

Girl Scout Tea To Honor Founder

Klamath Area Girl Scouts join all councils over the nation this week in commemorating the one hundredth anniversary of the birth of Juliette Low, founder in the United States of the Girl Scout movement.

Born on October 31, 1860, Juliette Low (known to her intimates as Daisy) started the first troop with seven girls in Savannah, Georgia, her home city. From this original troop of seven in 1912, Girl Scouts today in the United States number over 3,400,000.

Girl Scouts of the Klamath Area Council will observe this important occasion with a Mother-Daughter Silver Tea on Saturday, October 29, in the city library party room from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m.

Junior high school troops from Altamont and Fremont are in charge of the appointments for the Juliette Low tea, and will serve as hostesses for the afternoon.

All friends, as well as members of Girl Scouting, are invited to this Mother-Daughter tea which officially launches the Girl Scouts' birthday years program designed to carry through to March 1962 in "Honoring the Past - And Serving the Future."

VISITING at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Storts, and sister, Esther, at 2036 Garden Avenue is Mrs. Edwin (Rosa) Self. She and her husband are both former residents of this city. Mrs. Self will be here about ten days before returning to her home in Oakdale, California. — Photo by Kettler

Gracious Emily Lodge Makes Many Friends

By JOY MILLER
NEW YORK (AP) — Two minutes after you meet Emily Lodge you're chatting with her like someone you've known all your life.

You're pretty surprised, too, if you've been expecting a proper Bostonian matron of formidable dignity and lofty graciousness.

But Mrs. Henry Cabot Lodge, wife of the Republican candidate for the vice presidency, seems so completely unselfconscious and interested in you. You can understand why someone once commented: "Every man in politics should marry an Emily Lodge."

Now on the campaign trail with her husband, she keeps in the background, graciously acknowledging introductions with a smile and saying not a word.

She simply doesn't like to make speeches. She rarely gives an interview, because, she says, "I haven't very much to say. Cabot says it so well. I just pick up the things we forget, pack, see that Cabot's fed, that sort of thing."

But as for campaigning — "I adore it. Since I have no responsibilities and no speechmaking, I can just enjoy meeting people and seeing the beautiful country. There are places I've never been before, such as Northern California."

She doesn't have an opinion about the election outcome. "I don't think that far ahead," she says. "I don't believe in counting my chickens. Or as my father used to say: 'Man proposes, God disposes.' I live for today and do all I can, and don't think beyond to Nov. 8."

"I do think, however, it would be fine if Cabot becomes vice president. I certainly hope he does. He's a very well trained and hardworking man. And he has optimism about people, about this country."

"Elections are terribly exciting. And this one especially. There is so much at stake."

Bethel No. 51

A special day to be remembered for Katherine Ann Helmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Helmer, and Janis Payne whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Tim Wilder was October 17 when they were initiated into Henley Bethel No. 51.

Honored guests introduced were Sandra (Dehlinger) Grant, Maurcen (Lyon) Campbell, and Linda (DeLap) Bliss, all past honored queens of Henley Bethel.

Bethel No. 51 Go To Church Day will be October 30 at Mt. Laki Presbyterian Church.

Members of the Bethel and Lost River DeMolay will meet at the grange hall Saturday evening at 8:30 for a hayride.

ABOARD the Matsonia when it sailed last Monday for Hawaii were Mrs. Bertha Brown, left, and Mrs. Anna Sheldon of Mount Shasta. With headquarters at the Reef Tower Hotel they will visit points of interest for a month before returning home via Pan-American Clipper. Mrs. Rose Kennedy and Mrs. Jean Roberts treated the travelers to farewell dinners at Weed and at the Roberts home prior to their departure. Mrs. Sheldon is associated with D. A. Sheldon and Sons Company and Mrs. Brown is a train dispatcher for the Southern Pacific at Black Butte Station. — Photo by J. O. McKinney

Parents and Patrons

HENLEY SCHOOL

The Henley Parents and Patrons met October 5 at 2:30 p.m. in the school cafeteria. Invocation was given by Mrs. Bonnie Finchum. The president, Mrs. Garrett Hilliard, called the meeting to order. First grade won the room count. The membership chairman reported that the membership drive would start October 10. All parents wishing to join could send money to school with their child. There will be a cash prize awarded to the room with the most members.

The budget was presented for the year 1960-61. There was group discussion and suggestions made on a project to work for this year. The budget was approved as presented.

Mrs. Hilliard then turned the meeting over to program chairman, Mrs. Viola Cheyne. Barbara Dehlinger presented a very interesting talk on the Connally Amendment. Meeting was adjourned.

The first grade mothers served refreshments. The next meeting will be November 2 at the school cafeteria.

SUMMER BEEF, LAMB

During the summer and fall months of this year, the supply of beef and lamb will be more plentiful than last year, according to U.S. Department of Agriculture prediction. There will be less pork than last summer, when pork supplies were unusually large.

SOMETHING NEW

If you're making a chocolate filling for that pie shell you just took out of your oven—this little "twist" will make it more exciting. With scissors, cut enough delicious, succulent shredded coconut to make 1 1/2 cups then fold these finely cut shreds into the cooled chocolate mixture. Toast the coconut first, if you like, to golden brown crispness.
