Ex-Envoy Cited In Dope Case

NEW YORK (AP) — A former Guatemalan ambassador and eight other persons have been indicted on charges of conspiring to smuggle millions of dollars worth of heroin into this country since 1952.

The Guatemalan, Mauricio Rosal, 47, was dismissed as ambassador to Belgium and the Netherlands after his arrest here Oct. 3. He did not have diplomatic immunity as he was not accredited to this country at the time of his arrest.

Also indicted Monday were Eileen Tardiff, Robert Le Cent and Felix Barner, all of Paris; Charles Bourbonnais and Nicholas Calamaris, both of New York City, and Gilbert Coscia, Montreal, plus a John Doe and Richard Roe.

Government agents have accused Rosal of acting as courier in the vast smuggling scheme.

Rosal, Tardiff, a Paris businessman; Bourbonnais, a pursuer on a Paris-New York run of Trans World Airways, and Calamaris, a longshoreman, had 115 pounds of heroin in their possession when arrested, the government said.
