio State beating Wisconsin, 34-7, and then Wisconsin upending Purdue 24-13.

"There is more emotion than there ever has been," insists the former Duquesne, Boston University and pro coach who is trying to "eliminate" what he refers to as "the Columbia spirit."

Expect To Lose

"Columbia for years has played with a defeatist attitude," snorts the quiet but highly competitive Donelli. "It seems to be a built-in feeling that we fight like blazes to a certain point and then it's almost as if they expected to lose or are expected to lose. Overcoming this 'Columbia Spirit' is my biggest problem but, fortunately, we are back in an era in which spirit and emotion once more are workable factors."

The published point spreads are a major factor in contributing to the "upset," too, Donelli holds.

"It can work two ways," he argues. "Sometimes when a team reads where it is a seven or 15-point underdog, it gets fired up and goes out and wins with a we'll-show-'em attitude. On the other hand, reading where they are seven or 15-point favorites can steady a team which lacks confidence in itself."

Orange An Example

Syracuse is a prime example, Donelli says, of how point spreads can affect a team.

"They were rated overwhelming favorites in some of their early games, couldn't get fired up and therefore barely pulled through," he analyzed. "But now it looks like they've found themselves and become fired up just as they hit the big games."

The value of the emotional lift is supported by Capt. Asbury (Red) Coward, the World War II hero who is director of athletics at the Naval Academy. Because the undefeated Middies, he says, are a definite "surprise."

"At the risk of being called corny," Red illustrates, "we have gone this far so well because of the closest unity and the highest spirit — because of hustle and spirit which has spread through and is shared by the whole brigade."

Everyone A Rooter

At Navy they have what they call "3,800 blue and gold specials." That means every man in the Academy is solidly behind the team.

"They hold tremendous rallies and even the seniors are bustling with enthusiasm," Coward explains. "This, of course, has a tremendous effect on the team and the kids put out even better than they know how."

As a case in point, he told how sophomore Steve Hoy of Santa Monica, Calif., came all the way up from fourth string to become a first team guard. And Jim Luper of Iowa City came off Navy's Olympic crew to nail down an end berth.

"Spirit and emotion has made them winning football players," cut in Donelli. "It's the major item in the college game today."

And, in what you might describe as poetic justice, Rutgers is undefeated, too.

Razorback Linebacker Draws Raves

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Arkansas' Wayne Harris is small for a college lineman, but Razorback Coach Frank Broyles says, "I don't see how anybody could be a better college football player."

Harris, a center and linebacker known for his hard tackles, earned that praise last Saturday against mighty Mississippi. Though the Rebels eked out a 10-7 victory, Harris keyed a stout Arkansas defense which allowed Ole Miss to start only eight plays in Razorback territory.

The 185-pound Harris uses speed and determination, plus an uncanny ability to get in on the tackle, to make up for any lack of size.

Against Mississippi he was in on almost half the tackles. He made six unassisted. Such defensive leadership is expected from Harris. Through the first six games he had a total of 35 tackles and 68 assists.

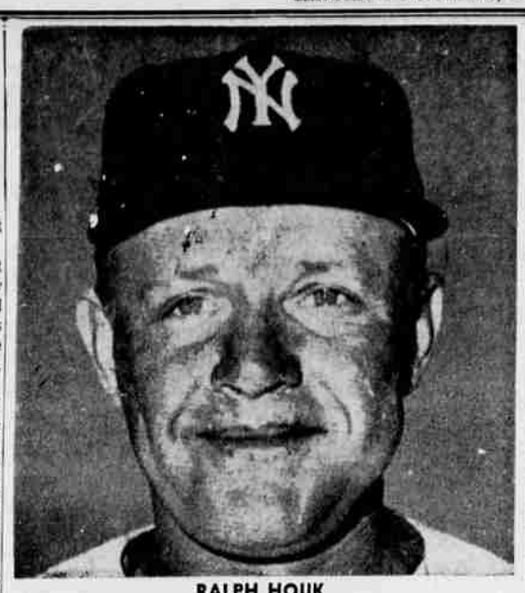
The El Dorado, Ark., product doesn't worry about his size.

"I just try to hit them harder than they hit me and faster," he says. "If I don't they'll run right over me."

