Stamps In The News

By SYD KRONISH

The United Nations' fifth commemorative stamp of 1960 will honor the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development. It will be first placed on sale at the United Nations in New York on December 9.

The 4 cent and 8 cent stamps will feature an allegorical design showing a portion of a block and tackle device pulling heavy ropes. Around the edge of the stamps are the words "International Bank for Reconstruction and Development." It will be printed by the Government Printing Bureau in Tokyo.

This stamp is another in the series of U.N. commemoratives depicting the work of the United Nations Specialized Agencies. It was designed by A. Medina Me-administered jointly with Nigeria and Great Britain.

Since Nigeria achieved her independence on Oct. 1, 1960, Nigerian stamps used in the British Cameroons are being overprinted in red "Cameroons U. K. T. T." (United Kingdom Trust Territory) until such time as a new definitive issue for the Cameroons is introduced.

While the future of the Trust Territory will not be decided until after an expected U.N. plebiscite, the new stamps will create much philatelic interest.

On Columbus Day (October 12), Spain issued a new set of stamps commemorating the 400th anniversary of the discovery and colonization of the state of Florida in the United States. The 25 cts. portrays Menendez Aviles; 70 cts., Hernando de Soto; 80 cts., Ponce de Leon; 1 pta., Cabeza de Vaca; 2 pts., Menendez Aviles; 2.50 pts., Hernando de Soto; 3 pts., Ponce de Leon; 5 pts., Cabeza de Vaca.

Austria commemorates the 40th anniversary of the plebiscite in Carinthia by issuing a 1.50 schilling stamp. The stamp shows a landscape from the plebiscite zone featuring the township of Griffen. The color is dark green.

Haiti has issued a new stamp honoring Occide Jeanty, that country's greatest composer. He was born in Port-au-Prince, March 16, 1860. This new series of commemoratives portrays Jeanty against two backgrounds. One shows part of the score of one of his compositions. The other depicts the National Palace in Haiti.

Japan has issued a new 10 yen stamp to mark the establishment of the Okayama Astrophysical Observatory. The stamp depicts the observatory and surrounding scenery. Also issued by Japan were two yen stamps showing sports events. One illustrates hurdle jumping and the other fencing.

dina of Uruguay who also designed the 1955 adhesive honoring the International Civil Aviation Organization.

An interesting philatelic note has been received from the British Crown Agents in London concerning the British Cameroons. They consist of two detached sections lying on the eastern border of Nigeria and are "trust territories" under the United Nations
