

AFL Race Tightens, Leaders Lose; National League Showdown Looming

Green Bay Number One; Bears Racked

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

This should be showdown week for the Green Bay Packers, who must derail the National Football League champion Baltimore Colts to keep their title-bound express rolling toward the Western Division crown.

The Packers, picking up momentum at every stop in a determined drive to bring the circuit's smallest city its first title since 1944, relied on a high-scoring duo of Paul Hornung and Jim Taylor for a 19-13 triumph over the Pittsburgh Steelers Sunday.

Green Bay's fourth consecutive victory after an opening game loss left them atop the Western standings when the Chicago Bears bowed to the San Francisco 49ers 25-7.

The two-time champion Colts, prepping for the Packers' invasion of Baltimore this Sunday, smashed the Dallas Cowboys 45-7 with Johnny Unitas passing for four touchdowns and extending his record TD-a-game streak to 43 straight regular season contests.

The Colts have moved into second place with a 4-2 record while the Bears, who will be idle this week, are in third with a 3-2-1 mark.

The scrambled situation is similar in the Eastern Division where the Cleveland Browns thumped the Washington Redskins 31-10 on Bobby Mitchell's running and passing to wind up in a tie for first place with idle Philadelphia. Both are 4-1.

The New York Giants fell into third with a 3-1-1 slate as the St. Louis Cardinals upset the defending Eastern titlist 20-13.

The Browns will meet the Giants this Sunday in a crucial test while the Eagles tackle Pittsburgh.

In the other game on Sunday's program, the Los Angeles Rams ousted Detroit's Lions 48-35 for their first victory.

American League action was limited to two games. Dallas edged Denver 17-14, dropping the Broncos into a tie for the Western Division lead with Los Angeles, and Buffalo upset Houston's Eastern Division front-runners 25-24.

Packers 19, Steelers 13

Taylor crashed over from the 1-yard line to cap a 66-yard drive that gave Green Bay the lead with 1:03 remaining after a 12-0 huge built on Hornung's four field goals had been wiped out by the Steelers (2-3-1). Touchdown passes of 37 and 48 yards by Pittsburgh's ailing Bobby Layne were not enough to combat Taylor and Hornung, who have scored 101 of the Packers' 137 points.

49ers 25, Bears 7

Quarterback John Brodie took over for injured Y. A. Tittle with the 49ers trailing the Bears 7-6 in the second period and within a space of 47 seconds San Francisco (3-3) had a pair of TDs. J. D. Smith slammed one yard for the first score. Willie Galtmore then fumbled the ensuing kickoff and Bobby Waters pounced on it. Two plays later R. C. Owens took a 32-yard pitch from Brodie for another six-pointer.

Colts 45, Dallas 7

Unitas passed without Dallas (0-6) dizzy, connecting with 68, 52 and 70-yard touchdown aerials to Ray Berry and letting a 20-yard payoff pitch to Lenny Moore. The lone Dallas score came on a five-yard flip from Don Heinrich to Billy Houston in the third period after a wind-blown kickoff gave the Cowboys the ball on Baltimore's 26.

Browns 31, Skins 10

Mitchell tossed the first touchdown pass of his NFL career—a 23-yarder to Ray Renfro—and gave the Browns a 14-3 halftime lead over the Redskins (1-2-2) after Jimmy Brown had scored on a 25-yard scamper. Mitchell also tallied on a three-yard run and Milt Plum threw a 53-yard scoring toss to Gern Nagler to pace the Cleveland offensive.

SL 20, New York 13

Billy Stacy's 37-yard run with a recovered fumble in the third period was the clincher for the Cards (3-3), who wrecked the Giants by intercepting five passes and grabbing three fumbles. Mel Triplett's three-yard slam gave New York a 7-3 lead before St. Louis went ahead at the half on a 41-yard scoring handoff from John Roach to Sonny Randle. Stacy did the rest.

Rams 48, Lions 35

The have-nots banged each other around with the Rams (4-1-1) registering their highest score in 22 games and winning their first in 14 decisions. Los Angeles built a 34-21 margin at the half but needed a 31-yard Billy Wade to Jim Phillips pass to put it out of reach of the Lions (1-4), who got a three-TD performance from Jim Ninowski.