STARS ON ICE

DENVER (AP) — Shirley Carlson, 19, and Monty Hoyt, 15, are the first Denver figure skaters to win the prized Gold Medal, highest non-competitive amateur achievement in the sport. The medal awards are made by the United States Figure Skating Assn.

To earn the award, the skater must pass a series of nine compulsory and free-skating tests, each successively more difficult. Miss Carlson is a junior at the University of Colorado. Hoyt is a junior at George Washington High School.



RALPH HOUK

Houk Chooses Sain To Coach Pitchers

NEW YORK (UPI)—New York Yankee manager Ralph Houk had the nucleus of a coaching staff today and was expected to complete his board of strategy by mid-week.

Houk, who avowed he would run his own team when he succeeded Casey Stengel, Monday selected Johnny Sain as "my type of pitching coach."

Veteran third base coach Frank Crosetti was re-hired for his 30th consecutive season with the Yankees.

Other possibilities to round out the staff include Jim Hegan, Hank Bauer and Tommy Henrich.

Sain, who formed a potent pitching combination with Warren Spahn in the National League a decade ago, replaces Eddie Lopat. A 43-year-old former Braves and Yankee hurler, Sain retired from active competition five years ago.

"I was out in the Yankee bullpen with Sain for several years," Houk said, "and I know and agree with the theories he had on pitching. Sain had to fight his way to the top and he learned a lot about pitching doing it."

Sain, who stayed out of baseball last season, said the Yankee job was one of the few he would accept. His last assignment was as a Kansas City coach in 1959.

Keglers Set For All-Star Eliminations

Elimination action to determine the field for the 20th annual All-Star Bowling Tournament will be held at Lucky Lanes Saturday and Sunday, October 29 and 30.

Play will start at 6 p.m. Saturday and at noon on Sunday.

The top bowlers from Medford, Grants Pass, Ashland and Lakeview will be on hand to compete for tournament slots. Entrants will roll 12 lines each day under the Peterson Point scoring system.

Last year, four Klamath Falls bowlers, Al Hakenwerth, Bob Victorin, Carl Lane and Jerry Cote, qualified. Cote was the second highest qualifier in the state.

The state title was won by Champ Husted of Milwaukie. Hakenwerth placed tenth and Lane twelfth.

The 1960 finals will be held in Medford on November 5-6. The top three finishers will continue to the national finals.

The entry fee for the weekend event is $25. Anyone who bowls in a member establishment of the Bowling Proprietors Association of America is eligible. For further information contact Merle Hanscam at TU 2-5536.

BOAT SAFETY VIOLATORS

BELMONT, N.C. (AP)—Game wardens who patrol the Catawba River, boundary of North Carolina and South Carolina, enforcing boating safety and registration laws, are tired of being outrun by larger, faster boats. The wardens, who use outboards, say some violators speed to sanctuary across the South Carolina line. "At night, they just crank up and take off when they see our red lights," one warden complained.

What To Do: Play Safe, Or Gamble

WASHINGTON (UPI) — You're the coach of the Washington Redskins, you have first and 10 on your own 20, there are only eight seconds to play and the game is tied 27-27.

What do you order your quarterback to do? Run out the clock and preserve the tie? Or gamble on a last-ditch "bomb" and try for a victory?

That was the situation here last Sunday when the Washington Redskins were playing the Pittsburgh Steelers. The choice was coach Mike Nixon's and he didn't hesitate: he told quarterback Ralph Guglielmi to freeze the ball and play it safe.

The Goog did — and more than 25,000 fans erupted in mighty boos. They wanted at least an attempt to break the tie. And Nixon himself was questioned sharply about his decision at the Redskins' weekly press luncheon.

"I'd do it again," Nixon snapped just as sharply. "If Goog had passed and it was picked off, Pittsburgh had one more time out left and could have gone for a field goal. Anytime I can clinch a tie instead of taking a chance that could cost us a game, I'll take the tie. I'm sorry the fans felt otherwise but I think we did the right thing."

"Sometimes," observed owner George Preston Marshall, "a coach and the players must protect the fans from themselves."

Marshall then chuckled and added:

"Sometimes a coach has to protect himself from the owner, too. If Mike had gone for the bomb, I would have shot him."

VARIETY OF CARS

ELKHART LAKE, Wis. (AP)—Seventeen different classes of sports cars have competed at Road America since the course was constructed in 1955. Only woman ever to win the race is Denise McCluggage who drove an Osca to victory in an 80-mile race last September.

