Dads Invited To PTA Night

Fathers of students of Mills and Ponderosa schools are especially invited to attend PTA meeting Nov. 9 at 7:30 p.m. in Mills Auditorium. Judge Charles Foster will speak on juveniles and problems concerning them.

Room visitation at Mills School will be from 7 until 7:30 p.m. The teachers from Ponderosa School will be in the Mills cafeteria and will welcome parents there.

There will be no baby sitting provided this evening.

The PTA is sponsoring grocery boxes to be given to needy families at Christmas. Anyone wishing to contribute may bring non-perishable items to the Nov. 9 meeting.

Refreshments will be served following the meeting.

Etna Rebekahs

ETNA — The regular meeting of Aureola Rebekah Lodge No. 113 of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows was held Thursday evening, October 27.

The meeting was presided over by Dorice Young, noble grand. Fourteen members were present.

Greetings from the board of trustees of the Odd Fellows Home at Saratoga were read. A letter from the Youth Camp Committee of the Rebekah Assembly gave details of the camp. This youth camp is sponsored by the Grand Lodge and Rebekah Assembly and is located in the Sierra Mountains.

Also read was a letter with information regarding the United Nations Pilgrimage for youth contest which is sponsored by the Odd Fellows and Rebekah lodges of California.

Thank you cards were read from Mrs. Elizabeth Chapman, vice president of Rebekah Assembly, and Mrs. Letha Henderson for courtesies shown them on their recent visit to the lodge. A thank you card from the Rebekah Assembly secretary thanked the lodge for the donation sent for the president's three-fold projects.

Those attending the Tuesday meeting of Castle Lake Rebekah Lodge No. 6, Mount Shasta, were Mrs. Virginia Roberts, Bernice Smith and Mrs. Augusta Rotan.

After the meeting the birthdays of Mrs. Geraldine Facey, Mrs. Thelma McNeil and Mrs. Pauline Mills were celebrated. The tables were decorated with jack-o'-lanterns and bowls of autumn shrubs. Refreshments were served by Eleanor Lewis, Mrs. Meta Quigley and Dorice Young.

SHOWN IN PARIS

WARDROBE MUST

To be included in your fall wardrobe: a least one wool knit. In this age of travel by car, train and plane, the wool knit is indispensable.

Hunters Feted In Malin

MALIN—Mrs. J. Walter Browning entertained 15 ladies with open house, Friday afternoon, Oct. 28, at her home near Malin.

The guests, from many parts of California, were here with their husbands who were duck hunting in the Tulelake area.

The afternoon was spent enjoying the many antiques in the Browning home and the beautiful dry flower arrangements for which Mrs. Browning is noted.

Games were played and refreshments were served to Mrs. Leona Cheney of Arcadia, Mrs. Marie Thrash and Mrs. Verna Tanner, both of Santa Cruz; Mrs. Mabel Hahn of Paradise, Mrs. Nancy Paette, Ingwood; Mrs. Goldie Miller, Lynwood; Mrs. Rose Sichter, Sunland; Mrs. Lela Beggs, Pasadena; Mrs. Grace Hawkins, Lakehead; Mrs. Marie Mars, Long Beach; Mrs. Goldie Pierce, Bloomington; Mrs. Mary Moore, Eureka; Mrs. Helen Pockrandt, Big Bear Lake, and Mrs. Ethel McArthur, Pittsburg.

Women's Club Plans Bazaar

ETNA—The Etna Women's Club met in the social hall of the Congregational Church with 32 members and guests present on Wednesday, Oct. 26.

The business meeting was presided over by President Lois Berry.

It was voted that the club sponsor the Camp Fire Girls again this year.

After the usual business meeting, Mrs. Kellers sang two numbers, "Autumn Leaves" and "The Swallow," accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Iris Parker. Mrs. Jane Arbuckle gave a talk on South America.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. John Campbell Nov. 16.

The hostesses were Mrs. John Jenner Sr., Mrs. Walter McCrary, Mrs. Nerve Hayden and Mrs. Amy Derham.

BRIDGE PARTY

McCLOUD — Mrs. Josephine Bamblino was hostess at a bridge party Oct. 30, when three tables of bridge were played. The evening began with dessert being served at 8 o'clock. The table was attractively decorated in the Halloween theme. Mrs. Dorothy Larsen won high prize, Mrs. Teresa Glica, second, and Mrs. Pat Hartley, low. The traveling honors prize was won by Mrs. Susie Mills and the traveling slam prize went to Mrs. Bernice Willis.

FOR SALE, clean comfortable home for one bird. Further information on this and many other bargain items may be obtained by attending the OTI Faculty Wives and Women's Club rummage sale scheduled for Nov. 11 from 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. and Nov. 12 from 8:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. Mrs. George Crow, holding the bird cage, and Mrs. W. M. Douglas, in front at right, are co-chairmen. They are assisted by Mrs. R. L. Madden, in back, left, and Mrs. A. E. Smith, right. For donations or pickup call Mrs. Crowe at TU 2-0174, Mrs. Douglas, TU 2-5713, or Mrs. Howard Rowe, TU 4-4562. Rummage may be left at the sight of the sale, 603 South Sixth Street (formerly Leach Electric) the afternoon of Nov. 10.

FOR EVENING
For evening, one Parisian designer showed the billowing, unpressed hem. This is supposed to extend a sort of invitation to the dance.

OTI Women Plan Events

Two forthcoming events of special interest to members were discussed at the November meeting of the Oregon Technical Institute Faculty Wives and Women's Club.

The first of these is a rummage sale to be held Nov. 11 and 12 at 603 South Sixth Street (formerly Leach's Electric). Co-chairmen for the sale are Mrs. W. M. Douglas and Mrs. George Crowe. The second event is a Christmas dinner dance to be held Dec. 9 at Reames Country Club.

DISH-WASHER WANTED! ...by homemakers concerned with family health and happiness!

The lady who runs your house faces a sink filled with dirty dishes, pots, and pans about one-thousand times every year -- if she washes dishes the old-fashioned way! Certainly she has more useful family activities to occupy her time!

an ELECTRIC DISHWASHER frees her for hundreds of hours of family fun with the flick of a switch!

Electric dishwasher magic slays bacteria, too -- it scalds china, silverware, and utensils in water and detergents hotter and stronger than hands can stand.

An electric dishwasher helps keep the whole family healthier and happier!

MR. AND MRS. HAROLD TIEHM were married Oct. 29 in the First Methodist Church of Reno. Mrs. Tiehm is the former Betty Prather.

Local Couple Wed In Reno
Betty Prather and Harold Tiehm, both of Klamath Falls, exchanged wedding vows in a double ring ceremony Oct. 29 in the First Methodist Church in Reno.

A reception at the home of the bridegroom's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Tiehm, followed the church ceremony. The pink and white wedding decor was carried out with streamers and wedding bell forming a background for the bride's table, which was covered with a lace cloth over pink. The three-tiered cake was placed between two bowls of pink and white flowers and lighted tapers.

Mrs. Earl McLaughlin of Klamath Falls, matron of honor, wore a green frock styled like that of the bride. Her corsage was a white orchid.

The bridegroom, son of A. Tiehm of Oroville, was attended by Al Powers of Layton, California.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Roma Basich of Sacramento, was dressed in a lavender ensemble accented with white accessories and a purple throatied white orchid corsage.
