

Waterhouse Poll Shows Nixon Broadening Lead

PORTLAND (AP) — The latest Waterhouse Poll shows Vice President Nixon gaining in Multnomah County, says the Republican national committeeman, Lowell Paget.

Paget said he and a group of others had the Waterhouse organization poll Multnomah County voters.

In the first poll, he said, Nixon was rated as being favored by 51.9 per cent and Sen. John F. Kennedy by only 46.6 per cent. This was three weeks ago.

The second in what is to be a series of three polls, Paget said, gives Nixon 53.3 per cent and Kennedy 44.5.

He said that in the latest poll only 75.3 per cent of the Democrats of the county said they would vote for Kennedy while 90.8 per cent of Republicans said they would vote for Nixon.

The smallest U.S. national park is Platt in southern Oklahoma. It features cold mineral springs and is 912 acres in area.

Colorado Firm Leases Mine

LAKEVIEW — Further interest in uranium mining was revealed here this week with the announcement that White King Mine has been leased by Vance Thornburg of Grand Junction, Colorado.

The original lease was held by Lakeview Mining Company, made up of Thornburg, his brother, the late Garth Thornburg; Perry Bask, the Murchison interests and the late Sid Richardson.

Mining was started in 1956 to produce ore for the company's reduction plant in Lakeview, but there has been no production since last fall and the lease was recently dropped.

Thornburg plans to begin mining in the spring.

Other uranium activity was noted recently when owners of the Lucky Lass Mine, located about a mile west of the White King, started an open-pit mining operation and hauling ore to the plant.