Fights Return To KF

Back Injury Stops Fighter; 'Bang-Bang' Walker Slated

An injured back hurt doing calisthenics in training has forced Floyd "The Bomber" Palmer to cancel out on a scheduled main event go set for this Thursday night at the Klamath Falls Armory.

Expressing regrets for the necessary cancellation, Palmer has expressed willingness to appear at a later date and fulfill his contract with promoter Sonny Enders. The setback handed Enders in Palmer canceling out, was short lived, and the signing of popular Jimmy "Bang Bang" Walker to replace Palmer in the headline spot will go for creating more local interest and ensure the fans a real scrap.

In accepting the bout Walker said, "Man, I'll fight anybody to get a chance to return to Klamath Falls. Can you get me Jimmy Grow?" Enders immediately got busy on the phone and is attempting to line up Grow for the other spot on the card.

Walker, well known to fans in this area from pleasing performances in the past, has been campaigning in Northwest rings and is one of the most popular fighters appearing today.

Ambitious to return to K. Falls to make his home, "Bang Bang" has hopes of opening a barber shop in Klamath Falls. He will arrive in town a few days before the bout to complete training. Walker's eagerness to meet Grow is easy to understand since in his last bout he hospitalized Grow with a broken jaw, fractured nose and eye cuts. After having Grow out of the ring on three occasions the decision went against Walker in Grow's home town, Clarkston, Idaho.

Swede Johnson, who was scheduled to meet Palmer in the main go, has accepted a bout with "Irish" Jack O'Reilly in the six-round semi. This bout, matching two light heavies, will go a long way toward establishing one of these boys as a top contender for heavyweight honors in the NW and a win here will gain one of them a main event shot on a future card in Klamath Falls or Medford.

O'Reilly, undefeated as a pro in six bouts, and former holder of Midwest GG title, has been touted as an outstanding prospect and offers have been made to his manager, Al Gross, by eastern bigwigs for his contract.

Three more bouts will complete the card and Enders will announce them in the next few days.

3800 Blue-Gold Specials: Navy

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It takes much more than Joe Bellino to make a good football team, and that includes players like Joe Matalavage and Hal Spooner, too.

This trio forms the nucleus of a Navy football attack that has rolled to six consecutive victories, nine straight in two seasons, is currently ranked fourth nationally, and this week tackles Notre Dame in Philadelphia's Municipal Stadium. A crowd of 90,000 is expected.

But there is more to success than meets the football eye, according to Naval Academy Athletic Director Asbury (Red) Coward, and he is backed up by Coach Wayne Hardin. Both would be the last in the world to sell the team down the Severn River, but they make valid points.

Coward sums it up under the title "3800 Blue and Gold Special." Not a train mind you, but what he calls the unity and esprit of the brigade of midshipmen.

"They have the highest unity and spirit that we've seen at Annapolis in a long, long time," he said today.

Coward said the brigade spirit has rubbed off on the team, which he called "a complete surprise. We knew we had a representative team, but never expected a 6-0 record.

"Our effort has been a team effort," he said. "When we have an injury and a boy moves up from the second or third team, he doesn't give you a second or third team effort. All of a sudden he's doing a first team job.

"It's nice to have a Bellino, but he's not alone," Coward continued. "Who ever heard of (Ron) McKeown, or (Jim) Luper or (Larry) Graham. McKeown came from the third team when Capt. Joe Matalavage was hurt, and now he and Matalavage share the job."

After Navy upset the University of Washington, which Coward called "the bellweather of the season," Hardin paid tribute to the team effort.

"We have somebody out there besides Joe Bellino," Hardin said. "The Washington victory proved that. In 1959, when we lost a couple of ball games we needed that little extra but it wasn't there. This year we have it. We started with a name star, Bellino, but these kids have really come on their own."

But even with the team effort, Bellino is the outstanding Navy performer. He established a single season scoring record for the academy when he scored his 68th point in Navy's 27-0 victory over Penn last Saturday.

However, there was no doubt that fellows like Matalavage, Graham, Luper, and company were present. Anyone with half an ear could tell their buddies from Annapolis were on the premises too.

Gator Bowl Changes Rule

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — The Gator Bowl football game Dec. 31 will be played under free substitution rules.

George Olsen, general manager of the Gator Bowl Association, today announced the plan to hold the game between college teams under professional rules.