Stengel Hints Offer May Come From LA

GLENDAL, Calif. (UPI)—What does Casey Stengel have planned for the future?

The 70-year-old ex-manager of the New York Yankees was back in his home town today refusing to answer that question—at least for another three weeks.

Stengel and his wife, Edna, returned from the East Coast Saturday to an enthusiastic welcome from his home town, but the man who set baseball history by winning seven world championships in a 12-year span as Yankee pilot evaded any definite answer as to what lies ahead.

Case admitted in straightforward language, and not his so-called Stenglesque in which he twists words about as a pretzel-maker twists dough, that he did have plenty of job offers.

But he added that he would make a three-week vacation before making any decision.

Casey said he had at least four offers to return to baseball, but wouldn't give any hint which of the baseball organizations had approached him.

"After three weeks I might decide whether I'll retire, return to baseball or go into some other line of work," he said. "I'm not hurting financially so I can decide as I want."

Casey did toss a hint that led to speculation one offer may have come from the new American League franchise in Los Angeles.

"I may have a team around here in the near future, but can't tell you much about it," he told a crowd of 200 persons at City Hall ceremonies. He refused to expand the remark.

"I'm probably in demand, but I'm probably a high priced manager," he quipped.

In addition to baseball offers, Stengel said he was promised fabulous jobs in radio and television. But he said he didn't feel he was an actor, although he did agree to appear on the Perry Como program which will be shown next week.

"I've been offered $50,000 and $100,000, just like that," he said. "Why I've even been offered $200,000 or $300,000 for my life story. But that takes time to do."

Stengel said he left a fine Yankee team for a new manager Ralph Houk. He added that he knows Houk is capable "because he worked for me."

Ancient Arch Promises Foe Title Fight

ROME (AP)—Slugging Giulio Rinaldi, 25-year-old Italian light heavyweight boxing titlist, today holds a 10-round victory over world champion Archie Moore. But he's not sure he can do it at 15 rounds in a title match.

Rinaldi, a virtual unknown who won the Italian crown this year on a first-round knockout, upset ageless Archie Saturday.

"I'm going to need practice—more experience—before I take on Germany's Erich Schoepfer for the European championship," Rinaldi said. "And certainly I'll need more experience, particularly in staying 15 rounds, before I meet Moore in the crack at the world title which he promised me."

Moore's recognition as world champion was taken from him last week by America's National Boxing Association, but he still is recognized in New York and other states not associated with the NBA and in Europe.

Archie, who may be anywhere from 44 to 47 years old, collected his purse of $20,000 and said, "This guy actually is good. He is a new man. He is new blood in the boxing game. We will fight for the title next time—let's say early next summer in an open stadium."

Bills, Texans Instrumental In Victories

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The versatility of fullback Jack Spikes of the Dallas Texans and defensive halfback Billy Atkins of the Buffalo Bills have tightened the races in the American Football League today.

Both division leaders, the Denver Broncos in the Western section, and the Houston Oilers in the Eastern, tasted defeat Sunday with Spikes and Atkins proving instrumental in both cases.

Dallas, the Western Division cellar-dwellers, stunned Denver 17-14 and dropped the Broncos into a tie for the lead with Los Angeles which beat Boston 45-16 Friday night. Buffalo, third in the East, upset front-running Houston 25-24.

Spikes, a 220-pound power-driving fullback with a talented toe, provided the Texans with their margin of victory over Denver with an 11-yard field goal in the third period. The former TCU mainstay also scored Dallas' first touchdown and booted two extra points.

Atkins, a defensive specialist who took over Buffalo's kicking chores against Houston when Joe Hergert was hurt, kicked three field goals to help beat Houston.

An ex-Auburn stalwart who also saw service with the San Francisco 49ers of the National League, Atkins produced the winning field goal from 15 yards out with less than six minutes to play. His others were 22 and 45-yard kicks.

Texans 17, Broncos 14

The Texans, boosting their record to 3-4, staved off a last-minute Denver threat after building up an early lead on the running of Spikes and Abner Haynes. The Broncos missed a tie when Gene Mingo's 39-yard field goal try was wide with 30 seconds to go.

A recovered fumble set up Spikes' 1-yard plunge for Dallas' first touchdown in the opening period. Denver tied the score on Al Carmichael's 47-yard jaunt.

