Cascade Crest Chapter No. 159 held a stated meeting Wednesday, October 19. Worthy Matron Pauline Harris and Worthy Patron Dwight Kircher presided in the east.

Escorted and introduced were Mildred Brattain of Paisley, member of the Home Endowment Fund Committee of the Grand Chapter of Oregon who was making her official visit, and Virginia Zumbun, member of the Estal Committee of the Grand Chapter of Oregon.

First time visitors were Lora Carlin, associate matron of Fremont Chapter No. 169 of Paisley, and Mrs. Owens of Abilene, Texas. The degrees of the order were conferred upon Dorothea and Ger-don Kuist and Freda and Frank Hale of Chiloquin.

Under good of the order Mrs. Brattain made an interesting talk explaining about the endowment fund which provides part of the income to support the Masonic and Eastern Star Home for elder members. Mrs. Zumbun reported on a visit to the Lakeview district meeting and a visit to the Grand Chapter of Nevada.

William Morande, worshipful master of Chiloquin Lodge, was introduced and spoke briefly.

A report on the smorgasbord dinner was made by Mrs. Doris Kircher.

Refreshments were served by Myrtle Myers and Pauline Harris.

GAIL MOLLISON, center, bride-elect of Fred Wade of St. Petersburg, Florida, received many lovely gifts of pottery from 35 friends who were invited for dessert by Mrs. James Schell, left, and Mrs. Julian Eccles, seated, on October 19. The Eccles home on Gonger Avenue was decorated in pink and white decor for the occasion. The pink damask and satin cloth of the tea table was accented by green ivy which trailed gracefully from a candelabra arrangement of pink carnations. Gifts were placed on a hand embroidered cloth covered table under a dainty white net umbrella. Presiding at the silver tea service were Mrs. Frank Draw and Mrs. Richard Currin. Assisting were Mrs. Seth Kerron and Mrs. John Moehl. Mrs. Edgar Sanders of Portland was present for her granddaughter's party.

Shasta Club Hosts Director

MONTAGUE — Highlight of the October meeting of the Shasta Valley Garden Club at the home of its president, Mrs. Rita Prather, was the official visit of Mrs. Lynn Carter, district director of District 8-B of the California Garden Clubs, Inc. Mrs. Carter was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. A. Hulseman of Red Bluff.

The afternoon's activities were opened with the flag salute. The new year's program books were distributed.

The printing of the books was done by Mrs. Ellen Walters. The covers were designed and hand-painted by Mrs. Pearl Conroy. Standing committee chairmen were listed as follows: civic beautification, Agnes Swigart and Grace Leavers; garden therapy, Laura Jones, Mary Lilly and Charlotte Robinson; conservation, Al-dee Davis; pennies for the Redwood Memorial and grave decorations, Henrietta Terwilliger and Ellen Walters; Little League baseball and junior gardening, Evelyn Hansen; Christmas contest, Ora Kouts and Eva Karney; flower arrangements, Paula Cairns and Alta Allen.

Corsages for birthdays or special occasions, Edith Williams and Irene Ellison; plant exchange and prize of a plant, Mabel French; world gardening, Alta Coatney; question and answer box, Orpha Kouts; compost and organic gardening, Mary Lilly; flower shows and garden tours, Hilda Cooley and Haldis Ralston; birds, Henrietta Terwilliger; wild flowers, Jessie Terwilliger; historian and achievement book, Ellen Walters; publicity, Alta Allen and Betty Dow; hospitality, Paula Cairns, Henrietta Terwilliger, Gladys Hart and Leah Reichman; programs, Alta Coatney, Pearl Conroy, Rita Prather and Ellen Walters; musician, Leah Reichman, and art, Pearl Conroy and Mollie Conrod.

For the program Mrs. Alta Coatney spoke on flower legends and mythology, wherein she told how chrysanthemums date back to Confucius' time, 400 to 500 B.C. As an added attraction, Mrs. Jerry Dittner whistled and sang "Rose of Tralee" and "Mockingbird Hill." Also a movie was shown featuring Canadian and Dutch flowers.

Mrs. Carter spoke on most of the projects of the garden club, stressing civic beautification, and strongly urging a litterbug campaign. She said that garden clubs should strive for more attractive communities by lending their aid with landscaping and planting of shrubs and flowers.

Mrs. Henrietta Terwilliger, chairman for the past joint event held on holiday arrangements, featuring Marvin Black as demonstrator, reported that arrangements were completed. He demonstrated Christmas decorations and some Thanksgiving and New Year decorations at the Winema Hall at the county fairgrounds, south of Yreka, on Saturday, October 29, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Lunch was available at noon. The event was sponsored jointly by the Shasta Valley Garden Club and the Yreka Garden Club.

Mrs. Edith Williams presented corsages to Mrs. Carter, Mrs. Hulseman and Mrs. Dittner, as well as to those members having birthdays this month. Assisting Mrs. Prather were Mrs. Jessie Terwilliger and Mrs. Margaret Davis.

Meat animals provide by far the largest part of U.S. farm income, with dairy products, poultry and eggs, and feed grain and hay running next in order.

Bridge Club

LANGELL VALLEY—Mrs. Paul Monroe entertained her bridge club at her home with a dessert October 19 at 1:30. Secret Pairs were revealed and names drawn for the year.

High prize for the afternoon went to Mrs. Lester Leavitt, second high to Mrs. Cecil Haley, traveling to Mrs. Owen Pepple a low to Mrs. Jack Metler.

Others enjoying the party were Mrs. Harold Williams, Mrs. Mabel Maxwell, Mrs. Doug Smelcer, Mrs. Lloyd Gift, Mrs. Bill Burnett, Mrs. Mae Gale and Mrs. Leland Harris.

Daughters Fete Parents

The three teenage daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Riffey, Betty Jean, Jeannette and Kathleen, arranged an open house October 16 at their home, 5244 Bristol Avenue, in honor of their parents' silver wedding anniversary. They were assisted by Mrs. Vance Shephard and Mrs. Lynn Heminger, close family friends.

Approximately 50 friends called during the hours of 3 and 6 o'clock.

The young hostesses chose a theme of pink and white for decoration. A pretty three tiered wedding cake made and decorated by Mrs. Howard Bell centered the refreshment table.

Surprise guests at the open house were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Reed of White Salmon, Washington. The Reeds were also present at the wedding of the honored couple, October 17, 1935, in the Church of the Brethren in Yakima.

Mr. and Mrs. Riffey have resided in this city for 14 years and have operated the Blue Ribbon Bee Farm. Both are active in the Church of the Brethren and particularly in youth activities on the district and local levels. He is a member of the welfare commission.

Bud Rueck helped his fiancée open her gifts. They were assisted by her mother, Mrs. Henry Waldrop and sister, Cheryl, and Joan Fernlund.

Mrs. Rueck presented each hostess with a beautiful pin from Dani and Bud. Friends are invited to the wedding which will be at St. Barnabas Episcopal Church in Langell Valley at 4 o'clock November 19. Refreshments were served to 60 friends attending.
