

ELKS AND THEIR LADIES will dance Saturday night, October 29, in the Elks Temple when witches and black cats will be hiding 'round the corners. Dancing will be from 10 p.m. to 2 a.m. to music by the "Dancemasters." The dance will be semi-formal. Making arrangements, in addition to others, were seated, left to right, Stan Ezell, Mrs. Stan Ezell, Mrs. Clyde Hutchins, Mrs. Jim Crismon. Standing, same order, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Prock and Jim Crismon.

HOME EXTENSION

Three units, Conger - Fairview, Poe Valley - Olene and Lindley Heights, had "Foods to Tote" for their luncheon meal at their October meetings. All members participated in the preparations.

Four members of the Conger-Fairview unit reported on the recent trip to Grants Pass.

Prizes were won by Laura Moore, Fran Hayes and Neva Hayes.

Because of election day the next meeting of the Poe Valley-Olene unit will be November 9. Lindley Heights unit has planned a special inducement for members who arrive at meetings on time beginning with the November meeting.

Wild game cookery will be the topic for unit study during November.

A reminder is given concerning the Craft Show to be held October 29 in the exhibit building at the fairgrounds.

Anyone having inexpensive easy-to-make Christmas gifts is asked to please display them.

Other displays will feature ribbon tying and gift wrapping, cake decorating, mosaics, fiber flowers, textile painting, natural craft, copper wire jewelry, basket weaving and candle making. The public is invited.

KENO UNIT

Bertha Slusser was hostess to the Keno Home Extension Unit at her home on October 12. The project, foods to tote, was conducted by Velda Davison.

There were 17 members present and three guests, Mabel Cochran, Ora Smith and Fern Smith, the latter who became a member.

The roll was called by Morieete Buckingham, secretary. June Sandusky, treasurer, gave her report.

Members were reminded of the craft fair scheduled for October 29 at the fairgrounds.

A special prize was won by Sarah Erlie.

RIVERSIDE SCHOOL

"Your Child and Your School" is always the topic for each September, said Ray Hunsaker, superintendent of the city schools, when he addressed the October meeting of the Riverside PTA on the evening of October 18. He outlined the tasks for both the school and home. The school, he stated, has the task of providing an environment for learning, of imparting the facts, of stressing our cultural heritage, and of aiding the child in finding himself and his place in our society. On the other hand the task of the parents is to provide a secure and happy home atmosphere, to see to the well being of the child, to stress the desire to learn and to be interested in the activities of the child. "It is impossible to fool children in your interest toward them," Mr. Hunsaker affirmed. Both school and parents working toward the same end, the welfare of the child, it will be accomplished.

The business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Mike Balcom, president. After the flag salute led by Orin Perkins the standing committee reports were given. It was again announced that the carnival would be held on the evening of November 4, beginning at 7:30 p.m. in the school gym. All are welcome.

O. K. McCart, instructor at OTI, urged the members to be sure to vote "yes" on Proposition No. 6. Don Golding, principal, took the room count which was won by second and fourth grades. He also invited all parents to visit the school during American Education Week, November 7 to 11.

At the close of the business meeting the teachers were in their rooms for parent visitation. The rooms were gay with fall decorations and regular school work as ready for parent inspection. The brightly lighted jack-o-lanterns invited all to refreshments served in the cafeteria by Dorothy McReynolds, Marjorie Naramore, Betty Stride, Clo Cone and Louise Connel.

HAPPY CAMP

HAPPY CAMP—Mrs. Bill Clapson announced at the special meeting of the executive board of the PTA that $1,446 is the goal for the budget this year. Mrs. Clinton Hegler, parliamentarian, called the meeting to order.

In November they will have a turkey shoot in connection with game and food sales. A carnival will be held in the spring. A dime dinner and a PTA membership drive will also be fund-raising activities for the school year.

Herbert Sonneborn, elementary school principal, will contact Wes Bagley for the firing range on his property for the turkey shoot to be held November 13. The Ashland poultry farm said they would donate two 12-pound turkeys for every 10 20-pound turkeys the PTA purchased.

Mrs. Elmer Orrell, Mrs. Floyd

Cantrell and Mrs. Kemppi were appointed for the food concession committee; Mrs. Arnold Davis and Mrs. Albert Atteberry, the soft-drink committee, and Mrs. Kemppi, Mrs. Norman Herman and Mrs. Marvin Sutcliffe, prizes. The Girl Scout group will furnish the popcorn machine. There will be events for everyone.

STEARNS SCHOOL

Orson A. Stearns PTA enjoyed slides and commentary by Isabelle Brixner on her recent trip to New Zealand and Australia at the Thursday meeting, October 13.

Max Marvin, principal, gave some percentages on grading which will be helpful in understanding the first report cards of the year. He also explained legislation proposal No. 6.

The flag salute was led by The Happy Singing Bluebirds, who are directed by Mrs. Russell Walsh.

Mrs. Frank Wryn gave a report on the membership drive and told of a five dollar prize to be awarded the room bringing in the most members.

Refreshments were served by the third grade mothers.

SPOOKS AND GOBLINS set the theme for the annual informal Halloween dance at Reames Golf and Country Club October 29 under the chairmanship of Dr. and Mrs. Harry Fredricks. Mrs. Fredricks, seated right at the table, met recently with the staff side of the committee to arrange for the party. Left to right are Mrs. Ronald Carter, Mrs. Bob Cheyne, Mrs. Tony Molatore, Mrs. Bob Maloney and Mrs. Jim Noel. The cocktail hour, 8 until 9, will be followed by dancing to the music of the Starlighters. At 10 o'clock a buffet, prime ribs and chicken, will be served. Regular dinners will be available from 6 until 9 p.m.

"Newspapers are the best medium for food advertising and for marketing information on food." This was revealed in a report on a recent U.S. Department of Agriculture survey.

SMASH HIT

Broiled skewered shrimp will make an unusual hit with all your guests if you brush the shrimp with garlic butter before you broil it.

Good roast chicken is a favorite of all. For an extra taste treat, add chopped ripe olives to your favorite stuffing. These meaty morsels add a pleasant flavor change.