Haynes scored from the 3 in the second quarter before Spikes kicked his game-winning field goal. Denver scored in the final stanza on a 55-yard touchdown pass play from Frank Tripucka to Bob McNamara.

Dallas moved to within one game of first place in the West. Denver and Los Angeles are tied for the lead with 4-3 win-loss records.

Buffs 25, Houston 24

Buffalo linebacker Archie Matsos intercepted two Houston passes, ran back a short punt and set up a pair of Bills' TDs.

Buffalo's Johnny Green clicked on 18 and 49 passes for 334 yards and two touchdowns. Hergert also kicked a 26-yard field goal before he was hurt.

George Blanda of Houston threw three touchdown passes, but completed only 9 of 32 attempts for 124 yards. His 50-yard field goal gave the Oilers a 24-19 lead before Atkins' last period heroics.

Houston (5-2) leads second-place New York (4-4) by 1½ games. Buffalo (3-4) moved to within a half-game of New York.

Chicago VP Heads Group

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Hank Greenberg, expected to head a syndicate that will operate the new American League baseball franchise here, will be in town Tuesday. One of his first stops will be the Coliseum.

Greenberg, now a vice president of the Chicago White Sox, will discuss a rental contract with president George Kinsey of the Coliseum Commission and Coliseum manager Bill Nicholas.

The commission will meet Wednesday. President Walter E. O'Malley of the Los Angeles Dodgers probably will try to close a deal under which his club would rent the Coliseum next year. Greenberg is expected to ask that the American League be given equal consideration.

Nicholas said last week that he believes both clubs could use the big arena.

WINS BADMINTON TITLE

WIMBLEDON, Eng. (UPI)—Mrs. Judy Devlin Hashman of the United States won the women's title in the Wimbledon Open badminton championships Sunday while Thailand's Jaroen Watnasin won the men's title.

The hosts scored in the second period when Dave Crosswhite counted on a live-yard pass from Scotty Large.

Archie, who may be anywhere from 44 to 47 years old, collected his purse of $20,000 and said, "This guy actually is good. He is a new man. He is new blood in the boxing game. We will fight for the title next time—let's say early next summer in an open stadium."

'Bowl Fever' Epidemic Threatens

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

About this stage of the college football season some of the teams that have been establishing fine reputations begin popping stitches and coming apart at the seams from the rigors of all-major schedules.

Anyone who could predict where the stuffing will begin to show this week would do more for boosting football variety than the inventor of the automatic pinsetter. At least a half dozen of the leading teams will be performing under the scrutiny of scouts from the major bowls and somewhere something is bound to give.

It happened last Saturday to Syracuse, the 1959 national champion; to Baylor, and, to a lesser extent, to second-ranked Mississippi. As a result only seven major teams go into November with clean records.

They are Missouri, Navy, Utah State and New Mexico State, all seven-game winners, and Iowa, Minnesota and Yale, each 6-0. And look what's in store for them.

No matter who wins, this game won't inevitably lead to a championship or a bowl game. Iowa's Hawkeyes still have Ohio State and Notre Dame ahead while Minnesota has Purdue and Wisconsin.

Navy, for whom Joe Bellino pulled out a 147 decision over Notre Dame, encounters Duke, a 6-0 winner over Georgia Tech. Both teams are very much in the bowl picture at this stage.

Then there's Missouri-Colado, Southern California-Washington, Tennessee-Georgia Tech and Utah State-Wyoming, all of which figure importantly in conference title races and bowl maneuvers. Missouri, scoring the first time it got the ball for the fifth time in seven games, whopped Nebraska 28-0. Colorado, tied with the Tigers for the Big Eight lead, had trouble beating the same Nebraska team two weeks ago but staged a joyous celebration after last Saturday's 7-0 decision over Oklahoma.

Utah State and Wyoming share the Skyline Conference lead after beating Brigham Young 34-0 and Utah 17-7, respectively. Southern Cal, 21-6 winner over Stanford, and Washington, 7-6 victor over Oregon, share the top spot in the Big Five. The winner likely will represent the West in the Rose Bowl.

Since Mississippi was held to a hard-won 6-6 tie by Louisiana State, Tennessee, also tied but unbeaten, is in a good spot to bid for the Southeastern Conference title. The Vols trounced North Carolina 27-14 Saturday. Ole Miss and Tennessee meet Nov. 12.