"We would expect a more wide open offensive game with the players doing their specialties," Olsen said.

Several coaches have been outspoken this fall against the so-called wild card substitution rule which permits one player to enter at any time but still generally restricts entry and makes it necessary to coach players on both defense and offense.

Hungarians Get Word

BUDAPEST (AP) — Hungarian footballers were told today they should learn to love their opponents, not call them dirty names.

The newspaper Nepsport said a Communist society expected certain rules of "human together-living" to be honored and those who broke them should be "re-educated."

Nepsport said it was all too frequent for one player tackling another to say "How are you, you . . ."

And for the other to reply: "I'm fine, you . . ."

The paper added far too many footballers who had been fairly tackled "played the moribund toreador like third-rate actors, writhing on the ground in sham agony while watching the referee through their fingers."

Laker Debut Disappointing

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The debut of the Los Angeles Lakers in their new home in the Sports Arena was an all-round disappointment.

The New York Knickerbockers beat the Lakers 111-101 in a National Basketball Association game Monday night before only 4,008 fans.

It was the third consecutive defeat for Los Angeles, which has yet to win a game this season.

The 1961 Eastern Intercollegiate gymnastic championships will be held at the U. S. Naval Academy, March 3-4.

'60 Football Better Game Says Mentor

By DAVID M. NELSON
Head Football Coach
University of Delaware (Written for The Associated Press)

Football in 1960 is a better game in every respect than at any time during its history.

The regulations of the conferences and other governing bodies have made the conduct of the game and the academic and eligibility requirements commensurate with the institutional setting.

This, coupled with pressure for better scholars brought about by the great influx of students and the sputnik influence, has brought the quality of the student athlete to an all-time high.

The actual playing and conduct of football is superior to anything we have known in the past because of time, money and effort.

Great coaches and players of the past would be outstanding and successful in this era but the number of men of equal quality is far greater today.

The modern coach has more assistants, spends the entire year with the game, has a single assignment and has access to information never available to former coaches. The enormous number of periodicals, manuals, books and clinics enable the coach in the smallest school to keep in step with the latest ideas in all aspects of the game.

There was a time, before television, game movies and clinics when a coach could use an offensive or defensive idea for several years without ever changing. Today a new idea, or the remedy for it, is spread over the entire country within a year.

A successful defense, or offense, seen on television will have the minds of all the coaches in the country working on a method to break it.

As a consequence, coaches are forced to coach a game with a greater variety of situations and the spectator is treated to a better game.

Buff Center Boosts Total

NEW YORK (UPI) — Larry Wilson, who was responsible for all but one of the nine goals the Buffalo Bisons scored last week, has taken the lead in the American Hockey League scoring race.

The veteran center scored three goals and five assists despite three losing efforts by Buffalo to boost his season point total to 14. Wilson is trailed closely by Bill Sweeney of Springfield, who has 13 points on six goals and seven assists.

Brian Kilrea of Springfield and Norm Corcoran of Quebec are tied for third place with 12 points each.

Springfield's Marcel Paille leads the goaltenders with an average of 2.00 on 16 goals permitted in eight games. He also leads in shutouts with three.

Dickie Moore Tops Scorers

MONTREAL (UPI) — Two-time scoring champion Dickie Moore, one of six Montreal Canadiens on the National Hockey League's top ten scoring list, leads the circuit's point makers today with 14.

The 29-year-old left winger was blanked in his last three games, but his nine goals and five assists were still good enough to give him a two-point lead over two teammates — Bernie (Boom-Boom) Goeffrion and Jean Beliveau — and Norm Ullman of Detroit, all with 12 points, official statistics showed today.

Chicago goalie Glenn Hall, off to one of his best seasons, has been the sharpest of the league's net minders. In eight games he has given up only 13 goals for a sparkling 1.62 goals-per-game average.

Oiler Leading

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Houston's Dave Smith, for the seventh straight week, leads the American Football League in rushing.

The 204-pound fullback from Greendale, Wis., has carried 73 times for 304 yards and a 4.2 average. Alan Miller of Boston, with 265 yards on 47 carries and a 5.7 average, is second.

George Blanda, the passing and kicking specialist for Houston, retained his scoring lead. The Oiler quarterback has racked up 69 points on four touchdowns, 21 extra points and eight field goals.

Gene Mingo of Denver is second with 55 points.