Mississippi had to call on the place kicking skill of Allen Green to save its tie with LSU, which had lost three straight games by the field goal route. Green kicked two to make it 6-6, the second with six seconds left.

Baylor yielded the Southwest Conference lead to Rice and dropped into a second-place tie with Arkansas after losing 14-6 to Texas Christian, which had won only one previous game. How long this situation will last is debatable. Arkansas, which conquered Texas A&M 7-3 in a Saturday night game, is the next Rice opponent while Baylor faces Texas, 17-7 winner over SMU.

Syracuse, lacking the strong two-day interior lineman who made last year's Sizeable Seven so formidable, was outplayed and beaten 10-0 by a Pittsburgh team whose 3-2-2 record hardly is a true measure of its strength. Both Pitt losses were by one point.

Those upsets weren't the day's real shockers, however. The defeat of previously unbeaten Rutgers by non-winning Villanova, 14-

12, George Washington's 20-6 victory over the Air Force and the 44-6 score Columbia rolled up against Cornell were among the more surprising results.

New Mexico State remained on the unbeaten list with a 27-24 victory over Arizona State, earned on two long runs by Pervis Atkins. Yale whipped Dartmouth 29-0 but still has to deal with Princeton in the Ivy League race. They're tied with 4-0 records after the Tigers outscored Brown 54-21 in a meeting between two virtually defenseless teams. Princeton has its first big test against Harvard this week before facing the Elis.

Ohio State, ranked eighth in the AP poll, beat 10th-ranked Michigan State 21-10 and remained very much in the Big Ten calculations. In a surprisingly close intersectional game, UCLA conquered North Carolina State 7-0. Tulane drubbed William and Mary 40-7 and Memphis State whipped VMI 21-8, a Southern Conference contender, in other late Saturday games.

at Washington State, San Jose State at COP and Idaho at Arizona, the last two night games. George Fleming's talented toe for the third straight week booted Washington to victory in the Oregon game.

Oregon scored first on Bruce Snyder's five-yard run in the third period, but Cleveland Jones missed the extra point. Washington tallied with just 2 minutes 24 seconds left on a 47-yard pass play from quarterback Bob Hyner to Don McKeta. Fleming converted.

Terry Baker provided Oregon State with a 6-0 lead over California with an 83-yard touchdown run, but the Bears surged back in the second half. Steve Bates ran 12 yards to cap a 48-yard drive, and quarterback Randy Gold sneaked in from the one after a 51-yard advance.

USC's Jerry Traynham intercepted a Stanford pass on the fourth play of the game and ran 35 yards to score as the Trojans took a lead they never relinquished.

UCLA's Kilmer hit through the air, completing five out of five passes in the second period for a 71-yard touchdown advance and victory over North Carolina State. Washington State's pass combination of quarterback Mel Melin and end Hugh Campbell brought the first two Cougar touchdowns in the triumph over San Jose.

COP halfback Raymond Hall caught a 39-yard pass to set up one fourth-period score and sped 59 for another as the Tigers put their record at 3-3.

Both teams scored single final touchdowns in the third quarter, the winners on Charlie Wilson's 75-yard punt return and Oregon College on Pennell's two-yard plunge.

In the game at Ashland Southern Oregon quarterbacks Eldon Francis and Doug Olsen each pitched two touchdowns passes. The two completed 21 of 32 passes for 241 yards.

Third place Portland State, which wound up its conference season last weekend, defeated Nevada, 14-7.

B Gridders Set Playoffs

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The lineup is about complete for the Oregon class B high school football playoffs, which open the weekend of Nov. 11-12.

Only the district 4 and 8 championships are undecided.

Yoncalla, the 1959 co-state champion with St. Mary's of Medford, and Powers will clash Friday for the district 4 title.

Joseph can clinch the district 8 championship Friday by repeating an earlier victory over Union. A Union victory would make necessary a vote of district school boards to decide the representative.

Here are the first round pairings:

Knappa (district 1) vs. Silet (district 2) at Newport Nov. 12. Harrisburg (district 3) vs. Yoncalla or Powers (district 4).

St. Mary's (district 5) vs. Wasco or Maupin (district 6).

Umatilla (district 7) vs. Joseph or Union (district 8).
